Policing Corruption:

Policing Corruption Rick Sarre, Dilip K. Das, Hans-Jörg Albrecht, 2005-01-01 This volume presents insight from police practitioners and scholars on the nature and extent of governmental corruption in both more and less developed countries in all regions of the globe Editors Rick Sarre Dilip K Das and H J Albrecht and the notable contributors shed light on the conditions under which corruption flourishes and its far reaching consequences for individuals safety and freedom as well as each nation s security economy and even sovereignty Importantly this volume also presents innovative anti corruption strategies to be undertaken by governments international organizations and the media Devoting special attention to malpractice within police forces The Policing of Corruption is an important resource for all who work to undo corruption and its debilitating effects

Corruption and Anti-Corruption in Policing—Philosophical and Ethical Issues Seumas Miller, 2016-11-18 High levels of police corruption have been a persistent historical tendency in police services throughout the world While the general area of concern in this book is with police corruption and anti corruption the focus is on certain key philosophical and ethical issues that arise for police organisations confronting corruption On the normative account proffered in this book the principal institutional purpose of policing is the protection of legally enshrined moral rights and the principal institutional anti corruption arrangement is what is referred to as an integrity system The latter includes oversight bodies with investigative powers and internal affairs departments as well as specific devices such as early warning indicators professional reporting mechanisms and integrity tests Key concepts analysed in the book include corruption noble cause corruption and collective moral responsibility The key ethical issues analysed include investigative independence professional reporting covert operations and integrity tests

Countering police corruption: European perspectives Rositsa Dzhekova, Analyst, Center for the Study of Democracy Philip Gounev, Senior Analyst, Center for the Study of Democracy Tihomir Bezlov, Senior Analyst, Center for the Study of Democracy, This publication reviews the policies and institutional mechanisms for countering police corruption in several EU member states To be effective anti corruption efforts should be based on a system of independent and mutually accountable institutions which are sufficiently empowered to implement their objectives This report emphasises the last two decades of experience in the UK Belgium and Austria in modernising their anti corruption policies and institutions In addition to the institutional and legal framework concrete measures and methods risk assessment integrity tests etc are also examined The Bulgarian and Romanian experience in countering corruption in law enforcement institutions is also reviewed with an emphasis on some of the main problems and gaps that undermine effective counter measures

