Fighting Nature Peta Tait, 2016-08-10 Throughout the 19th century animals were integrated into staged scenarios of confrontation ranging from lion acts in small cages to large scale re enactments of war Initially presenting a handful of exotic animals travelling menageries grew to contain multiple species in their thousands These 19th century menageries entrenched beliefs about the human right to exploit nature through war like practices against other animal species Animal shows became a stimulus for antisocial behaviour as locals taunted animals caused fights and even turned into violent mobs Human societal problems were difficult to separate from issues of cruelty to animals Apart from reflecting human capacity for fighting and aggression and the belief in human dominance over nature these animal performances also echoed cultural fascination with conflict war and colonial expansion as the grand spectacles of imperial power reinforced state authority and enhanced public displays of nationhood and nationalistic evocations of colonial empires Fighting nature is an insightful analysis of the historical legacy of 19th century colonialism war animal acquisition and transportation This legacy of entrenched beliefs about the human right to exploit other animal species is yet to be defeated Peta Tait brings to the book an impressive scholarly command of the documentary material from which she draws a range of vivid examples and revealing analyses of human animal confrontation in popular entertainments The book is written with verve and clarity and will be of interest to a wide readership in performance studies and cultural history

 William Chambers,1849 Menagerie Caroline Grigson,2016-01-28 Menagerie is the story of the panoply of exotic animals that were brought into Britain from time immemorial until the foundation of the London Zoo a tale replete with the extravagant the eccentric and on occasion the downright bizarre From Henry III s elephant at the Tower to George IV s love affair with Britain s first giraffe and Lady Castlereagh s recalcitrant ostriches Caroline Grigson s tour through the centuries amounts to the first detailed history of exotic animals in Britain On the way we encounter a host of fascinating and outlandish creatures including the first peacocks and popinjays Thomas More s monkey James I s cassowaries in St James s Park and Lord Clive s zebra which refused to mate with a donkey until the donkey was painted with stripes But this is not just the story of the animals themselves It also the story of all those who came into contact with them the people who owned them the merchants who bought and sold them the seamen who carried them to our shores the naturalists who wrote about them the artists who painted them the itinerant showmen who worked with them the collectors who collected them And last but not least it is about all those who simply came to see and wonder at them from kings queens and nobles to ordinary men women and children often impelled by no more than simple curiosity and a craving for novelty Modern History: Or, the Present
