The Political Economy of Foreign Policy in ECOWAS Timothy M Shaw, Julius Emeka Okolo, 1994-05-13 Both political economy and foreign policy have been transformed in the sixteen states of West Africa at the start of the 1990s because of interrelated external factors end of the Cold War and start of a New International Division of Labour and internal factors national structural adjustment programmes Sixteen leading analysts of new regional relations of both cooperation and conflict offer original revisionist insights into ECOWAS and ECOMOG debt and democracy reform and resistance The mixture of case studies and comparative analyses constitutes a comprehensive overview of West African actors issues structures perspectives and possibilities at the end of the century with relevance for development discourses and directions in other peripheral regions Together these offer timely redefinitions and reconceptualisations of central notions like civil society diplomacy foreign policy peacekeeping security and self reliance for political economies and cultures throughout the South

The Political Economy of Foreign Policy in ECOWAS Timothy M. Shaw, Julius Emeka Okolo, 1994-01-01 Together these offer timely redefinitions and reconceptualisations of central notions like civil society diplomacy foreign policy peacekeeping security and self reliance for political economies and cultures throughout the South African Foreign Policies Stephen Wright, 2018-02-22 This volume of thirteen original essays provides a timely analysis of African foreign policies in a post Cold War environment where African marginalization from the global economy appears to be increasing Three thematic essays give an overview of critical changes occurring in African foreign policies and ten country by country case studies provide specific analyses of decisionmaking intraregional relations and the struggles over policy with external agencies including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund African Foreign Policies offers explanations for how African states are adapting to the international challenges of the late twentieth century Regional Economic Organizations and

Conventional Security Challenges M. Leann Brown, 2017-11-22 Within the context of regional integration comparative regionalism organizational change and regional security literatures this book investigates three cases wherein regional economic organizations were confronted with conventional security threats the 1978 91 Association of Southeast Asian Nations Vietnam Standoff the 1990 Economic Community of West Africa Liberian Civil War Challenge and the 1990 91 European Communities Balkans Crisis While the literature suggests multiple possible explanations for regional economic organizations response to these security challenges including systemic and power related factors organizational factors and functional needs and cognitive and social factors the author argues that the decision to transform a regional economic organization into a conventional security actor is most influenced by decision makers perceptions of threat and functional necessity African Foreign Policies Gilbert M. Khadiagala, Terrence Lyons, 2001 This treatment of the relationship between domestic and international politics analyzes efforts by African states to manage their external relations amid shifts in the internal regional and global environments The study traverses the continent identifying patterns of change examining constraints and giving attention to the processes that influence policy outcomes Contributors include scholars of political science international relations African studies and conflict analysis c Book News Inc Globalization and Emerging Trends in African States' Foreign Policy-Making Process Rok Ajulu,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 The resurgence of the democratization movement in Africa in the post Cold War era is gradually replacing authoritarianism with forms of democratic systems These changes have put into question the traditional big man image of African states foreign policy and foreign policy making The first book of its kind to focus on the foreign policy making process of Southern African countries in the era of globalization these instructive and rewarding case studies contextualize the increasing involvement of other internal actors in African states foreign policy making process Foreign policy actors such as the Presidency Ministries of Defence Foreign Affairs Trade Finance and the Intelligence Community among others are examined in a comparative perspective The Institutional Transformation of the Economic Community of West African States Kofi Oteng Kufuor,2017-03-02 This book examines regional economic integration in West Africa within the context of the institutional evolution of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS It uses the tools of the New Institutional Economics School NIE to explore the origins and development of the most recent ECOWAS Treaty Particular attention is given to the interface between domestic legal arrangements and the success of open markets at the regional and international levels

The New Regionalism and the Future of Security and Development B. Hettne,2016-04-30 This book is dedicated to the implications of the new regionalism for global security and development The fourth in the five volume New Regionalism Series it features contributions from the UNU WIDER project on new regionalism African Foreign Policies in International Institutions Jason Warner,Timothy M. Shaw,2018-05-18 This book is the first to exclusively consider the foreign policy tendencies of African states in international institutions As an edited volume offering empirically based perspectives from a variety of scholars this project disabuses the notion that Africa should be considered a niche interest in the field of foreign policy analysis It asserts that the actions of the continent s states collectively serve as an important heuristic by which to interrogate and understand the foreign policies of other global states and are not simply anomalously extant entities whose actions should be studied only insofar as they deviate from predictions based on the experiences of Western or other non African states Africa's Development in the Twenty-first Century Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang,Martin Kwamina Panford,2006 Having been under colonial rule for the first half of the century by 1965 all but a handful of African countries had regained their independence and were poised to take off into an era of development However Africa now suffers from the most acute form of underdevelopment anywhere in the world Bringing together a broad selection of case studies covering a wide range of key issues this volume provides a multidisciplinary exploration of Africa s development opportunities and challenges into the twenty first century West African Worlds Reginald Cline-Cole,Elsbeth Robson,2016-02-17 West African Worlds provides a critical assessment of social economic and political change in Africa s most populous and arguably most externally focused region With an emphasis on globalisation and modernisation case studies and commentary are integrated throughout to highlight the concerns and issues of the region Enriched by an impressive mix of West African voices this text combines theory and application with policy and practice to address socio economic change the pursuit of livelihoods and development within West Africa Comparative Regional Integration Finn Laursen,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 After briefly reviewing the basic theoretical stances animating the rest of the proceedings Laursen international politics U of Southern Denmark presents 11 contributions that comparatively review processes of regional integration around the world Zones of Peace in the Third World Arie M. Kacowicz,1998-09-17 Provides a critique and an extension of the democratic peace theory by focusing on the regional level and by offering alternative explanations for the maintenance of democratic and non democratic zones of peace

