The Commonwealth of Nature: Art and Poetic Community in the Age of Dante, Signing the Body Katherine Dauge-Roth, 2019-11-14 The first major scholarly investigation into the rich history of the marked body in the early modern period this interdisciplinary study examines multiple forms uses and meanings of corporeal inscription and impression in France and the French Atlantic from the late sixteenth through early eighteenth centuries Placing into dialogue a broad range of textual and visual sources drawn from areas as diverse as demonology jurisprudence mysticism medicine pilgrimage commerce travel and colonial conquest that have formerly been examined largely in isolation Katherine Dauge Roth demonstrates that emerging theories and practices of signing the body must be understood in relationship to each other and to the development of other material marking practices that rose to prominence in the early modern period While each chapter brings to light the particular histories and meanings of a distinct set of cutaneous marks devil s marks on witches demon s marks upon the possessed devotional wounds Amerindian and Holy Land pilgrim tattoos and criminal brands each also reveals connections between these various types of stigmata links that were obvious to the early modern thinkers who theorized and deployed them Moreover the five chapters bring to the fore ways in which corporeal marking of all kinds interacted dynamically with practices of writing on imprinting and engraving paper parchment fabric and metal that flourished in the period together signaling important changes taking place in early modern society Examining the marked body as a material object replete with varied meanings and uses Signing the Body Marks on Skin in Early Modern France shows how the skin itself became the register of the profound cultural and social transformations that characterized this era

Cosmatesque Mosaics of Westminster Abbey Warwick Rodwell,David S. Neal,2019-11-30 Westminster Abbey contains the only surviving medieval Cosmatesque mosaics outside Italy They comprise the Great Pavement in the sanctuary the pavement around the shrine of Edward the Confessor the saint s tomb and shrine Henry III s tomb the tomb of a royal child and some other pieces Surprisingly the mosaics have never before received detailed recording and analysis either individually or as an assemblage The proposed publication in two volumes will present a holistic study of this outstanding group of monuments in their historical architectural and archaeological context The shrine of St Edward is a remarkable survival having been dismantled at the Dissolution and re erected incorrectly in 1557 under Queen Mary Large areas of missing mosaic were replaced with plaster on to which mosaic designs were carefully painted This 16th century fictive mosaic is unique in Britain Conservation of the sanctuary pavement was accompanied by full archaeological recording with every piece of mosaic decoration drawn and colored by David Neal phase plans have been prepared and stone by stone examination undertaken petrologically identifying and recording the locations of all the materials present It has revealed that both the pavements and tombs include a range of exotic stone types The Cosmati study has shed fresh light on every aspect of the unique series of monuments in Westminster Abbey this work will fill a major lacuna in our knowledge of 13th century English art of the first rank and will command international interest
