Royal Victoria Hospital 1887 1947:

Royal Victoria Hospital, 1887-1947, 1968 Expect Miracles is the personal and professional story of a leader in the worlds of business and culture David Culver narrates his journey from his upbringing in Montreal's Golden Square Mile through his studies at McGill and Harvard his army service during the Second World War to his impressive rise at Alcan to become chairman and chief executive officer of one of Canada's leading multinational corporations The memoir provides an inside look into the management of a global company with roots deeply planted in Quebec and offers pragmatic advice on how to grow talent foster technology and handle adversity in a far flung organization Anecdotes of meeting the likes of Margaret Thatcher Henry Kissinger and Jawaharlal Nehru reveal the experiences of a strong corporate leader who continued to live a Montreal life while never losing his interest in discovering the world A man of many interests and talents Culver reflects on his long love affair with architecture and his efforts to restore and preserve Montreal's heritage by creating Maison Alcan and how music and sport helped shape his life Expect Miracles is evidence of Culver's positive outlook and belief that the most extraordinary things can happen when you least expect them Royal Victoria Hospital 1887-1947 David Sclater Lewis, 1969 Royal Vic Neville Terry, 1994 Commemorating the first one hundred years of the Royal Victoria Hospital this engaging and beautifully illustrated retrospective pays tribute to a great Montreal landmark and the people who contributed to its greatness A Darkened House Geoffrey Bilson, 1980-12-15 From its first appearance in 1832 until the last scares of 1871 cholera aroused fear in British North America The disease killed 20 000 people and its psychological effects were enormous Cholera unsettled governments undermined the medical profession exposed inadequacies in public health and widened the division between rich and poor In a fascinating and disturbing book Geoffrey Bilson traces the story of the cholera epidemics as they ravaged the Canadas and the Atlantic colonies The political repercussions were extensive particularly in Lower Canada Governments both colonial and municipal imposed various public health measures including quarantine These actions were always temporary and poorly enforced and they sometimes met with violent opposition especially among the poor and the immigrants hit hardest by cholera Even the panic that ensued from the periodic onslaughts of the disease could not overcome the prevailing laissez faire attitude towards public health legislation The medical profession was equally helpless Doctors could neither cure the disease nor isolate its cause and public sentiment against them ran high A Darkened House is important reading for those interested in Canada's social political and medical history Expect Miracles David M. Culver, Alan Freeman, 2014-04-01 Expect Miracles is the personal and professional story of a leader in the worlds of business and culture David Culver narrates his journey from his upbringing in Montreal's Golden Square Mile through his studies at McGill and Harvard his army service during the Second World War to his impressive rise at Alcan to become chairman and chief executive officer of one of Canada's leading multinational corporations The memoir provides an inside look into the management of a global company with roots deeply planted in Quebec and offers pragmatic advice on how to grow talent foster technology and handle adversity in a far flung organization Anecdotes of meeting the likes of Margaret Thatcher Henry Kissinger and Jawaharlal Nehru reveal the experiences of a strong corporate leader who continued to live a Montreal life while never losing his interest in discovering the world A man of many interests and talents Culver reflects on his long love affair with architecture and his efforts to restore and preserve Montreal s heritage by creating Maison Alcan and how music and sport helped shape his life Expect Miracles is evidence of Culver s positive outlook and belief that the most extraordinary things can happen when you least expect them Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Giving Birth in Canada, 1900-1950 Wendy Mitchinson,2002-01-01 A fascinating account of childbirth rituals in the first half of the twentieth century from the initial diagnosis of pregnancy though childbirth who was present and where it took place to the definition of what constituted a normal birth

The General Joseph Hanaway,John H. Burgess,2016-05-01 Officially founded in 1819 the Montreal General Hospital is recognized as a pioneering institution in North America for the many discoveries in medical research made there and for its early association with the Faculty of Medicine at McGill University the first medical school in Canada Covering nearly 200 years of history The General relates the story of the hospital from its origins and founding to the transition and aftermath of its incorporation into the McGill University Health Centre in 1997 With contributions that show the perspectives of clinicians nurses surgeons professors and administrators chapters chronicle the history of particular departments and specializations of the hospital including cardiology dermatology endocrinology neurosurgery plastic surgery obstetrics emergency medicine pathology and radiology as well as nursing administration and governance Among the major turning points in the history of the hospital were the introduction of autopsy pathology by Sir William Osler the debut of the electrocardiograph by Thomas Cotton in 1914 the discovery of a malignant tumour marker by Phil Gold and Samuel Freedman in 1965 its transformation from a community hospital serving anglophone Montreal to an internationally recognized academic centre during the 1950s and 60s and changes in governance due to the 1970 Quebec Medicare Act Both a collective reminiscence and an extensive institutional history The General is an engaging account of one prominent hospital s development over nearly 200 years National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),