Global Issues in Contemporary Policing John Eterno, Arvind Verma, Aiedeo Mintie Das, Dilip K. Das, 2017-03-03 This book addresses six areas of policing performance management professional and academic partnerships preventing and fighting crime and terrorism immigrant and multicultural populations policing the police and cyber security The book contains the most current and ground breaking research across the world of policing with contributors from over 20 countries It is also a suitable reference or textbook in a special topics course It consists of edited versions of the best papers presented at the IPES annual meeting in Budapest The Complexities of Police Corruption Marilyn Corsianos,2012-08-31 The Complexities of Police Corruption provides a comprehensive examination of the role of gender as it relates to police corruption crime control and policing as an institution Author Marilyn Corsianos examines different forms of corruption including some behaviors that are generally not recognized as corruption by police departments such as selective law enforcement racial profiling gender bias and other discriminatory police practices against marginalized populations The book also explores the role of police culture in preserving and defending misconduct and digs into the thorny question of why significantly fewer women are involved in police corruption Throughout the book excerpts from interviews with 32 former police officers illustrate the complex ways that gender construction is connected to police corruption and shows how policing as an institution creates corruption risks The Complexities of Police Corruption is a challenging and insightful book about the intersections between gender and corruption Internal Security and Community Policing Dr. Vinita Pandey,2018-03-26 The present book focuses on various issues and threats pertaining to internal security the various factors and non state actors creating the threat the initiatives by the police to strengthen internal security by involving community and how the community participation can strengthen those initiatives by enhancing the community policing measures The study is focussed on Hyderabad There are multiple manifestations of internal security which are both implicit and explicit Communalism has been identified as one of the principal threats to internal security with specific reference to Hyderabad In this background it is highly desirable and required to strengthen community to face any eventualities and encourage working and functional partnership with security and law enforcement agencies especially the police forces Police or community alone cannot manage security concerns In these globalized times strong partnership between community and police is mandatory The book based on primary research tries to establish that community policing can be a significant factor in addressing the internal security threats Enhancing Police Integrity Carl B. Klockars,Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich,M.R. Haberfeld,2007-04-27 How can we enhance police integrity The authors surveyed over 3000 police officers from 30 U S police departments on how they would respond to typical scenarios where integrity is challenged They studied three police agencies which scored highly on the integrity scale Charlotte Mecklenburg North Carolina Charleston South Carolina and St Petersburg Florida The authors conclude that enhancing police integrity goes well beyond culling out bad apple police officers Police administrators should focus on four aspects organizational rulemaking detecting investigating and disciplining rule violations circumscribing the informal code of silence that prohibits police from reporting the misconduct of their colleagues and understanding the influence of public expectations and agency history The Encyclopedia of Police Science Jack R. Greene,2007 First published in 1996 this work covers all the major sectors of policing in the United States Political events such as the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 have created new policing needs while affecting public opinion about law enforcement This third edition of the Encyclopedia examines the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement discussing past and present practices Curbing Corruption in Asian Countries Jon S. T. Quah, 2011-07-21 As corruption is a serious problem in many Asian countries their governments have introduced many anti corruption measures since the 1950s This book analyzes and evaluates the anti corruption strategies employed in Hong Kong SAR India Indonesia Japan Mongolia the Philippines Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand Political Corruption Arnold J. Heidenheimer, Michael Johnston, 2011-12-31 Corruption is once again high on the international policy agenda as a result of globalization the spread of democracy and major scandals and reform initiatives But the concept itself has been a focus for social scientists for many years and new findings and data take on richer meanings when viewed in the context of long term developments and enduring conceptual debates This compendium a much enriched version of a work that has been a standard reference in the field since 1970 offers concepts cases and fresh evidence for comparative analysis Building on a nucleus of classic studies laying out the nature and development of the concept of corruption the book also incorporates recent work on economic cultural and linguistic dimensions of the problem as well as critical analyses of several approaches to reform While many authors are political scientists work by historians economists and sociologists are strongly represented Two thirds of the nearly fifty articles are based either on studies especially written or translated for this volume or on selected journal literature published in the 1990s The tendency to treat corruption as merely a synonym for bribery is illuminated by analyses of the diverse terminology and linguistic techniques that help distinguish corruption problems in the major languages Recent attempts to measure corruption and to analyze its causes and effects quantitatively are also critically examined New contributions emphasize especially corruption phenomena in Asia and Africa contrasts among region and regime types comparing U S state corruption incidence European Party finance and corruption assessments of international corruption rating project analyses of international corruption control treaties unintended consequences of anti corruption efforts Cumulatively the book combines description richness analytical thrust conceptual awareness and contextual articulation Policing and the Rule of Law in Sub-Saharan Africa Oluwagbenga Michael Akinlabi, 2022-10-18 This book argues that strengthening policing and the rule of law is pivotal to promoting human rights equity access to justice and accountability in sub Saharan Africa Through a multidisciplinary approach this book considers the principles of accountability just laws open government and accessible and impartial dispute resolution in relation to key institutions that deliver and promote the rule of law in selected countries in sub Saharan Africa Chapters examine a range of topics including police abuse of power and the use of force police citizen relations judicial corruption human rights abuse brutality in the hands of armed forces and combating arms proliferation Drawing upon key institutions that deliver and promote the rule of law in sub Saharan African countries including Botswana Ghana Kenya Madagascar Nigeria Rwanda and South Africa the contributors argue that strengthening policing security and the rule of law is pivotal to promoting human rights equity access
