Coudakpo, 2012-11 The story of a child who cries for help in the dark in hope to find a way to the light without knowing that he is part of that darkness and light himself The child was born between two tribes darkness tribe and lightning tribe His mother Adjo wandered off from the darkness tribe to meet her lover who was the child s father Kafui from the lightning tribe They both knew their union could be fatal because of the differences of their tribes but their love blinded them to know how different they were their inevitable love was rejected by both the darkness tribe and lightning tribe Worried of the outcome of their forbidden love they suddenly got scared and fled from the mistake they had made The two lovers realized how their difference could not match they both rejoined their tribes in fear to meet again but it was too late because the seed of their love already began to sprout into an unborn child From their inevitable love came a newborn child who was a combination of the two tribes of darkness and lightning which the two tribes decided to eliminate There was an elder woman in the darkness tribe named Pauline who seemed to be the child s grandmother and who had supernatural powers that could balance both darkness and lightning The elder woman then secretly took the child for fear that both the lightning and darkness tribes could destroy the child and that the mother could not be able to balance the two combinations of darkness and lightning within the child and protect him at the same time The elder woman Pauline escaped to many different tribes to raise the child she named the child Komla meaning the birth of two strong powers Growing up Komla realized he was part of the darkness and lightning who rejected him and that he lost the only sparkle of light that cared and protected him He felt lonely and out of blame he projected himself into a nocturnal darkness
