American Indian Culture and Research Journal, 2007      Unmaking Race, Remaking Soul Christa Davis Acampora, Angela L. Cotten, 2008-06-05 Explores the theme of aesthetic agency and its potential for social and political progress      New Mexico Magazine, 2012-07      Voices of the American West Corinne Platt, Meredith Ogilby, 2009 This documentary style collection of photographs and narratives profiles a wide range of prominent figures of the West as they engage in candid discussions about the region and its identity A diverse group of visionary men and women they may differ in politics but remain united in their belief that the West requires inspired action if it is going to endure challenges posed by political cultural and environmental pressures Allowing those on each side of the issues to speak freely this important work tackles such topics as education recreation immigration ranching alternative energy wildlife habitat protection oil and gas extraction urban development and water conservation Exemplifying photography and journalism at its best the book provides a panoramic view of today's evolving West The collection features Terry Tempest Williams Stewart Udall Katie Lee Dave Foreman and many others      The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, 2012-03-22 While Native Americans are perhaps the most studied people in our society they too often remain the least understood and visible Fictions and stereotypes predominate obscuring substantive and fascinating facts about Native societies The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists works to remedy this problem by compiling fun unique and significant facts about Native groups into one volume complete with references to additional online and print resources In this volume readers can learn about Native figures from a diverse range of cultures and professions including award winning athletes authors filmmakers musicians and environmentalists Readers are introduced to Native U S senators Medal of Freedom winners Medal of Honor recipients Major League baseball players and U S Olympians as well as a U S vice president a NASA astronaut a National Book Award recipient and a Pulitzer Prize winner Other categories found in this book are History Stereotypes and Myths Tribal Government Federal Tribal Relations State Tribal Relations Native Lands and Environmental Issues Health Religion Economic Development Military Service and War Education Native Languages Science and Technology Food Visual Arts Literary and Performing Arts Film Music and Dance Print Radio and Television Sports and Games Exhibitions Pageants and Shows Alaska Natives Native Hawaiians Urban Indians Including further fascinating facts this wonderful resource will be a great addition not only to tribal libraries but to public and academic libraries individuals and scholars as well      Joel Greene, New Mexico Modernist Gussie Fauntleroy, 2004 Joel Greene who was raised in northern New Mexico has been called one of the most elegant of abstractionists His work includes landscapes still lifes and figures Greene says he paints intuitively but of all aspects of art he is most interested in drawing and organization the architecture of a painting In addition though nature inspires him his paintings come from memory and imagination and many are idealized Different types of paintings offer different kinds of artistic freedom Still lifes offer the most freedom because it is easier to accept strange things in a still life and figures the least unless you are Picasso His landscapes are the softest least angular of his work and the work in which he can most glory in the way shapes tones lines and color define space form movement Greene s series of oil on panel paintings of Cundiyo rock formations and New Mexico landscapes are variations on a theme in a muted palette of sandy browns light and deep greens and cool blues He says he has always been struck by the geological forces that shape our land volcanoes uplift erosion He suggests this visually in a way that brings to mind a toned down regionalism of Thomas Hart Benton combined with the shorthand abstraction of Milton Avery Joel Greene s work is in the collections of such museums as the University of New Mexico Museum of Art the Harwood Foundation the Roswell Museum and Art Center and the New Mexico Museum of Fine Arts among others American Craft ,2003 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,1980 American Indian Art Magazine ,2008 Art Journal ,1960 Bibliographic Index ,2004 Continued Operation of Los Alamos National Laboratory ,2008 Choice ,2003 The British Museum Encyclopedia of Native North America Rayna Green,Melanie Fernandez,1999 This encyclopedia explores American Indian history from a Native perspective through alphabetical entries on events issues contemporary and historical art mythology gender roles economics contact between Indians and Europeans political sovereignty and self determination land and environment Book jacket Archaeology of Spiritualities Kathryn Rountree,Christine Morris,Alan A. D. Peatfield,2012-05-23 Archaeology of Spiritualities provides a fresh exploration of the interface between archaeology and religion spirituality Archaeological approaches to the study of religion have typically and often unconsciously drawn on western paradigms especially Judaeo Christian mono theistic frameworks and academic rationalisations Archaeologists have rarely reflected on how these approaches have framed and constrained their choices of methodologies research questions hypotheses definitions interpretations and analyses and have neglected an important dimension of religion the human experience of the numinous the power presence or experience of the supernatural Within the religions of many of the world s peoples sacred experiences particularly in relation to