Police Protection To Victims Of Crime:

Police Protection to Victims of Crime Mohammad Farajiha Ghazvini, 2002      Support for Victims of Crime in Asia Wing-Cheong Chan, 2007-09-12 Examines developments in support for victims of crime in Asia It shows how contrary to the widely held belief that Asian jurisdictions shy away from a rights based approach there has been considerable progress in support for victims of crime      Proposals for a Constitutional Amendment to Provide Rights for Victims of Crime United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1996      An Inventory of Surveys of the Public on Crime, Justice and Related Topics , 1972      Proceedings of the Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics, 1991 A planned study program of the Public Health Service administered by the National Center for Health Statistics      How to protect journalists and other media actors? Council of Europe, Violence against journalists is on the rise across Council of Europe member States attacks are getting more severe and include in some cases murders and car bombs as well as other forms of physical violence and threats The present Implementation guide aims to provide member States with concrete responses to the question what can and should be done to protect journalists and other media actors It does so by providing more context to the Committee of Ministers Recommendation on the Protection of journalism and the safety of journalists and other media actors including references to the case law of the European Court of Human Rights and to other sources More importantly it showcases concrete valuable practices in the area and makes suggestions for implementation of the Recommendation with a view to removing the issue of safety and impunity from the realm of mere theory and projecting it into actionable measures A self assessment tool offered by the Implementation guide is intended to help member States objectively review the state of implementation of the Recommendation in their respective jurisdictions      Proceedings of the ... Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics ,      Witness Protection and Criminal Justice in Africa Suzzie Oyakhire, 2023-06-30 This book examines the concept of witness protection which is still at an early developmental stage in several African countries including Nigeria from a legal and institutional perspective Recent developments in Nigeria highlight the need to clarify legal and conceptual issues within the existing legal framework for protecting witnesses Using the Nigerian case study the book illustrates some obscurities inherent in the concept of witness protection These are highlighted around five critical areas the definition of witness protection the scope of beneficiaries requiring protection the nature of crimes necessitating protection the nature of protective measures and the administrative control of witness protection Specifically this book draws from the existing literature and practices of witness protection and adopts two distinct perspectives the criminal justice perspectives and human rights perspectives as heuristic tools for analysing the concept and to separate the disparate influences that shape how it is construed These distinctions are utilised throughout the book as an integrated way of conceptualising the concept of witness protection By discussing the practice of witness protection within the Nigerian context the book contributes to African conversations on the topic of witness protection The clarifications made in this book are utilised in making normative proposals for developing a legal framework for witness protection in Nigeria They are also useful for other African countries interested in developing a witness protection framework as part of criminal justice reform This book will serve as a reference point for legal scholars researchers academics postgraduate students and policy makers interested in the concept of witness protection It would also be useful for courses concerned with comparative criminology where there is an interest in developments in the Global South
