Political Economy Of Regionalism:

The Political Economy of Regionalism Edward D. Mansfield, Helen V. Milner, 1997 Exploring regionalism from a political economic perspective this text investigates why regional arrangements are formed the conditions under which these arrangements solidify and why they take on different institutional forms The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society The Political Economy of Regionalism in East Asia H. Yoshimatsu, 2008-04-23 An exploration of the evolution of regionalism and regional economic relations in East Asia since the late 1990s The book analyzes moves towards free trade agreements cooperation in information technology energy and environment and agriculture by highlighting preferences and actions of governmental and business actors The Political Economy of New Regionalism in Northeast Asia Chang Jae Lee, You-il Lee, John Benson, Ying Zhu, Yoon-Jong Jang, 2018-09-03 The book is the first attempt to offer a holistic and integrated exploration of the political economic framework underpinning economic regionalism In doing so it provides a much needed contribution to the literature on international political economy international relations and Asian political economy in relation to economic regionalism The existing literature provides broad generalizations and limited discussion on economic integration i e free trade agreements FTA with most analyses of regionalism generally contained to the field of economics with a focus on the welfare implications of FTAs both for participating countries and the world as a whole Readers of this book can view economic regionalism from a variety of perspectives with input from Chinese Japanese and Korean research institutes business and industry groups and government officials Drawing on the considerable country experience and expertise of the authors the book attempts to unravel the paradox of the market driven economic globalization process regionalism and address a serious gap in the current literature relating to the political economic characteristics and strategies of China Japan and Korea in relation to economic regionalism The Political Economy of Regionalism in Africa S. K. B. Asante, 1986 The Politics of Economic Regionalism K. Cai, 2010-01-20 While major theories of economic regionalism in the existing literature are primarily constructed to explore institutionalized regional integration European integration in particular the analytical framework developed in this work explains the unique process and pattern of regional integration in East Asia New Regionalisms in the Global Political Economy Shaun Breslin, 2002 Following the financial crisis at the end of the twentieth century regionalisms in the global political economy have evolved in a number of ways This informative book brings together the leading scholars in the field to provide cutting edge analyses of contemporary regions and regionalist projects Providing an innovative integration of theoretical issues with sophisticated analyses of a wide range of international case studies the chapters systematically consider the relationship between globalization financial crisis and regional projects In combination the contributions to this volume provide the widest possible base within the literature for a truly comparative study of contemporary regionalism

The Political Economy of Asian Regionalism Giovanni Capannelli,Masahiro Kawai,2014-01-23 This book contributes to the theoretical and empirical literature on Asian regionalism with a focus on the innovations needed to reform the current institutional architecture in Asia After reviewing the key issues and challenges related to the political economy of Asia s economic cooperation and integration the book discusses various aspects of regionalism from political and economic perspectives It looks at the rationale for regional collective action and reviews the trend of economic integration with a focus on the implications of the global financial crisis In addition to reviewing the key issues related to the development of regional institutions for integration the book analyzes issues such as trade and finance and deals with the implications of regionalism in terms of the introduction of domestic reforms in Asian countries before discussing the possible formation of a region wide economic community The eight chapters of the book are based on respective papers initially prepared for the Asian Development Bank Institute Conference 2010

The Political Economy of New Regionalism in Northeast Asia Ch'ang-jae Yi,2018 The book is the first attempt to offer a holistic and integrated exploration of the political economic framework underpinning economic regionalism In doing so it provides a much needed contribution to the literature on international political economy international relations and Asian political economy in relation to economic regionalism The existing literature provides broad generalizations and limited discussion on economic integration i e free trade agreements FTA with most analyses of regionalism generally contained to the field of economics with a focus on the welfare implications of FTAs both for participating countries and the world as a whole Readers of this book can view economic regionalism from a variety of perspectives with input from Chinese Japanese and Korean research institutes business and industry groups and government officials Drawing on the considerable country experience and expertise of the authors the book attempts to unravel the paradox of the market driven economic globalization process regionalism and address a serious gap in the current literature relating to the political economic characteristics and strategies of China Japan and Korea in relation to economic regionalism

The Political Economy of Regionalism, Trade, and Infrastructure Hong Liu,Kong Yam Tan,Guanie Lim,2021-09-25 The articles are timely especially in view of the increasingly tense global regional environment The articles provide both a quantitative and qualitative angles to important questions facing our world too many quantitative oriented papers will not appeal to the broader audience while too many qualitative oriented papers will not attract the attention of economists and data scientists The articles are drawn from a diverse range of professions including academia government and the financial sector

