Pol Pots Little Red The Sayings Of Angkar:

Pol Pot's Little Red Book Henri Locard, 2004 This handbook of slogans interspersed with historical commentary and contextual analysis describes the Khmer Rouge regime and exposes the horrific foundation upon which it constructed its reign of terror On April 17 1975 the Khmer Rouge seized power in Phnom Penh In the three years eight months and twenty days of their government they made a tabula rasa of Cambodian society and culture forcing the people to evacuate the cities and move to the countryside They instituted a total collectivism based on the doctrine of Pol Potism the Cambodian version of fundamentalist Maoism Assembled in this collection are the sayings that make up a newspeak uttered by the Khmer Rouge cadres slogans maxims advice instructions watchwords orders warnings and threats All were spoken in the name of the ominous Angkar a faceless and lawless Organization in order to indoctrinate control and terrorize the populace These sayings have been collected from survivors throughout Cambodia between 1991 and 1995 They form the macabre bare bones skeleton of Khmer Rouge ideology

The Killing of Cambodia: Geography, Genocide and the Unmaking of Space James A. Tyner, 2017-05-15 Between 1975 and 1978 the Khmer Rouge carried out genocide in Cambodia unparalleled in modern history Approximately 2 million died almost one quarter of the population Taking an explicitly geographical approach this book argues whether the Khmer Rouge's activities not only led to genocide but also terraced the erasure of space In the Cambodia of 1975 the landscape would reveal vestiges of an indigenous pre colonial Khmer society a French colonialism and American intervention The Khmer Rouge however were not content with retaining the past inscriptions of previous modes of production and spatial practices Instead they attempted to erase time and space to create their own utopian vision of a communal society The Khmer Rouge's erasing and reshaping of space was thus part of a consistent sacrifice of Cambodia and its people a brutal justification for the killing of a country and the birth of a new place Democratic Kampuchea While focusing on Cambodia the book provides a clearer geographic understanding to genocide in general and insights into the importance of spatial factors in geopolitical conflict

At the Edge of the Forest Anne Ruth Hansen, Judy Ledgerwood, 2018-05-31 Inspired by David Chandler's groundbreaking work on Cambodian attempts to find order in the aftermath of turmoil these essays explore Cambodian history using a rich variety of sources that cast light on Khmer perceptions of violence wildness and order examining the forest and cultured space and the fraught edge where they meet

The Barter Economy of the Khmer Rouge Labor Camps Scott Pribble, 2023-07-21 Pribble investigates the barter economies that developed in many of the labor camps established under the Khmer Rouge in Cambodia When the Khmer Rouge abolished currency and markets in 1975 starving Cambodians created underground exchanges in labor camps throughout the country bartering luxury items for food and other necessities while simultaneously undermining the regime's ideological goals of eliminating any traces of capitalism in Democratic Kampuchea Pribble asserts three key points about the barter economy in the Khmer Rouge labor camps First the underground exchanges in Democratic Kampuchea provided food and medicine for desperate people subsisting under a totalitarian regime saving the lives of countless Cambodians Second bartering was the riskiest way to obtain food because it was dependent upon the discretion of two or more individuals from different social classes under the threat of violent punishment thereby altering the social dynamics of the camps Finally despite the regime's extreme efforts to eliminate foreign influence from the country and impose communist ideology on millions of citizens basic forms of market capitalism and a demand for superfluous luxury goods persisted in labor camps throughout the country A fascinating study of the human consequences of imposing rigid ideology that will be of particular interest to scholars and students of political history and Southeast Asian history The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Reconstructing Conflict Scott Kirsch, Colin Flint, 2016-04-08 Reconstruction the rebuilding of state economy culture and society in the wake of war is a powerful idea and a profoundly transformative one From the refashioning of new landscapes in bombed out cities and towns to the reframing of national identities to accommodate changed historical narratives the term has become synonymous with notions of post conflict society it draws much of its rhetorical power from the neat demarcation both spatially and temporally between war and peace The reality is far more complex In this volume reconstruction is identified as a process of conflict and of militarized power not something that clearly demarcates a post war period of peace Kirsch and Flint bring together an internationally diverse range of studies by leading scholars to examine how periods of war and other forms of political violence have been justified as processes of necessary and valid reconstruction as well as the role of war in catalyzing the construction of new political institutions and destroying old regimes Challenging the false dichotomy between war and peace this book explores instead the ways that war and peace are mutually constituted in the creation of historically specific geographies and geographical knowledges

