Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan, 1996-08-21 Contemporary theory is replete with metaphors of travel displacement diaspora borders exile migration nomadism homelessness and tourism to name a few In Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan explores the various metaphoric uses of travel and displacement in literary and feminist theory traces the political implications of this traveling theory and shows how various discourses of displacement link rather than separate modernism and postmodernism Addressing a wide range of writers including Paul Fussell Edward Said James Clifford Gilles Deleuze Jean Baudrillard Gayatri Spivak Edward Soja Doreen Massey Chandra Mohanty and Adrienne Rich Kaplan demonstrates that symbols and metaphors of travel are used in ways that obscure key differences of power between nationalities classes races and genders Neither rejecting nor dismissing the powerful testimony of individual experiences of modern exile or displacement Kaplan asks how mystified metaphors of travel might be avoided With a focus on theory's colonial discourses she reveals how these metaphors continue to operate in the seemingly liberatory critical zones of poststructuralism and feminist theory The book concludes with a critique of the politics of location as a form of essentialist identity politics and calls for new feminist geographies of place and displacement
