The Question of Women in Chinese Feminism Tani Barlow,2004-03-25 Barlow documents the history of woman as a category in twentieth century Chinese history tracing the question of gender through various phases in the literary career of Ding Ling a major modern Chinese writer   The Question of Women in Chinese Feminism Tani Barlow,2004 Barlow documents the history of woman as a category in twentieth century Chinese history tracing the question of gender through various phases in the literary career of Ding Ling a major modern Chinese writer   Chinese Modernity and Socialist Feminist Theory Shaopeng Song,2022-08-16 This book assembles translations of the work of leading critical socialist feminist Song Shaopeng presenting a concise narrative which theorizes China s political and social development through a gendered lens Providing insightful editor introductions the book explores poignant themes from the late imperial to the contemporary eras to examine the evolution of Chinese socialist feminism This includes analysis of the relationship between the party state and the women s movement the gains and losses of collectivism for women s liberation and the inadequacy of contemporary gender studies in China at addressing the ongoing influence of political economy on the lives of women in China Offering a succinct exploration of the historical and theoretical context of Song Shaopeng s writings this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Chinese history and politics as well as those of Chinese feminism and intellectual history

Imagining Sisterhood in Modern Chinese Texts, 1890-1937 Yun Zhu,2017-03-16 This book investigates sisterhood as a converging thread that wove female subjectivities and intersubjectivities into a larger narrative of Chinese modernity embedded in a newly conceived global context It focuses on the period between the late Qing reform era around the turn of the twentieth century and the outbreak of the Second Sino Japanese War in 1937 which saw the emergence of new ways of depicting Chinese womanhood in various kinds of media In a critical hermeneutic approach Zhu combines an examination of an outside perspective how narratives and images about sisterhood were mobilized to shape new identities and imaginations with that of an inside perspective how subjects saw themselves as embedded in or affected by the discourse and how they negotiated such experiences within texts or through writing With its working definition of sisterhood covering biological as well as all kinds of symbolic and metaphysical connotations this book exams the literary and cultural representations of this elastic notion with attention to on the one hand a supposedly collective identity shared by all modern Chinese female subjects and on the other hand the contesting modes of womanhood that were introduced through the juxtaposition of divergent sisters Through an interdisciplinary approach that brings together historical materials literary and cultural analysis and theoretical questions Zhu conducts a careful examination of how new identities subjectivities and sentiments were negotiated and mediated through the hermeneutic circuits around sisterhood   Feminisms with Chinese Characteristics Ping Zhu,Hui Faye Xiao,2021-12-28 The year 1995 when the Fourth World Conference on Women was held in Beijing marks a historical milestone in the development of the Chinese feminist movement In the decades that followed three distinct trends emerged first there was a rise in feminist NGOs in mainland China and a surfacing of LGBTQ movements second social and economic developments nurtured new female agency creating a vibrant women oriented cultural milieu in China third in response to ethnocentric Western feminism some Chinese feminist scholars and activists recuperated the legacies of socialist China's state feminism and gender policies in a new millennium These trends have brought Chinese women unprecedented choices resources opportunities pitfalls challenges and even crises In this timely volume Zhu and Xiao offer an examination of the ways in which Chinese feminist ideas have developed since the mid 1990s By juxtaposing the plural feminisms with Chinese characteristics they both underline the importance of integrating Chinese culture history and tradition in the discussions of Chinese feminisms and stress the difference between the plethora of contemporary Chinese feminisms and the singular state feminism The twelve chapters in this interdisciplinary collection address the theme of feminisms with Chinese characteristics from different perspectives rendered from lived experiences historical reflections theoretical ruminations and cultural and sociopolitical critiques painting a panoramic picture of Chinese feminisms in the age of globalization

