Question Of Arbitrability Challenges To The Arbitrators Jurisdiction And Authority:

The Question of Arbitrability Mark M. Grossman, 1984 This guide intended for unions management arbitrators lawyers individuals affected by the grievance process analyzes the key elements of arbitrability The author comments on more than 200 case law decisions Bias Challenges in International Commercial Arbitration Sam Luttrell, 2009-01-01 Shows how dirty challenge tactics are made viable primarily by the prevalence of a judicially derived test for bias which focuses on appearances rather than facts and He argues that the most commonly used test of bias the reasonable apprehension test makes it easy to allege a lack of impartiality and independence Understanding Grievance Arbitration in the Public Sector Arnold Zack, 1974 Arbitration Strategy for Labor and Management Advocates Walt Baer, 2015-01-27 Today 95 percent of all labor contracts in the United States provide for arbitration Indispensable to sound contract management arbitration orchestrates the resolution of disputes by a neutral third party Since parties who reach the process of arbitration are no longer interested in compromise or mutual accommodation arbitrators unlike mediators do not have to work out arguments or propose possible solutions They simply hear evidence and make a decision based on the facts as presented without being bound by rules of evidence or precedents For both sides the key to a successful outcome lies in their advocates ability to present and document their case Providing guidance for labor and management advocates this resource guide contains a practical analysis of arbitration from the participant side with a view to avoiding the problems and pitfalls of the process Written for those who do not deal with the intricacies of arbitration on a day to day basis yet have a responsibility to their company should such situations arise it begins with the very basics of the arbitration concept including discipline and discharge procedures It then provides detailed guidelines for presenting an organization s position effectively and it discusses important principles and practices every advocate should know Additional topics include grievance procedure time limits methods for researching and selecting the arbitrator and recommendations regarding witness conduct Practices of the actual arbitration such as objections admissible evidence and credibility of evidence are also discussed Extensive references to pertinent statutes and case law round out this informative guide Law and Practice of International Commercial Arbitration Alan Redfern, 2004 Highly acclaimed by practitioners all over the world Law Practice of International Commercial Arbitration has deservedly become the leading text in its field With its comprehensive review of the legal context within which international commercial arbitration operates Redfern Hunter is the ultimate user friendly explanation of how arbitration and in particular international commercial arbitration works The 4th edition has been expanded to give a wider global scope to the work Readers can also benefit from the expert insight and advice of world renowned international practitioners international practitioner Contains a comprehensive review of the international commercial arbitration process from start to finish Includes commentary on suitable places of arbitration developments in international trade law and the increasing harmonisation of national laws governing international arbitration Appendices include the major international rules of arbitration and conventions Explains how arbitration should be conducted to be cost effective and profitable Fully updated to take account of the latest developments all over the world including a new chapter on investment arbitrations

Shelanski, 2014-01-01 This third edition of The College of Commercial Arbitrators Guide to Best Practices in Commercial Arbitration has been substantially expanded not only to ensure that it is up to date but also to incorporate several new chapters on diverse subjects including intratribunal relations arbitrators fees eDiscovery and hybrid arbitration processes Summary of New Material Twice as long as the second edition Substantial revision and expansion of existing chapters Four new chapters Arbitrators Fees Expenses eDiscovery Intratribunal Relations Hybrid Arbitration Proceedings Updated to take into account evolving case law and to address newly emerging issues relating to the management of commercial arbitrations Comparative tables regarding certain aspects of in major international rules and international arbitration institution policies Revised to take into account The new 2013 CPR Administered Arbitration Rules The 2013 revisions to the AAA Commercial Rules Various protocols and guidelines relating to domestic commercial arbitration The 2011 revisions to the JAMS International Rules The 2012 revisions to the ICDR Articles The 2010 revisions to the UNCITRAL Rules The 2013 IBA Guidelines on Party Representation in International Arbitration The 2010 revisions to the IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence in International Arbitration Various protocols and guidelines relating to domestic commercial arbitration The aim of the Guide is to identify best practices that arbitrators can employ to provide users of arbitration with the highest possible standards of economy and fairness in the disposition of business disputes This third edition of the Guide refines the guidance contained in the first and second editions to take into account developing case law revised institutional rules advancements in arbitration techniques and thinking and also addresses newly evolving issues such as electronic discovery There are significant differences in the ways in which arbitrations are conducted in different substantive fields of commerce and among different arbitrators in the same field Techniques that are appropriate and useful in one case may be quite unsuited to another For this reason it is not possible to prescribe a single set of best practices that commercial arbitrators should invariably follow in every case Rather this Guide attempts to identify the principal issues that typically arise in each successive stage of an arbitration and to explain the pros and cons of various preferred ways of handling each issue From this perspective the best practice for an arbitrator is to carefully consider the merits of alternative techniques available for dealing with a particular issue and to then select the technique best suited to the situation In addition the Guide attempts to identify the full array of practices available for use in complex arbitrations which can be adapted and streamlined for simpler cases Formed in 2001 the College of Commercial Arbitrators is a non profit organization composed of prominent experienced commercial arbitrators who believe that a national association of commercial arbitrators can provide a meaningful contribution to the profession to the public and to the businesses and lawyers who depend on arbitration as a primary means of dispute resolution Its mission includes promoting professionalism and high ethical practice in commercial arbitration adopting and maintaining standards of conduct providing peer training and professional development and developing and publishing best practices materials This work is the College s principal vehicle for fulfilling several aspects of its mission Many seasoned and knowledgeable practitioners generously contributed their time and insights to the creation of this Guide

