Everyday Encounters with State and Capitalism Bhabani Shankar Nayak, 2025-04-08 This book illustrates how different forces shape ideas knowledge traditions policies processes institutions and everyday lives to domesticate both people and the planet in pursuit of profit It examines the myriad ways in which contemporary ruling and non ruling elites influence politics culture economy and religion and shape our daily interactions emphasising their impact on individuals families communities democratic praxis societal structures and nature The book portrays power structures that are skewed in a manner that marginalises many while upholding the interests of a few It depicts numerous contradictions inherent in capitalism and the state while also presenting alternative ideas drawn from the everyday experiences of working people State and capitalism territorialise and deterritorialise lives and livelihoods It destabilises social cultural and economic relationships Everyday crises are manufactured and conflicts are designed to divert the masses from exploring alternatives to capitalism This strategy aims to maintain the status quo by ensuring that attention and resources are consistently focused on the accumulation of wealth and prosperity for a few thereby preventing widespread consideration of alternative and egalitarian systems and processes for mass welfare Beyond the Age of Innocence Kishore Mahbubani,2006-03-28

Mahbubani reveals the America that Asia and the rest of the world see a country that has given hope to billions by creating a society where destiny is not determined at birth Ethics and Images of Pain Asbjørn Grønstad, Henrik

Gustafsson,2012-04-27 Few phenomena are as formative of our experience of the visual world as displays of suffering But what does it mean to have an ethical experience of disturbing or traumatizing images What kind of ethical proposition does an image of pain mobilize How may the spectator learn from and make use of the painful image as a source of ethical reflection Engaging with a wide range of visual media from painting theatre and sculpture to photography film and video this interdisciplinary collection of essays by leading and emerging scholars of visual culture offers a reappraisal of the increasingly complex relationship between images of pain and the ethics of viewing Ethics and Images of Pain reconsiders the persistent and ever pertinent nexus of aesthetics and ethics the role of painful images as generators of unpredictable forms of affect the moral transformation of spectatorship the ambivalence of the witness and the representation of affliction as a fundamental form of our shared scopic experience The instructive and illuminating essays in the collection introduce a phenomenological context in which to make sense of our current ecology of excruciating images one that accentuates notions of responsibility empathy and imagination Contributors trace the images of pain across a miscellany of case studies and amongst the topics addressed are the work of artists as disparate as Doris Salcedo Anselm Kiefer and Bendik Riis photographs from Abu Ghraib and Rwanda Hollywood war films and animated documentaries performances of self immolations and incidents of police brutality captured on mobile phones Mary Shelley's Literary Lives and Other of radical political subjectivity It takes its cue from the 2011 uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa the Occupy Movement and the European Anti Austerity Movement alongside the wider opposition to authoritarian and neoliberal forms of governance from which they sprang in order to ask an urgent series of questions about the subject of radical politics Who or what is it that engages in resistance Who or what should they be And how are we to negotiate the many complexities of that second question The contributions drawing on a wide range of theoretical traditions offer a rich series of provocations towards new ways of conceptualising evaluating and imagining radical political praxis They engage different kinds of subjects including protestors dancers self burners academics settlers and humans in order to think through the ways in which contemporary subjects are constituted within and work to unsettle dominant relations of power Together the chapters open up spaces to think about how political and intellectual commitment to social change can be enlivened through attention to the subject of radical politics This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

The Search for the Self in Statius' ›Thebaid‹ Jean-Michel Hulls, 2021-07-19 The aim of this project is to provide a sustained analysis of the concept of self in Statius Thebaid It is this project's contention that the poem is profoundly interested in ideas of identity and selfhood The poem stages itself as a metapoetic exploration of the difficulties for a belated epicist in finding a place in the literary canon it shows the impossibility of squaring large scale epic poetics with small scale finely wrought Callimacheanism it reflects the violent disjunction between Statius' authorial pose as a poet without power and the extreme violence of his poetics it opens up the intricacies of constructing original coherent characters out of intertextual exemplary models The central tenet of the project is that Statius in the Thebaid stages his own death but does so that his poem may live This book is intended for an academic audience including undergraduate and graduate students as well as specialists in the field Although the project will be of primary importance to readers of Flavian literature it will also be of interest to those who study intertextuality and characterisation in Roman literature more generally selfhood and identity in Roman literature and culture and the reception of Roman literature

Leadership Genetic Engineering Formula: Agola Auma-Osola, 2013-11-25 This book is the omega of volume 1 titled Why Leaders Fail and Plunge the Innocent into a Sea of Agonies hence its justified designation as volume 2 Its purpose is to complete the marathon research expedition commenced by volume 1 alfa to search for the mysteries surrounding and being responsible for man's chronic failure in the art of leadership which has consequently always plunged the innocent under a failed leader into a sea of various acute agonies throughout all generations In this regard this volume is an etiology and prognosis of leadership failure epidemic that has evaded recognition of every past research effort to unlock and paralyze those mysteries responsible for its existence

Using this double edged methodology and burning ambition the volume systematically and vigorously synthesizes the root causes of this virus into a coherent body of knowledge that has in the end led to formulation of a leadership genetic engineering formula viz elite and grass root conflict vaccination able to provide humanity with an enabling environment of a hybrid culture requisite for good governance democracy and prosperity for all This formula is a function of the discovery of a similar formula formulated and used by the ancient Egyptian people 70005000 BC which enabled them to develop into an extraordinary hybrid culture and good leadership that in turn led them into a nation of immense prosperity surpassing all other nations of their generation in Asia Minor and the Mediterranean Hence the unique significance of the research efforts contained in this volume 2 in its capacity as a long lived breakthrough for social sciences and political science in particular against the scourge of bad leadership to humanity And hence its justification as an omega of this marathon research expedition
