Queer Constellations:

Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history

Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, 2005 Chisholm English U of Alberta examines recent experiments in queer city writing through Walter Benjamin's dialectical optics on metropolitan culture She discusses the dialectics of seeing in the wake of the gay bathhouse the city of collective memory queer passages in Gai Paris and the lesbian bohème

A Queer New York Jen Jack Giesecking, 2020-09-15 Winner 2021 Glenda Laws Award given by the American Association of Geographers The first lesbian and queer historical geography of New York City Over the past few decades rapid gentrification in New York City has led to the disappearance of many lesbian and queer spaces displacing some of the most marginalized members of the LGBTQ community In A Queer New York Jen Jack Giesecking highlights the historic significance of these spaces mapping the political economic and geographic dispossession of an important thriving community that once called certain New York neighborhoods home Focusing on well known neighborhoods like Greenwich Village Park Slope Bedford Stuyvesant and Crown Heights Giesecking shows how lesbian and queer neighborhoods have folded under the capitalist influence of white wealthy gentrifiers who have ultimately failed to make room for them Nevertheless they highlight the ways lesbian and queer communities have succeeded in carving out spaces and lives in a city that has consistently pushed its most vulnerable citizens away Beautifully written A Queer New York is an eye opening account of how lesbians and queers have survived in the face of twenty first century gentrification and urban development

Queer Premises Ben Campkin, 2023-06-01 Queer premises provide vital social and cultural infrastructure a queer infrastructure connecting different generations and locations facilitating the movement of resources across and beyond the city Queer Premises offers evidence for how London's diverse LGBTQ populations have embedded themselves into urban space systems and resources It sets out to understand how across their different material dimensions bars cafés nightclubs pubs community centres and hybrids of these typologies have been imagined created and sustained From the 1980s to the present Campkin asks how where and why these venues have been established how they operate and the purposes they serve what challenges they face and why they close down

Queering Sexualities in Turkey Cenk Özbay, 2017-05-25 Despite its some of its more liberal and democratic characteristics when compared to many other countries in the Middle East the more conservative elements within Turkish politics and society have made gains over the past decades As a result like many others in the region Turkish society has multiple standards when naming evaluating and reacting to men who have sex with men Cenk Ozbay argues that overall self identified gay men as well as men who practice clandestine same sex acts are most of the time marginalised ostracised and rendered immoral in both everyday practices and social institutions He offers in this book an analysis of the concept of masculinity as central to redefining boundaries of class gender and sexuality particularly looking at the dynamics between self identified gay men and straight acting male prostitutes or rent boys A result of in depth interviews with both self identified gay men and rent boys Ozbay explores the changing discourses and meaning of class gender and queer sexualities and how these three are embedded within urban and familial narratives How We Make

Each Other Perry Zurn,2024-12-06 Trans people have always lived in the cracks of institutions and the university is no exception In How We Make Each Other Perry Zurn tells the stories of how trans people make and live their lives at the edges of the university in ways that sometimes lead to policy change but always leave participants and institutions different than they were before Using the Five Colleges in Massachusetts as a case study Zurn notes that Amherst College Hampshire College Mount Holyoke College Smith College and the University of Massachusetts Amherst have been at the forefront of developing trans inclusive policies in higher education often in response to student organizing Zurn focuses on the stories of trans students staff faculty and community members within and alongside these institutions exploring how they have built themselves and each other Drawing on official archives as well as over 100 interviews Zurn shows how trans people in the Five Colleges have made history forged resistance habits and cultivated hope The I.B. and the Middle East Fatma Müge Göçek,Gamze Evcimen,2022-11-17 What we understand by the Middle East has changed over time and across space While scholars agree that the geographical core of the Middle East is the Arabian Peninsula the boundaries are less clear How far back in time should we go to define the Middle East How far south and east should we move on the African continent And how do we deal with the minority religions in the region and those who migrate to the West Across this handbook s 52 chapters the leading sociologists writing on the Middle East share their standpoint on these questions Taking the featured scholars as constitutive of the field the handbook reshapes studies on the region by piecing together our knowledge on the Middle East from their path defining contributions The volume is divided into four parts covering sociologists perspectives on Social transformations and social conflict from Israel Palestine and the Iranian Revolution to the Arab Uprisings and the Syrian War The region s economic religious and political activities including the impact of the spread of Western modernity the effects of neo liberalism and how Islam shapes the region s life and politics People s everyday practices as they have shaped our understanding of culture consumption gender and sexuality The diasporas from the Middle East in Europe and North America which put the Middle East in dialogue with other regions of the world The global approach and wide ranging topics represent how sociologists enable us to redefine the boundaries and identities of the Middle East today Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten,Annika

