Questions on International Law-Hungarian Perspectives Hanna Bokor-Szegő,1987-01-26 Questions of international law Hanna Bokorné Szegő,1986 Questions of International Law Hanna Bokor-Szegő,1986 Knowledges Born in the Struggle Boaventura de Sousa Santos,Maria Meneses,2019-10-17 In a world overwhelmingly unjust and seemingly deprived of alternatives this book claims that the alternatives can be found among us These alternatives are however discredited or made invisible by the dominant ways of knowing Rather than alternatives therefore we need an alternative way of thinking of alternatives Such an alternative way of thinking lies in the knowledges born in the struggles against capitalism colonialism and patriarchy the three main forms of modern domination In their immense diversity such ways of knowing constitute the Global South as an epistemic subject The epistemologies of the South are guided by the idea that another world is possible and urgently needed they emerge both in the geographical north and in the geographical south whenever collectives of people fight against modern domination Learning from and with the epistemic South suggests that the alternative to a general theory is the promotion of an ecology of knowledges based on intercultural and interpolitical translation

International Law: Achievements and Prospects Federico Mayor,Mohammed Bedjaoui,2023-12-28 The arrival of the International Law Achievements and Prospects can fairly be described as a major event in international legal publishing It has been written by international lawyers from the North the South the East and the West whose differing origins and different or even opposed academic backgrounds have ensured that the book encapsulates and brings into focus the main forms of civilization and the principal legal systems of the world The book s most distinctive feature is its international multi cultural and polyphonic nature International Law Achievements and Prospects aims to inform and to educate to make the discipline of international law accessible to a very broad public and to promote a meeting of minds on fundamental notions key concepts and the guiding principles of international law over and beyond frontiers ideologies and doctrines In addition it is intended to provide a framework for thought to describe what international law is today to specify its nature define its purpose and show its strengths and also to point out its weaknesses All the contributing authors are or have been practitioners of international law Their contributions express a global view of international law which helps to unravel the complex reality of the contemporary world International Law Achievements and Prospects has been produced under the auspices of UNESCO its content also aspires to reflect in some measure the imprint of that Organization s sponsorship

Current Legal Theory ,1992 The Decolonization of International Law Matthew Craven,2007 Against the backdrop of decolonisation and the territorial adjustments of the 1990s the issue of state succession continues to be a complex focal point for public international law This book re assesses the foundations of the law of succession assessing the attempts and failures to achieve a codified body of law Juricultural Pluralism Vis-à-vis Treaty Law Sandra L. Bunn Livingstone,2002-03-06 This text tackles the crucial issue of how divergent individual State and Regional cultures impact the international legal system in the law and State practice in regard to treaty interpretation and reservations Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,1991 Constitutional Reform and International Law in Central and Eastern Europe Rein Müllerson,Malgosia Fitzmaurice,Mads Andenas,2023-07-10 The recent developments in central and eastern Europe have changed the political landscape of the world The dissolution of the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia the collapse of Communism in Europe market reforms and the processes of democratisation are all seminal events affecting not only the countries in transition but other states as well All these changes presuppose fundamental legal reforms In this process most of the countries in transition have adopted new constitutions where issues of participation in the international political order and questions of international law enjoy a prominent place This book is one outcome of many research activities concerning these transitions in central and eastern Europe at the Centre of European Law King s College London It contains essays about constitutional reforms and international law by leading international judges and academics It is edited by Mads Andenas Director of the Centre of European Law at King s College London Malgosia Fitzmaurice Reader in International Law at Queen Mary and Westfield College London and Rein Müllerson Professor in International Law at King s College Product Liability Law in Transition Magdalena Tulibacka,2016-04-08 This volume examines the evolution of Central European product liability systems with particular reference to the effect of the implementation of the Product Liability Directive in the context of the recent enlargement of the EU This book also provides a comparison of how product liability law has evolved in the socialist states comparing it to developments taking place in the West Using product liability law this study offers a valuable insight into the necessary features and requirements of the harmonization of laws between the EU and post socialist Europe Predominantly legal in scope it also takes account of the importance of extra legal elements in law reform As such this book will be a valuable resource for those interested in European Law as well as those working in the area of Consumer and Product Liability law Questions of International Law G. Haraszti,2024-12-02 Review of Socialist Law ,1987 Netherlands Yearbook of International Law 2019 Otto Spijkers,Wouter G. Werner,Ramses A. Wessel,2020-12-02 This volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law NYIL is the fiftieth in the Series which means that the NYIL has now been with us for half a century The editors decided not to let this moment go by unnoticed but to devote this year s edition to an analysis of the phenomenon of yearbooks in international law Once the decision was made that this would be the subject of this year s NYIL the editors asked themselves a number of questions For instance Not many academic disciplines have yearbooks so what is the reason we do What is the added value of having a yearbook alongside the abundance of international law journals regular monographs and edited volumes that are published on a yearly basis Does the existence of yearbooks tell us something about who we are or who we think we are or what we have to contribute to the world These questions will be addressed both in a general and in a specific sense whereby a number of yearbooks published all over the world will be looked at in further detail The Netherlands Yearbook of International Law was first published in 1970 It offers a forum for the publication of scholarly articles in a varying thematic area of public international law
