Caste, Communication and Power Biswajit Das, Debendra Prasad Majhi, 2021-07-12 Caste Communication and Power explores communication and the constitution of caste in Indian society Intimately connected both communication and caste are determined by historical developments The book looks at communication as a lens to study caste and power relations with its immense potential to shape perception and affect ground reality It also studies the evolution of the conceptual and theoretical foundations of caste and power relations and maps their emergence from communicative resources and practices These communication practices are inevitably linked to the social structure with their reliance on symbolic forms of self expression often revealing the underlying ideological attitudes The book studies this interface of culture and media evaluating the caste question and the associated power relations in terms of modes of communication practised in the society

Literature in Society Regina Rudaitytė, 2012-12-05 The essays in this volume focus on the text world dichotomy that has been a pivotal problem since Plato implicating notions of mimesis and representation and raising a series of debatable issues Do literary texts relate only to the fictional world and not to the real one Do they not only describe but also perform and thus create and transform reality Is literature a mere reflection expression of society a field and a tool of political manipulations a playground to exercise ideological and social power

Herbert Grabes seminal essay Literature in Society Society and Its Literature which opens this volume perfectly captures the essential functions of literature in society whether it be Derridean belief in a revolutionary potential of literature the power of literature to say everything or Hillis Miller s view of literature having the potential to create or reveal alternative realities or according to Grabes the ability of literature to offer to society a possibility of self reflection by way of presenting a double of what is held to be reality and last but not least the ability of literature to considerably contribute to the joy of life by enabling a particular kind of pleasure the pleasure of reading literature The subsequent essays collected in this volume deal with complex relations between Literature and Society approaching this issue from different angles and in various historical epochs They are on diverse thematics and written from diverse theoretical perspectives differing in scope and methodology

The International Social Survey Programme 1984-2009 Max Haller, Roger Jowell, Tom W Smith, 2009-09-11 The social sciences rely more on the comparative method than on experimental data mainly because the latter is difficult to acquire amongst human populations The International Social Survey Programme has played a pioneering role in creating and sustaining methodologically sophisticated mass attitude surveys across the globe Starting in 1984 with five nations it now encompasses forty five nations spread over five continents each administering an identical annual survey to a random sample of their population Analyses of the data or descriptions of the methodology already appear in over 3 000 publications This book contains new contributions from three dozen eminent scholars who analyse and compare the perceptions and attitudes of citizens across all five continents nations and over time Subjects range from inequality and the role of the state ethnic national and global identities the changing relevance of religion beliefs and practices gender roles family values and work orientations household and society Some chapters focus on methodological issues others focus on substantive findings This book sets new standards for cross cultural research A Globalizing World? value is the necessary lever for real institutional change Furthermore achieving excellence in a diverse society requires increasing institutional capacity for diversity working to understand how diversity is tied to better leadership positive change research in virtually every field student success accountability and more equitable hiring practices In this edition which is aimed at administrators faculty researchers and students of higher education Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity drawing on an updated list of sources from a wealth of literatures and fields The tables and figures have been refreshed to include data on faculty diversity over a twenty year period and the book includes new information about gender identity embedded bias student success the growing role of chief diversity officers the international emergence of diversity issues faculty hiring and important metrics for monitoring progress Drawing on forty years of diversity studies this third edition also includes more examples of how diversity is core to institutional excellence academic achievement and leadership development updates issues of language examines the current climate of race based campus protest addresses the complexity of identity and explains how to attend to the growing kinds of identities relevant to diversity equity and inclusion while not overshadowing the unfinished business of race class and gender
