Police Administration In Africa Toward Theory And Practice In The English Speaking Countries:

Police Administration in Africa James S. E. Opolot, 2008 In Police Administration in Africa Ejakait S E Opolot lays the foundation for future developments and trends in police administration in the former British colonies in Africa Opolot emphasizes the dynamism between theory and practice As such Police Administration in Africa establishes a model to be replicated in other parts of the Third World Encyclopedia of Law Enforcement Larry E Sullivan, 2005 Vols 1 and 2 cover U S law enforcement Vol 3 contains articles on individual foreign nations together with topical articles on international law enforcement Urbanization, Policing, and Security Gary Cordner, Dilip K. Das, AnnMarie Cordner, 2009-12-16 In terms of raw numbers the amount of world urban dwellers have increased four fold skyrocketing from 740 million in 1950 to almost 3 billion in 2007 This ongoing urbanization will continue to create major security challenges in most countries Based on contributions from academics and practitioners from countries as diverse as Nigeria Pakistan Policing the Global South Danielle Watson, Sara N. Amin, Wendell C. Wallace, Oluwagbenga (Michael) Akinlabi, Juan Carlos Ruiz-Vásquez, 2022-11-11 Policing the Global South provides scholarship which further transnationalises and democratises ideas about policing practices and philosophies highlighting renovations in approaches to policing studies and injecting innovative perspectives into the study of policing from scholars positioned on the periphery Criminological knowledge depolarisation underscores a conscious effort by scholars from the Global South to increase intellectual knowledge focused on developing context specific responses to issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to the non Northern context Such shifts draw attention to the expanse of spaces beyond Northern centres rife with challenges unlike any specific to those experienced or conceptualised by scholars from the Global North with an applied Northern criminological lens Applying a postcolonial lens to empirical knowledge from country specific cases in former colonies in Africa Asia the Caribbean the Pacific and Latin America this book examines how policing issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to non Northern contexts are addressed The primary purpose is to share innovations in the field of policing service provision threats to security crime responses justice and international trends developed in postcolonial developing country contexts Given the aim of the book and the contributors own research on issues of policing across the globe it discusses themes including but not limited to the colonial legacies and their impact on policing how plural regulatory systems and partnerships are navigated by the police the linkages between access to justice community perceptions and police legitimacy innovations and challenges in organisational reform crime prevention and community partnerships and the expanding roles of police organisations in the Global South While each chapter presents a policing issue in a country within a specific part of the Global South the book highlights how important it is to frame responses based on contextual realities informed by an awareness of the past and present with a goal of informing the future Delivering a much needed introduction to those specialising in policing in developing countries this book is invaluable reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice governance policy and IR as well as professionals in policing organizations across the globe

Dispute Settlement in Eastern Guinea-Bissau Anne-Kristin Borszik, 2016 There is no justice in Guinea Bissau many people lament in this West African country Impunity and legal uncertainty tend to mark their interactions with judges regulos chiefs police officers or imams when they have become involved in a dispute Based on case analysis this book analyzes dispute settlers self presentations stories told of them and aggrieved parties agency in semi rural Guinea Bissau By introducing a typology of dispute settlers as well as the concepts of person bound dispute settlement and supporter activation this book contributes to debates in legal anthropology Dissertation Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 72 Subject African Studies Legal Anthropology Debating African Issues William G. Moseley, Kefa M. Otiso, 2022-09-14 This debate style textbook allows students to explore diverse well founded views on controversial African issues pushing them to go beyond superficial interpretations and complicate and ground their understanding of the continent From the positive images in the film Black Panther to the derogatory remarks of former American President Donald Trump the African continent often figures prominently in the collective global imagination This interdisciplinary collection covers 20 enduring and contemporary debates across a broad range of subjects affecting Africa from development and health to agriculture climate change and urbanization Each chapter has a pro and con view penned by a leading expert on the topic in an accessible and engaging style These contrasting views on each issue are framed by an introduction that helps the student contextualize the debate and draw on further resources Moreover they enable readers to deepen their understanding of the topic develop a more nuanced perspective and foster classroom debates This book is an excellent resource for Africa related courses across a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields including African studies anthropology development studies economics environmental studies geography history international studies political science and public health