sacred landscapes and beings connected with those landscapes are often given greater emphasis while doctrine and beliefs are relatively less important Archaeology of Spiritualities asks how such experiences might be discerned in the archaeological record how do we recognize and investigate other forms of religious or spiritual experience in the remains of the past The volume opens up a space to explore critically and reflexively the encounter between archaeology and diverse cultural expressions of spirituality It showcases experiential and experimental methodologies in this area of the discipline an unconventional approach within the archaeology of religion Thus Archaeology of Spiritualities offers a unique timely and innovative contribution one that is also challenging and stimulating It is a great resource to archaeologists historians religious scholars and others interested in cultural and religious heritage Farther, Faster, and Far Less Drama Janice Fraser,Jason Fraser,2023-04-11 Farther Faster and Far Less Drama offers a simple but powerful set of leadership behaviors to align teams and accelerate progress

From team leaders to consultants to stay at home parents everyone wishes life could be less complex but that often feels impossible Janice and Jason Fraser introduce the Four Leadership Motions a method they have been using for decades to help all kinds of teams make fast meaningful progress including Navy SEALs startup CEOs and Fortune 100 executives With the Four Leadership Motions you will set and achieve goals faster make complex situations more manageable and create momentum even during overwhelming circumstances The book calls on readers to Orient honestly to understand the complexities of any situation Value outcomes more than plans activities or deliverables Leverage the brains by tapping the right people and maximizing their contribution Make durable decisions by eliminating the two pernicious kinds of waste Farther Faster and Far Less Drama offers theory alongside hands on exercises formulas and frameworks that can all be adapted to real life situations in both professional and personal contexts The world around you might constantly be in flux but you don't have to be With this book you'll be empowered to make efficient progress with less stress every single day

The Encyclopedia of the First Peoples of North America Rayna Green, Melanie Fernandez, 1999 Speech and Language Challenges Marlene Targ Brill, 2014-09-11 More than three million people in the United States stutter In excess of a million students from ages 3-21 receive school services for speech and language problems Another five million Americans live with a disability from brain injury which usually includes communication difficulties Half a million teens in the U.S. between 14 and 17 speak a language other than English at home and have difficulty communicating in English at school These numbers continue to grow and more students are accessing speech and language assistance every year In Speech and Language Challenges The Ultimate Teen Guide Marlene Targ Brill addresses the various speech issues that affect all people but specifically focuses on the concerns of young adults Brill looks at not just the how and why of each issue but how to cope with them The author first explains how normal speech and language develops then discusses issues that occur as a result of physical limitations brain processing impairment or language barriers The chapters in this book offer insights into Stuttering and Other Fluency Challenges Speech Sound Disorders Voice Disorders Language Disorders Brain Injury and Communication English as a New or Different Language Additional chapters explore technological advances that help young adults communicate better public speaking tips and suggestions for handling everyday social and family situations Drawing on interviews with teens first hand accounts and quotes from experts Speech and Language Challenges The Ultimate Teen Guide also includes a list of resources making it a valuable tool for young adults and their families In Our Hands Jaida Grey Eagle, Jill Ahlberg Yeoh, Casey Riley, 2023-10-24 A groundbreaking exhibition catalogue of Native First Nations Metis and Inuit photography from the nineteenth century to the present day Photographs of and by Native people have long been exhibited in museums All too often however such exhibitions have misrepresented vital cultural and historical contexts neglecting the depth of practice supporting scholarship and Native perspectives relevant to the work By developing a broadly representative curatorial council of prominent academics and artists more than half of whom represent Native communities in the United States and Canada this book significantly expands the traditional discourses of photographic history With incisive contributions by individual curatorial council members In Our Hands presents Native photography in three thematic sections that underscore the following Native people are present in all facets of American life their role is transformative in the larger society and their view of and connections to the land and all living things is holistic and fundamental The publication features 130 photographic works by Native photographers from the late nineteenth century to the present ranging from documentary photographs to family snapshots to conceptual works Illustrated in full color the photographs in this book offer diverse perspectives spanning geographic chronological and artistic experience and shed new light on the extraordinary contributions of Native First Nations Metis and Inuit artists to the art of the Americas Distributed for the Minneapolis Institute of Art Exhibition Schedule Minneapolis Institute of Art October 22 2023 January 14 2024     Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well
