Döring, 2023-11-16 Challenging western and francocentric accounts of military interventions in the Sahel Katharina P W Döring foregrounds the response of African regional organizations to armed violence since 2012 Based on extensive empirical research she reconstructs the experiences of African intervenors in planning and deploying missions in the region The book outlines the complex constellation of actors who shape African military politics including presidents diplomats and bureaucrats Drawing upon insights from critical geography Döring considers the oft neglected role that space at once relational and changing plays in the power dynamics of the region In so doing she offers a fresh perspective on military deployments and their politics Amidst the current resurgence of nationalist geopolitics this study and its findings have far reaching implications for the analysis of military politics in Africa and beyond Eugene O'Neill's One-Act Plays M. Bennett, B. Carson, 2012-08-06 Eugene O'Neill Nobel Laureate in Literature and Pulitzer Prize winner is widely known for his full length plays However his one act plays are the foundation of his work both thematically and stylistically they telescope his later plays This collection aims to fill the gap by examining these texts during what can be considered O'Neill's formative writing years and the foundational period of American drama A wide ranging investigation into O'Neill's one acts the contributors shed light on a less explored part of his career and assist scholars in understanding O'Neill's entire oeuvre Gestures of Music Theater Dominic Symonds, Millie Taylor, 2014-02 Gestures of Music Theater explores examples of Song and Dance as performative gestures that entertain and affect audiences The chapters interact to reveal the complex energies of performativity In experiencing these energies music theatre is revealed as a dynamic accretion of active complex and dialogical experiences Bloody Living Rhona Trench, 2010 This book deals with the process of negotiation with the past in the present through the plays of Marina Carr The title frames the work connoting the path towards destruction and the sense of lethargy acquired along the way The book offers an in depth and extensive reading of Carr's plays In doing so it surveys some of the destructive issues represented in the works and provides a series of social and cultural contexts to which the concerns in the works are related Carr is best known for her trilogy The Mai Portia Coughlan and By the Bog of Cats and more recently Woman and Scarecrow The Cordelia Dream and Marble The plays are regularly concerned with notions of identity in the context of self destruction self estrangement and displacement This book applies Julia Kristeva's theory of abjection to Carr's plays in an effort to structure the loss the author identifies in the works Themes of memory history and myth are examined in the context of these concerns in provocative and confrontational ways Lights, Camera, Feminism? Samantha Majic, 2023-05-16 Celebrities in the United States have drawn significant attention and resources to the complex issue of human trafficking a subject of feminist concern and they are often criticized for promoting sensationalized and simplistic understandings of the issue In this comprehensive analysis of celebrities anti trafficking activism however Samantha Majic finds that this phenomenon is more nuanced even as some celebrities promote regressive issue narratives and carceral solutions others use their platforms to elevate more diverse representations of human trafficking and feminist analyses of gender inequality Lights Camera Feminism thus argues that we should understand celebrities as multilevel political actors whose activism is shaped and mediated by a range of personal and contextual factors with implications for feminist and democratic politics more broadly
