Political Spectacle And The Fate Of American Schools:

Political Spectacle and the Fate of American Schools Mary Lee Smith, Linda Miller-Kahn, Walter Heinecke, Patricia F. Jarvis, 2004-02-02 The authors argue that the most influential and well known educational policy programs in the past 30 years are not based on democratic consensus but are instead formulated by the political community as symbolic efforts meant to generate personal partisan gain

The Political Classroom Diana E. Hess, Paula McAvoy, 2014-11-13 WINNER 2016 Grawemeyer Award in Education Helping students develop their ability to deliberate political questions is an essential component of democratic education but introducing political issues into the classroom is pedagogically challenging and raises ethical dilemmas for teachers Diana E Hess and Paula McAvoy argue that teachers will make better professional judgments about these issues if they aim toward creating political classrooms which engage students in deliberations about questions that ask How should we live together Based on the findings from a large mixed method study about discussions of political issues within high school classrooms The Political Classroom presents in depth and engaging cases of teacher practice Paying particular attention to how political polarization and social inequality affect classroom dynamics Hess and McAvoy promote a coherent plan for providing students with a nonpartisan political education and for improving the quality of classroom deliberations

Hidden Markets Patricia Burch, 2009-01-13 Across the U S test publishers software companies and research firms are swarming to take advantage of the revenues made available by the No Child Left Behind Act In effect the education industry has assumed a central place in the day to day governance and administration of public schools a trend that has gone largely unnoticed by policymakers or the press until now Drawing on analytic tools Hidden Markets examines specific domains that the education industry has had particular influence on home schooling remedial instruction management consulting test development data management and staff development Burch s analysis demonstrates that only when we subject the education industry to systematic and in depth critical analysis can we begin to demand more corporate accountability and organize to halt the slide of education funds into the market

Education Research in the Public Interest Gloria Ladson-Billings, William F. Tate, 2014-04-15 Acclaimed African American scholar and teacher educator Gloria Ladson Billings examines the field of teacher education through the accomplishments and contributions of well known African American teacher educators Lisa Delpit Carl Grant Jacqueline Jordan Irvine Geneva Gay Cherry McGee Banks William Tate and Joyce King Using in depth interviews and storytelling Ladson Billings depicts deeply personal portraits of these scholars experiences to confront race and racism not only theoretically but within their everyday professional lives in the Big House of the academy Ladson Billings gives these portraits even greater resonance and meaning by pairing these teacher educators with historical figures such as Harriet Tubman Nat Turner and Charlotte Forten whose contributions to the struggle for social justice are a wellspring of hope and courage to all educators and a tribute to African Americans whose political scientific and spiritual efforts made life better for us all This compelling book is important reading for all educators who want to transform teacher education for the better The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education is enthused and excited about Ladson Billings's dynamic and provoking scholarship Its focus on outstanding African American teacher educators is a major contribution to teacher education literature This cutting edge research is likely to prompt some of the best of unconventional teacher education thought David G Imig President and CEO American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education In this moving and original book Gloria Ladson Billings offers complex insights about the politics of scholarship the experiences of scholars of color in universities and the larger enterprise of teaching and teacher education for social justice Marilyn Cochran Smith Lynch School of Education Boston College and President of the American Educational Research Association AERA for 2004-05

Performance Theories in Education Bryant Keith Alexander, Gary L. Anderson, Bernardo Gallegos, 2004-12-13 Breaking new ground by presenting a range of approaches to understanding the role function impact and presence of performance in education this volume is a definitive contribution to a beginning dialogue on how performance as a theoretical and

Advocacy Leadership Gary L. Anderson, 2009-05 Advocacy Leadership lays out a post reform agenda that moves beyond the neo liberal competition framework to define a new accountability a new pedagogy and a new leadership role definition in education

A Good Investment? Amy Brown, 2015-11-15 Select students and teachers worked the room at a fundraising event for a New York City public high school Amy Brown calls College Preparatory Academy It was their job to convince wealthy attendants that College Prep with its largely minority and disadvantaged student body and its unusually high rate of graduation and college acceptance was a worthy investment To this end students and teachers tried to seem needy and deserving hoping to make supporters feel generous important and not threatened How much Brown asks does competition for financing in urban public schools depend on marketing and perpetuating poverty in order to thrive And are the actors in this drama deliberately playing up stereotypes of race and class A Good Investment offers a firsthand look behind the scenes of the philanthropic approach to funding public education a process in which social change in education policy and practice is aligned with social entrepreneurship The appearance of success equity or justice in education Brown argues might actually serve to maintain stark inequalities and inhibit democracy Her book shows that models of corporate or philanthropic charity in education can in fact reinforce the race and class hierarchies that they purport to alleviate As their voices reveal the teachers and students on the receiving end of such a system can be critically conscious and ambivalent participants in a school's racialized marketing and image management Timely and provocative this nuanced work exposes the unintended consequences of an education marketplace where charity masquerades as justice

A Universal Template for Research Position and Life Experience Papers Dale Benjamin Drakeford, 2005 The self descriptive title A Universal Template For Research Position and Life Experience Papers implies that there is a position that writers take in even the simplest of essays As such Template provides an opportunity to accomplish two tasks at once consider the definitive differences between Research Position and Experience papers and explore the issues that impound and empower contemporary urban education Dale Benjamin Drakeford provides an interactive workshop to guide student writing on any social science subject Agreeing with many scholars that public and free pedagogy is indispensable the author also argues that there is no wrong or right in scholastic debate only correct presentation of objective thoughts or non objective attitudes This the author says is what is sometimes forgotten in the heat of getting ideas on paper Hence Template provides structure for planning papers and in process cues for staying on task to complete them with proper formality     Mothering for Schooling Alison I.