Bauer,2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition

Secrecy and Sapphic Modernism S. Nair, 2011-12-06 Novels by significant Modernist authors can be described as romans clef providing insight into restrictions governing the representation of female homosexuality in the early twentieth century Nair argues that key novels of the period represented same sex desire through the encryption of personal references directed towards coterie audiences

In Search of the Abiding City Ranjbar, Golrang, This research investigates how the urban landscape of Tehran shapes the narratives of Iranian female authors highlighting the intricate connections between gender identity and spatial dynamics This study focuses on Tehran to provide a deeper understanding of its role as Iran s political and cultural center By examining four key novels Negaran nabash by Mahsa Moheb ali Ehtemalan gom shodeh am by Sara Salar Natamami by Zahra Abdi and Az sheytan amukht va suzand by Farkhondeh Aqa i this research addresses a significant gap in Iranian scholarship concerning the depiction of urban environments in works by female writers Applying theoretical frameworks such as the concepts of the fl neuse the Right to the City and identity formation through narrative space the research illustrates how the urban context profoundly impacts the experiences of female characters The findings reveal that while Tehran presents numerous challenges and gender based obstacles it also serves as a vital arena for women to express their identities and resist traditional societal constraints This duality creates a complex relationship between female characters and their urban environment characterized by both confinement and empowerment Ultimately this study provides new insights into the gendered experiences in Iranian urban literature revealing how female authors navigate and express both their challenges and sense of agency within Tehran's shifting sociopolitical landscape

Lesbian Realities/Lesbian Fictions in Contemporary Spain Nancy Vosburg, Jacky Collins, 2011-03-18 Lesbian Realities/Lesbian Fictions in Contemporary Spain edited by Nancy Vosburg and Jacky Collins focuses exclusively on manifestations of lesbian cultures and identities in contemporary Spain. Bringing together key essays from a range of international scholars, this anthology of critical essays examines the changing cultural, sociological, and political landscape of Spain at the turn of the millennium. Divided into two sections, the first contributions focus on the realities of lesbian lives and looks at how Spanish lesbian identities are constructed through language and the media. The essays in the second section analyze contemporary lesbian identities as manifested in novels and short stories published since the late 1980s by authors such as Carme Riera, Lola van Guardia, Flavia Company, and Mabel Gal'n. The aim of this volume is to provide a significant and coherent contribution in English to the body of knowledge within an evolving subject area that has remained relatively under researched until recently. Throughout the anthology, the visibility of the lesbian subject in Spain, either within the media, literature, the Parliament, and even within the gay book publishing industry, emerges as a key concept for analyzing the status of lesbians in Spanish society. All essays in our volume are original, previously unpublished works written specifically for this volume by contributors who have been involved in researching or developing lesbian cultures in Spain. Lesbian Realities/Lesbian Fictions in Contemporary Spain brings knowledge into the public domain that hitherto has remained hidden and provides access to an audience interested in social and cultural change in Spain and yet who are unable to access material in Spanish. It is a particularly invaluable resource for teachers and students of Spanish cultural studies, global sexuality, and gender studies

Media Crossroads Paula J. Massood, Angel Daniel Matos, Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2021-02-08 The contributors to Media Crossroads examine space and place in media as they intersect with sexuality, race, ethnicity, age, class, and ability. Considering a wide range of film, television, video games, and other media, the authors show how spaces from the large and fantastical to the intimate and virtual are shaped by the social interactions and intersections staged within them. The highly teachable essays include analyses of media representations of urban life and gentrification, the ways video games allow users to adopt an experiential understanding of space, the intersection of the regulation of bodies and spaces, and how style and aesthetics can influence intersectional thinking. Whether interrogating the construction of Portland as a white utopia in Portlandia or the link between queerness and the spatial design and gaming mechanics in the Legend of Zelda video game series, the contributors deepen understanding of screen cultures in ways that redefine conversations around space studies in film and media.