Humanitarian Intervention and Conflict Resolution in West Africa John M. Kabia,2016-05-13 The end of the Cold War has been characterized by a wave of violent civil wars that have produced unprecedented humanitarian catastrophe and suffering Although mostly intra state these conflicts have spread across borders and threatened international peace and security One of the worst affected regions is West Africa which has been home to some of Africa s most brutal and intractable conflicts for more than a decade This volume locates the peacekeeping operations of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS within an expanded post Cold War conceptualization of humanitarian intervention It examines the organization s capacity to protect civilians at risk in civil conflicts and to facilitate the processes of peacemaking and post war peace building Taking the empirical case of ECOWAS the book looks at the challenges posed by complex political emergencies CPEs to humanitarian intervention and traces the evolution of ECOWAS from an economic integration project to a security organization examining the challenges inherent in such a transition African Foreign Policies Paul-Henri Bischoff,2020-03-26 This book explores at a time when several powers have become serious players on the continent aspects of African agency past and present by African writers on foreign policy representative of geography language and state size In the past African foreign policy has largely been considered within the context of reactions to the international or global external factor This groundbreaking book however looks at how foreign policy has been crafted and used in response not just to external but also mainly domestic imperatives or theoretical signifiers As such it narrates individual and changing foreign policy orientations over time and as far back as independence with mainly African based scholars who present their own constructs of what is a useful theoretical narrative regarding foreign policy on the continent how theory is adapted to local circumstance or substituted for continentally based ontologies The book therefore contends that the African experience carries valuable import for expanding general understandings of foreign policy in general This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of Foreign Policy Analysis Foreign Policy Studies African International Relations Politics Studies Diplomacy and more broadly to International Relations Canadian Foreign Policy in Africa Edward Ansah

Akuffo,2016-04-15 After over fifty years of Canadian engagement with Africa no comprehensive literature exists on Canada's security policy in Africa and relations towards Africa's regional organizations The literature on Canada's foreign policy in Africa to date has largely focused on development assistance For the first time Edward Akuffo combines historical and contemporary material on Canada's development and security policy while analyzing the linkage between these sets of foreign policy practices on the African continent The book makes an important contribution to the debate on Canada's foreign policy generally and on Africa's approach to peace security and development while shedding light on a new theoretical lens non imperial internationalism to understand Canada's foreign policy The author captures an emerging trend of cooperation on peace security and development between the Canadian government and African regional organizations in the twenty first century The resulting book is a valuable addition to the literature on African politics new regionalisms foreign policy global governance and international development studies The Use of Force in International Law Tom

Ruys,Olivier Corten,Alexandra Hofer,2018-04-26 The international law on the use of force is one of the oldest branches of international law It is an area twinned with the emergence of international law as a concept in itself and which sees law and politics collide The number of armed conflicts is equal only to the number of methodological approaches used to describe them Many violent encounters are well known The Kosovo Crisis in 1999 and the US led invasion of Iraq in 2003 spring easily to the minds of most scholars and academics and gain extensive coverage in this text Other conflicts including the Belgian operation in Stanleyville and the Ethiopian Intervention in Somalia are often overlooked to our peril Ruys and Corten's expert written text compares over sixty different instances of the use of cross border force since the adoption of the UN Charter in 1945 from all out warfare to hostile encounters between individual units targeted killings and hostage rescue operations to ask a complex question How much authority does the power of precedent really have in the law of the use of force

Dreams of Power K. van Walraven,2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU's ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU's role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU's internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU's role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

Diplomacy and Developing Nations Maurice A. East,Justin Robertson,2012-09-10 This volume explores the foreign policy environment facing developing nations and their particular foreign policy making structures and processes By defining foreign policy broadly to incorporate the activities of a range of state actors and non state actors the book broadens the range of analytical frameworks for studying foreign policy making in developing nations Thus the actions of small groups of elites international institutions and transnational networks are seen to be part of foreign policy making as well as the traditional operations of foreign ministries The volume is comprised of an extensive introduction four thematic chapters six country studies and a conclusion that ties together common themes These serve as a useful contribution to the analysis of foreign policy making in developing nations a neglected area in the comparative study of foreign policy