Paths between Peace and Public Service Jürgen René Blum, Marcos Ferreiro-Rodríguez, Vivek Srivastava, 2018-12-28 Building a capable public service is fundamental to postconflict state building Yet in postconflict settings short term pressures often conflict with this longer term objective To ensure peace and stabilize fragile coalitions the imperative for political elites to hand out public jobs and better pay to constituents dominates merit Donor financed projects that rely on technical assistants and parallel structures rather than on government systems are often the primary vehicle for meeting pressing service delivery needs What then is a workable approach to rebuilding public services postconflict Paths between Peace and Public Service seeks to answer this question by comparing public service reform trajectories in five countries Afghanistan Liberia Sierra Leone South Sudan and Timor Leste in the aftermath of conflict The study seeks to explain these countries different trajectories through process tracing and structured focused methods of comparative analysis To reconstruct reform trajectories the report draws on more than 200 interviews conducted with government officials and other stakeholders as well as administrative data The study analyzes how reform trajectories are influenced by elite bargains and highlights their path dependency shaped by preconflict legacies and the specifics of the conflict period. As the first systematic study on postconflict public service reforms, it identifies lessons for the future engagement of development partners in building public services. Rebuilding the bureaucracy is possibly the most underappreciated policy and research question in fragile states today. This is one of the most politically astute and thoughtful books I've read on postconflict policy making of any kind.

Christopher Blattman
 Ramalee E. Pearson, Professor of Global Conflict Studies, Pearson Institute for the Study and Resolution of Global Conflicts, Harris Public Policy University of Chicago. Rebuilding states after conflict is the greatest challenge in development today. And yet we know precious little about the actual experience of countries that have tried to rebuild their civil service and restore public services. This is a monumental study based on extensive empirical data and field-based research across multiple cases that actually opens up the black box of state building in conflict-affected countries. It should be required reading for anyone who takes on this extraordinary challenge.

Joel S. Hellman, Dean, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University. There isn't a more pressing problem in international development than formulating practical strategies for building institutions in fragile states. This book is a remarkable distillation of the frontline experiences of the World Bank in tackling this task. Finally, we have the basis for an empirically grounded assessment of what works and why.

Security, crime and segregation in West African cities since the 19th century
 Laurent Fourchard, Isaac Olawale Albert, Institut français de recherche en Afrique, 2003-01-01

Les questions de sécurité et de criminalité sont devenues de nouveaux objets d'études en Afrique essentiellement en raison de la multiplication récente des formes de criminalité urbaine ou organisée et de la privatisation avancée de grandes portions d'espaces urbains phénomènes que l'on pouvait croire limités aux Amériques. L'endémisme de la crise économique, l'accroissement de la pauvreté, la criminalisation de l'état et la faillite des polices tropicales ont considérablement accru les sentiments d'insécurité et accéléré le développement d'agences privées qui prennent le relais d'états incapables d'assumer le contrôle du corps social. Les auteurs de ce livre interrogent l'efficacité des fonctions régaliennes de l'état : sécurité, police, justice et leur éventuelle évolution des organismes privés, associations, groupes d'autodéfense, milices. Ils rendent compte d'un groupe et de sa catégorisation criminels, d'individus et proposent un nouveau regard sur une certaine gestion urbaine de l'insécurité et de la ségrégation. Alors que de nombreuses études se sont naturellement focalisées sur les vingt dernières années, la quasi-absence d'études historiques sur la sécurité et la criminalité laisserait supposer que ces phénomènes sont nouveaux en Afrique. L'une des priorités de ce livre est de reconsidérer ces questions en proposant une approche pluridisciplinaire : histoire, science politique, géographie, sociologie, littérature. De nombreuses études empiriques témoignent de la variété des trajectoires criminelles des rôles successifs des polices coloniales et postcoloniales, de la multiplicité des agences de sécurité privée et des formes ségrégatives d'organisation de l'espace urbain en Afrique de l'Ouest. En raison de la taille et du nombre de ses villes et de l'épaisseur historique de la criminalité urbaine le Nigeria tient une place singulière dans ce livre Premier pays de la région entrer dans l'ère du crime organisé le Nigeria constitue aujourd'hui une base essentielle des réseaux criminels transnationaux à l'échelle mondiale The Encyclopedia of Crime and Punishment Wesley G.