Contemporary Problems in International Arbitration Julian Lew, 2013-06-29 The establishment of a School of International Arbitration was a sufficiently important occurrence to have brought to London for its inaugural conference most of the world s leading experts on international arbitration The three day Symposium on March 25 27 1985 sought to identify and consider the It was not the aim contemporary problems affecting international arbitration of the Symposium to develop propose or agree solutions to these problems but rather to discuss the issues and alternative solutions The success of the School will be measured in the future by its contribution through research and teaching to the development of solutions to the difficulties and uncertainties which reduce the effectiveness of international arbitration agreements and awards and the conduct of international arbitral proceedings This book reproduces the papers presented at the Symposium amended and varied by several contributors It is not considered appropriate here to comment on or analyse paper by paper the ideas presented or discussions which ensued However it would be appropriate to make reference to specific developments in the short period since the Symposium directly relevant to the papers reproduced and the discussions which ensued The pertinence of the subject matter selected becomes clear from these subsequent developments

Carbonneau on Arbitration Thomas E. Carbonneau, 2010-05-01 A companion to Carbonneau on International Arbitration Collected Essays the essays in this volume represent the majority of the author's scholarly writings on the topic of U S arbitration law They reflect his three decades of experience as a law professor and as the Editor in Chief of the World Arbitration Mediation Report renamed Review and the Journal of American Arbitration Each one tackles an aspect of the debate about the role of arbitral adjudication in contemporary American society and provides an assessment of the evolution and content of the U S law of arbitration In particular Carbonneau on Arbitration Collected Essays examines the work of the U S Supreme Court in arbitration and provides a critical but balanced assessment of that decisional law The chapters of this volume represent the majority of the author's scholarly writings on international commercial arbitration over thirty years. The chapters address various major issues and themes of transborder arbitration law including 1 the importance of courts in developing and maintaining a legal culture that is hospitable to arbitration 2 arbitration as a complete legal system 3 the increasing use of arbitration to resolve political or mixed political and commercial disputes and 4 the judicialization of arbitration. Some of the chapters are of a recent vintage while others were written a decade or two ago. Whatever their date of production, these essays are of continuing interest to practitioners and scholars of the field.

Interim and Emergency Relief in International Arbitration - International Law Institute Series on International Law, Arbitration and Practice Dora Ziyaeva, Ian A. Laird, Borzu Sabahi, Anne Marie Whitesell, 2015-05-01. Interim and Emergency Relief in International Arbitration is a compilation of papers authored by some of the world's leading international arbitration practitioners. It addresses issues relating to obtaining interim measure orders including the relevant applicable standards such as irreparable harm that various international courts and tribunals under the ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, SCC and some domestic law jurisdictions often apply. It also touches upon theoretical and practical issues involving compliance with and enforcement of interim measures in international arbitration These issues naturally are raised in the context of an ongoing discourse where tribunals have different at times imperfect tactics for encouraging compliance with their interim measures including drawing adverse inferences issuing diplomatic statements against a sovereign stopping just short of ordering interim measures splitting the sum of security for costs and allowing for reimbursement and levying heavier damages against the non complying party without changing the substantive aspects of the award This book explores these methods and identifies the latest trends in this exciting area of international law Interim and Emergency Relief In International Arbitration is intended for arbitrators practicing attorneys representatives of international arbitral institutions and academics all of whom will find this book very useful The compilation of papers and presentations in the book cover a number of jurisdictions including East Asia the Middle East Europe and North America
