Hurrah Revolutionaries Patryk Polec, 2015-04-01 Polish Canadians typically identify themselves as stringent anti Communists a label solidified by the legacies of the 1980s Solidarity movement its founder Lech Walesa and the widespread anti Communist riots that helped topple the Communist regime in 1989 Hurrah Revolutionaries challenges this common perception by examining the Polish immigrant community in Canada and the development of radical and traditionally deviant ideologies during the interwar period until the end of the Second World War Patryk Polec unveils a versatile well funded and influential Polish pro Communist movement with a talented leadership that worked tirelessly to persuade traditionally conservative and religious immigrants to adopt an ideology that was anti nationalist and atheist He traces the roots of socialist support in Poland its transplantation to Canada where the movement enjoyed its greatest support the challenges the movement faced within an ethnic community influenced by Catholicism and the complications caused by its links to the Communist International Polec offers a deeper understanding of the ways in which the Communist Party was able to appeal to certain ethnic groups through cultural outreach as well as its complicated and often counter productive relationship with the Soviet Union Grounded in recently declassified Polish consular documents and RCMP surveillance reports Hurrah Revolutionaries is the first full length study of Polish Communists in Canada a group that constituted a substantial portion of the country s socialist left in the twentieth century Ethnic Organizational Dynamics Henry Radecki, 1980-02-06 How is the culture of an immigrant group kept alive in a new country Voluntary organizations play a significant role according to the author in preserving the cultural heritage of Poland for Polish immigrants and their descendants in Canada However participation in these organizations is declining The author explains why in this sociological study The first part of the study describes Polish organizations in Canada between 1860 and 1973 The second part describes field research carried out in Metropolitan Toronto in 1974 Results of the research indicate that Polish organizations continue to contribute to the maintenance of a distinctive Polish culture but that the long term survival of these organizations is not assured The study will be useful to sociologists students of Polish culture and those interested in ethnic organizations in general Polish War Veterans in Alberta Aldona Jaworska, 2019-01-07 In the aftermath of World War II more than 4 500 Polish veterans displaced by war and the Soviet oriented Polish government were resettled in Canada as farm workers 750 of these men were accepted by the province of Alberta Polish War Veterans in Alberta examines how these former soldiers came to experience their new country and its sometimes harsh postwar realities This compelling work of social history is brought to life through the words and stories of four veterans whose remembrances provide an intimate first hand look at a moment of Canada s past that is at risk of being forgotten Storied Landscapes Frances Swyripa, 2010 Storied Landscapes is a beautifully written sweeping examination of the evolving identity of major ethno religious immigrant groups in the Canadian West including Ukrainians Mennonites Icelanders Doukhobors Germans Poles Romanians Jews Finns Swedes Norwegians and Danes Migration and (Im)Mobility Anna Xymena Wiczorek, 2018-07-15 In her endeavour to overcome the established methodological conceptual and empirical dualism of mobility and migration Anna Xymena Wiczorek develops a mobilities perspective by combining migration studies theories with approaches of the mobility studies With the help of rich empirical data gathered among young adults of Polish heritage in Germany and Canada Wiczorek conceptualizes three patterns of im mobility which illustrate the diversity of immigrants geographical movements after their initial migration She thus reveals the different social configurations promoting or hindering the development maintenance or shifting of each pattern in migrants biographical trajectories