Zhu,2015-06-10 Through both cultural and literary analysis

this book examines gender in relation to late Qing and modern Chinese intellectuals including Mu Shiying Bai Wei and Lu Xun Tackling important previously neglected questions Zhu ultimately shows the resilience and malleability of Chinese modernity through its progressive views on femininity    The Beijing Young Women's Christian Association, 1927-1937 Aihua Zhang,2021-11-16 By exploring the interplay among gender religion and modernity this book exposes the part Chinese Christian women played in China s quest for a strong nation in general and in Republican Beijing s modern transformation in particular Focusing on the Beijing Young Women s Christian Association YWCA the author examines how the Association guided by the Christian tenet to serve not to be served tailored its Western models and devised new programs to meet the city s demands Its enterprises ranged from providing women and child oriented facilities to promoting constructive recreational activities and from reforming home and family to improving public health Through an analysis of these endeavors the author argues that the Chinese YW women s contribution to the city s modernity was a creative embodiment of the then socially targeted missionary movement known as the Social Gospel In the process they demonstrated their distinctive new ideals of womanhood featuring practicality social service and broad cooperation These qualities set them apart from both traditional women and other brands of the New Woman While criticized as trivial their efforts however pioneered modern social service in China and complemented what municipal authorities and other progressive groups undertook to modernize the city    Engendering the Woman Question: Men, Women, and Writing in China's Early Periodical Press Yun Zhang,2020-08-31 In Engendering the Woman Question Zhang Yun adopts a new approach to examining the early Chinese women s periodical press Rather than seeing this new print and publishing genre as a gendered site coded as either feminine or masculine this book approaches it as a mixed gender public space where both men and women were intellectually active and involved in dynamic interactions to determine the contours of their discursive encounters Drawing upon a variety of novel textual modes such as polemical essays historical biography public speech and expository essays this book opens a window onto men s and women s gender specific approaches to a series of prominent topics central to the Chinese woman question in the early twentieth century    Transcultural Feminist Philosophy Yuanfang Dai,2019-12-30 The question of difference how to accommodate the complexity and diversity of women s experiences remains a central point of reference in debates among feminist thinkers In Transcultural Feminist Philosophy Rethinking Difference and Solidarity Through Chinese American Encounters Yuanfang Dai addresses influential approaches to the feminist difference critique Acknowledging that gender oppression assumes different forms in different social and cultural locations Dai denies that this rules out generalizing about women s experiences She proposes a category of women that captures and respects differences and dynamics among women and that can inform possibilities for women in the future Through a critical examination of multicultural and postcolonial feminisms she argues that we need both to rethink the concept of culture and to rework multiculturalism as an analytical and political idea Developing a notion of transculturalism she draws on Chinese feminist scholarship as she explores how a transcultural approach can address tensions between cultural differences and feminist solidarity Transcultural thought and action offers a new way to explore the conditions of women s collective struggles

Gender Dynamics, Feminist Activism and Social Transformation in China Guoguang Wu,Yuan Feng,Helen Lansdowne,2018-11-02 This book explores the extent to which women have been initiators mobilizers and driving forces of social transformation in China The book considers how conceptions of women s roles have changed as China has moved from state socialism to engagement with capitalist globalization examines the growth of women s gender and sexual consciousness and social movements for women s rights including for marginalized social and sex gender groups and discusses women s roles in society state interactions including many forms of social activism cultural events educational innovations and more Overall the book demonstrates that women have not simply been passive receivers of the consequences of the forces of global capitalism but that they have had a profound active impact on social transformation in China

Women Through the Lens Shuqin Cui,2003-02-28 Women Through the Lens raises the question of how gender especially the image of woman acts as a visual and discursive sign in the creation of the nation state in twentieth century China Tracing the history of Chinese cinema through the last hundred years from the perspective of transnational feminism Shuqin Cui reveals how women have been granted a privileged visibility on screen while being denied discursive positions as subjects In addition her careful attention to the visual language system of cinema shows how woman has served as the site for the narration of nation in the context of China s changing social and political climate Placing gender and nation in a historical framework the book first shows how early productions had their roots in shadow plays a popular form of public entertainment In examining the Red Classics of socialist cinema as a mass cultural form the book shows how the utopian vision of emancipating the entire proletariat women included produced a collective ideology that declared an end to gender difference Cui then documents and discusses the cinematic spectacle of woman as essential to such widely popular films as Chen Kaige s Farewell My Concubine and Zhang Yimou s Ju Do Finally the author brings a feminist perspective to the issues of gender and nation by turning her attention to women directors and their self representations

Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) ,2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billiou Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I
