The Anthropology of Law Fernanda Pirie, 2013-10-31

Questions about the nature of law its relationship with custom and the form of legal rules categories and claims are placed at the centre of this challenging yet accessible introduction Anthropology of law is presented as a distinctive subject within the broader field of legal anthropology suggesting new avenues of inquiry for the anthropologist while also bringing empirical studies within the ambit of legal scholarship The Anthropology of Law considers contemporary debates on human rights international laws and new forms of property alongside ethnographic studies of order and conflict resolution It also delves into the rich corpus of texts and codes studied by legal historians classicists and orientalist the great legal systems of ancient China India and the Islamic world unjustly neglected by anthropologists are examined alongside forms of law created on their peripheries Ancient codes medieval coutumes village constitutions and tribal laws provide rich empirical detail for the authors analysis of the cross cultural importance of the form of law as text or rule and carefully selected examples shed new light upon the interrelations and distinctions between laws custom and justice Legalism is taken as the starting point for inquiry into the nature and functions of law and its roles as an instrument of government a subject of scholarship and an assertion of moral order An argument unfolds concerning the tensions between legalistic thought and argument and the ideological or aspirational claims to embody justice morality and religious truth which lie at the heart of what we think of as law

The Constitutional Foundations of European Contract Law Kathleen Gutman, 2014-12-18 Situated within the context of the ongoing debate about European contract law this book provides a detailed examination of the European Union s competence in the field of contract law It analyses the limits of Union competence in relation to several relevant Treaty provisions which potentially confer competence on the Union to adopt a comprehensive contract law instrument and the exercise of Union competence in connection with the operation of the principles of subsidiarity proportionality and sincere cooperation It also explores the viability of several alternative and complementary routes to the adoption of such an instrument including enhanced cooperation an intergovernmental treaty and certain American techniques Setting forth an elaborate account of the context for this debate and its chronological development at the European level this book charts the discussions relating to the European Union s competence to regulate contract law and offers a comparative analysis of the approach taken to the approximation of contract law in the American setting Setting forth a detailed account of the context for this debate and its chronological development at the European level the book charts the discussions that have occurred within and outside the EU relating to the transnational competence to regulate contract law Situating European constitutional law within the continued debate about European contract law it also reflects upon the contract law structure of the United States and examines the viability of alternative and complementary routes to the adoption of a comprehensive instrument of substantive contract law

Bina, 2013-02-13 A Prelude to the Foundation of Political Economy is a groundbreaking volume of theory and strategy on political economy and polity of the twenty first century Distilled in concrete terms it elucidates the enigma of oil in view of the centrality of global social relations The Kalamari Union: Middle Class in East and West Markku Kivinen, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this volume asks are new social classes in the making in eastern Europe Are class issues withering away How do different classes organize their lives what kind of strategies do they adopt in East and West Markku Kivinen brings Eastern Europe into the class debate Recent sociological discussions have touched upon questions of class in Eastern Europe only very provisionally On the other hand old analyses of social stratification under conditions of actually existed socialism are no longer relevant in the current situation This book analyses processes of class relations in Eastern Europe from new theoretical vantage points using up to date empirical data Under socialism power was said to be vested in the working class However there was a constant tension between the holy proletariat and the real life of the working class Today all political forces in Eastern Europe leftist and liberal alike are hankering for the middle class This book explores the real processes in both East and West This leads to more concrete political and even moral issues The new sacred middle class is challenged The contributors adopt several conceptual approaches and perspectives which enter into a fruitful exchange in this book American Rehabilitation ,1993 Business America ,1985 Includes articles on international business opportunities The Federal Reporter ,1989 New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Collieries, communities and the miners' strike in Scotland, 1984-85 Jim Phillips, 2017-10-03 This book analyses the 1984 5 miners strike by focusing on its vital Scottish dimensions especially the role of workplace politics and community mobilisation The year long strike began in Scotland with workers defending the moral economy of the coalfields and resisting pit closures and management attacks on trade unionism The book relates the strike to an analysis of changing coalfield community and industrial structures from the 1960s to the 1980s It challenges the stereotyped view that the strike began in March 1984 as a confrontation between Arthur Scargill the miners leader and Margaret Thatcher's Conservative government Before this point in fact 50 per cent of Scottish miners were already on strike or engaged in a significant pit level dispute with their managers who were far more confrontational than their counterparts in England and Wales The book explores the key features of the strike that followed in Scotland the unusual industrial politics the strong initial pattern of general solidarity and then the emergence of varieties of pit level commitment These were shaped by differential access to community level moral and material resources including the economic and cultural role of women and pre strike pit level economic performance Against the trend elsewhere notably in the English Midlands relatively good performance prior to 1984 was a positive factor in building strike endurance in Scotland The book shows that the outcome of the strike was also distinctive in Scotland with an unusually high level of victimisation of activists and the acceleration of deindustrialisation consolidating support for devolution contributing to the establishment of the Scottish Parliament in 1999 California. Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District). Division 2. Records and Briefs California (State)., The Complete Directory to

Bulletin of the European Communities, 1986 Publications of the National Bureau of Standards, 1986 Catalog United States. National Bureau of Standards, 1987 Critical Theory Ethics for Business and Public Administration David M. Boje, 2008-09-01 The purpose of this book is to develop those ethical traditions For example Horkheimer's books Eclipse of Reason and Critique of Instrumental Reason and his early and now classic essay Materialism and Morality ask for a reformation of Kantian ethics The reform sought is that categorical imperative in an individualism capitalism serves to worsen the difference between business ethics and moral philosophy That is it is not enough to try to be good or ethical as individuals when it is the systemic processes that must be dealt with Therefore Horkheimer asks that the maxim that would be made universal be done at the level of people organizing with others to change the social system that is producing the unethical behaviors The book is organized into several sections The first section sets the stages beginning with a challenge to the field of social responsibility in business and public administration Jones Ten bos Parker have a new book out that is smashing Then we turn to Carr and to Zanetti who each have done critical theory work in public administration This is followed by Heather Hopfl who edited an issue on ethics of goodness and does the kind of writing that makes deep connections The next set of chapters make topic connections rhizomatics dialogics of co experience story narrative and postmodern The third set of topics focus on application technofuturist international business economics university environment accounting spirituality strategy and ending with Mills work on silence of race ethnicity in business and public administration ethics writing