The Political Economy of New Regionalisms in the Pacific Rim José Briceño-Ruiz,Philippe De Lombaerde,2019-08-28 Combining an analysis of regionalism from a systemic view with a domestic political economy analysis this book sheds light on the new dynamics and emerging configurations of regionalisms and interregionalisms in the post Trans Pacific Partnership TPP Donald Trump's presidency has transformed trans Pacific economic and political relations contrasting sharply with President Obama's pivot to Asia strategy Unilateralism and bilateralism have returned to the center stage at the cost of regionalism interregionalism and multilateralism Understanding these new dynamics requires closer examination of the underlying domestic political economies Examining ten country case studies of multi actor agency at the national level expert contributors argue that trans Pacific relations should not only be explained in terms of the behavior of the major powers but that medium powers and even small countries can exert influence and occupy strategic nodes and contribute to shaping a new international relations network Their findings will be of interest to scholars of international relations international political economy regionalism and international economics

The Political Economy of Regionalism in Southern Africa Margaret Carol Lee, 2003 In the face of increasing globalisation regionalism continues to be seen as a conduit for enhancing Africa's integration into the world economy In the light of this the countries of southern Africa have made verbal commitments to enhance regional development and the integration of their economies This important book examines the challenges to regionalism in southern Africa It tackles the issues of political and economic instability overlapping membership in regional economic organisations increased intra regional trade through the creation of free trade agreements the ability to secure needed foreign investment and the failure of governments to make a political commitment to regionalism

Political Economy of Northeast Asian Regionalism T. J. Pempel, Gérard Roland, 2008 Too often analyses of East Asia are written by outsiders the great merit of this broad ranging and well conceived collection is to showcase original perspectives from China Korea and Japan As such it is a welcome addition to the existing literature Mark Beeson the University of Birmingham UK

The Political Economy of Regionalism in Africa S. K. B. Asante, 1986

Regionalism, Economic Integration and Security in Asia T. J. Pempel, 2011 The prospects and value of economic integration and regionalism in Asia are increasingly evident in what could turn out to be the Asian Century It is within this context that this important book explores the critical economic issues security concerns and political themes pertinent to Asia in general and to East Asia in particular

Globalism and the New Regionalism Osvaldo Sunkel, Andrés Inotai, 1999-04-11 This is the first of five volumes reporting on the UNU WIDER study on New Regionalism It deals with the conceptions and meanings of two processes which probably will have a crucial influence on the shape of the new world order globalization and regionalization These studies relate to each other as challenge to response globalization being the challenge of economic and cultural homogenization of the world and regionalization being a social and political reaction The leading writers in the field contribute thought provoking and fascinating articles to this volume

Political Economy Regionalism Asia Yoshimatsu Hidetaka, 2007-11-28

Globalism and the New Regionalism Osvaldo Sunkel, Andrés Inotai, 2016-07-27 This is the first of five volumes reporting on the UNU WIDER study on New Regionalism It deals with the conceptions and meanings of two processes which probably will have a crucial influence on the shape of the new world order globalization and regionalization These studies relate to each other as challenge to response globalization being the challenge of economic and cultural homogenization of the world and regionalization being a social and political reaction The leading writers in the field contribute thought provoking and fascinating articles to this volume

The Politics of Economic Regionalism David Francis, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 The primary objective of this book is to provide an analytical understanding of the nature dynamics and complexity of the politics of economic regionalism through the prism of Sierra Leone in the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS The book also discusses the following issues the evolution of economic regionalism in West Africa and the conceptual framework for analysis the expansion of the economic regionalism developments within the West Africa sub region with that of the transformation of the global economy and international political system political economic and security developments within ECOWAS and the civil war in Sierra Leone

Regional Integration in Latin America and the Caribbean V. Bulmer-Thomas, 2001 This collection is a sober assessment of the state of regional integration in Latin America and the Caribbean It studies the question from four perspectives economic institutional political and in relation to the rest of the world It considers the questions raised by LAC countries efforts to use new regionalism to address the challenges of globalization and to explore the nature and meaning of open regionalism This thematic treatment draws on the experience of the different schemes currently in place in the region NAFTA CACM CARICOM the Andean Community and MERCOSUR It also examines the nature of globalization including concerns over the relationship between regionalism and the multilateral system There is now a broad consensus among LAC countries that regional integration can help them adjust to the new world order but there is much less agreement on how to achieve it and what reforms are needed to bring it about
