Adventures of a Cold War Fast-Jet Navigator David Herriot,2017-10-30 An RAF navigator s lively candid memoir of flying low and living fast during the Cold War years David Herriot served almost forty years in the Royal Air Force as a navigator first on the Buccaneer S2 and subsequently on the Tornado GR1 This volume recounts his early career operating the Buccaneer on three operational flying tours plus a tour as an instructor on the Operational Conversion Unit With almost 2500 hours on an aircraft that was operated at high speed in all weathers and at ultra low level his task in the rear seat was a demanding one But Herriot was more than just the guy in the back of a Buccaneer he was quite routinely and often to the exasperation of his seniors the life and soul of any party that was taking place either at home base or when overseas defending the flanks of NATO This is an epic adventure for the aviation enthusiast particularly those with affection for the Blackburn Buccaneer and it provides a great deal more than the usual introduction to a specific aircraft type and the people who flew it Here you ll find an absolute insight into life on a fast jet squadron at work and mischievous play during the Cold War and you ll also be introduced to some of the modern RAF s greatest characters

Staging the Spanish Golden Age Kathleen Jeffs,2018-04-13 In this volume Kathleen Jeffs draws on first hand experience of the Royal Shakespeare Company s rehearsal room for the 2004 05 Spanish Golden Age season to put forth a collaborative model for translating rehearsing and performing Spanish Golden Age drama Building on the RSC season the volume offers methodologies for translation and communication that can feed the creative processes of actors and directors while maintaining an ethos of fidelity with regards to the original texts It argues that collaboration between academics and theatre practitioners was instrumental in the success of the season and that the work carried out has repercussions for critical debate of Comedia The volume posits a model for future productions of the Comedia in English one that recognizes the need for the languages of the scholar and the theatre artist to be made mutually intelligible by the use of collaborative strategies mediated by a consultant or dramaturg proficient in both tongues This model applies more generally to theatrical collaborations involving a translator writer and director and will be useful for translation and performance processes in any language