Dystopia Gregory Claeys, 2017 Dystopia A Natural History is the first monograph devoted to the concept of dystopia Taking the term to encompass both a literary tradition of satirical works mostly on totalitarianism as well as real despotisms and societies in a state of disastrous collapse this volume redefines the central concepts and the chronology of the genre and offers a paradigm shifting understanding of the subject Part One assesses the theory and prehistory of dystopia By contrast to utopia conceived as promoting an ideal of friendship defined as enhanced sociability dystopia is defined by estrangement fear and the proliferation of enemy categories A natural history of dystopia thus concentrates upon the centrality of the passion or emotion of fear and hatred in modern despotisms The work of Le Bon Freud and others is used to show how dystopian groups use such emotions Utopia and dystopia are portrayed not as opposites but as extremes on a spectrum of sociability defined by a heightened form of group identity The prehistory of the process whereby enemies are demonised is explored from early conceptions of monstrosity through Christian conceptions of the devil and witchcraft and the persecution of heresy Part Two surveys the major dystopian moments in twentieth century despotisms focussing in particular upon Nazi Germany Stalinism the Chinese Cultural Revolution and Cambodia under Pol Pot The concentration here is upon the political religion hypothesis as a key explanation for the chief excesses of communism in particular Part Three examines literary dystopias It commences well before the usual starting point in the secondary literature in anti Jacobin writings of the 1790s Two chapters address the main twentieth century texts usually studied as representative of the genre Aldous Huxley s Brave New World and George Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four The remainder of the section examines the evolution of the genre in the second half of the twentieth century down to the present

Genocide and Propaganda Paul R. Bartrop, 2025-01-23

Augmenting the main text are a collection of 19 high interest sidebars and an end of volume bibliography Brothers in Arms Andrew Mertha, 2014-02-06

When the Khmer Rouge came to power in Cambodia in 1975 they inherited a war ravaged and internationally isolated country Pol Pot s government espoused the rhetoric of self reliance but Democratic Kampuchea was utterly dependent on Chinese foreign aid and technical assistance to survive Yet in a markedly asymmetrical relationship between a modernizing nuclear power and a virtually premodern state China was largely unable to use its power to influence Cambodian politics or policy In Brothers in Arms Andrew Mertha traces this surprising lack of influence to variations between the Chinese and Cambodian institutions that administered military aid technology transfer and international trade Today China s extensive engagement with the developing world suggests an inexorably rising China in the process of securing a degree of economic and political dominance that was unthinkable even a decade ago Yet China s experience with its first ever client state suggests that the effectiveness of Chinese foreign aid and influence that comes with it is only as good as the institutions that manage the relationship By focusing on the links between China and Democratic Kampuchea Mertha peers into the black box of Chinese foreign aid to illustrate how domestic institutional fragmentation limits Beijing s ability to influence the countries that accept its assistance

Perpetrator Cinema Raya Morag, 2020-03-17

Perpetrator

Cinema explores a new trend in the cinematic depiction of genocide that has emerged in Cambodian documentary in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries While past films documenting the Holocaust and genocides in Yugoslavia Rwanda and elsewhere have focused on collecting and foregrounding the testimony of survivors and victims the intimate horror of the autogenocide enables post Khmer Rouge Cambodian documentarians to propose a direct confrontation between the first generation survivor and the perpetrator of genocide These films break with Western tradition and disrupt the political view that reconciliation is the only legitimate response to atrocities of the past Rather transcending the perpetrator s typical denial or partial confession this extraordinary form of duel documentary creates confrontational tension and opens up the possibility of a transformation in power relations allowing viewers to access feelings of moral resentment Raya Morag examines works by Rithy Panh Rob Lemkin and Thet Sambath and Lida Chan and Guillaume Suon among others to uncover the ways in which filmmakers endeavor to allow the survivors moral status and courage to guide viewers to a new more complete understanding of the processes of coming to terms with the past These documentaries show how moral resentment becomes a way to experience symbolize judge and finally incorporate evil into a system of ethics Morag s analysis reveals how perpetrator cinema provides new epistemic tools and propels the recent social cultural psychological shift from the era of the witness to the era of the perpetrator Cambodia and the Politics of Aesthetics Alvin Cheng-Hin Lim,2013