The Mysteries of Montreal Peter Ward,2011-11-01 During a long practice of over thirty years I have seen many things enacted here in this city of Montreal which if told with the skill of a Dumas or a Collins might not only astonish but startle the sedate residents of this Church going community With these words Charlotte Fuhrer introduces her memoirs Fuhrer a midwife in Montreal during the second half of the 19th century wrote her recollections in the form of highly scandalous moral tales The stories offer vignettes of the course of love faithful and illicit in late 19th century urban Canada

Fuhrer's stories are headed with such titillating titles as A Just Retribution the story of a prominent businessman's mistress who after giving birth to her lover's child went from bad to worse and finally took to smoking opium as a means to relieve her gnawing conscience ending her days prematurely Fuhrer was at the service of the high and mighty and desperate and from her vantage point in the delivery room she offers remarkable insight into the most intimate life of Montreal Originally published in 1881 The Mysteries of Montreal is fully reprinted with an introduction by Peter Ward Ward illuminates the life of Fuhrer and of midwives in Victorian Canada He traces the role of the midwife through the ages and placing Mrs Fuhrer in the context of her times discusses birth practices in a Canadian setting As well he examines the memoirs as a form of Canadian literature assessing their reflections on 19th century society As a result the book operates on more than one level It is not only a midwife's recollections but also an assemblage of gossip moral tales stories of courtship and birth practices and even mild pornography Students of Canadian social history will be interested in the memoirs for their information on 19th century morals and values The book will also appeal to students of medical history women's studies and Canadian literary criticism

Body Failure Wendy Mitchinson, 2013-10-30 In this energetic new study Wendy Mitchinson traces medical perspectives on the treatment of women in Canada in the first half of the twentieth century It is based on in depth research in a variety of archival sources including Canadian medical journals textbooks used in many of Canada's medical faculties popular health literature patient case records and hospital annual reports as well as interviews with women who lived during the period Each chapter examines events throughout a woman's life cycle puberty menstruation sexuality marriage and motherhood and the health problems connected to them infertility birth control and abortion gynaecology cancer nervous disorders and menopause Mitchinson provides a sensitive understanding of the physician patient relationship the unease of many doctors about the bodies of their female patients as well as overriding concerns about the relationship between female and male bodies Throughout the book Mitchinson takes care to examine the roles and agency of both patients and practitioners as diverse individuals

Children's Health Issues in Historical Perspective Cheryl Krasnick Warsh, Veronica Strong-Boag, 2006-01-01 From sentimental stories about polio to the latest cherub in hospital commercials sick children tug at the public's heartstrings However sick children have not always had adequate medical care or protection The essays in Children's Issues in Historical Perspective investigate the identification prevention and treatment of childhood diseases from the 1800s onwards in areas ranging from French colonial Vietnam to nineteenth century northern British Columbia from New Zealand fresh air camps to American health fairs Themes include the role of government and or the private sector in initiating and underwriting child public health programs the growth of the profession of pediatrics and its views on proper mothering techniques the role of nationalism as well as ethnic and racial dimensions in child saving movements normative behaviour social control and the treatment of deviant children and adolescents poverty wealth and child health measures and the development of the modern children's hospital This liberally illustrated collection reflects the growing academic interest in all aspects of childhood especially child health and originates from health care professionals and scholars across the disciplines An introduction by the editors places the historical themes in context and offers an overview of the contemporary study of children s health Material History Review ,1994 Dictionary of Canadian Biography / Dictionnaire Biographique Du Canada Frances G. Halpenny, Jean Hamelin, 1990-05 These biographies of Canadians are arranged chronologically by date of death Entries in each volume are listed alphabetically with bibliographies of source material and an index to names

Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974 The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell Desmond Pacey Lauriat Lane jr Michael S Cross Thomas A Goudge John Webster Grant John H Chapman William E Swinton Henry B Mayo Malcolm Ross Brandon Conron Clara Thomas Sheila A Egoff John Ripley William H New George Woodcock and Northrop Frye McGill University Stanley Brice Frost, 1984-05-01 The appointment of John William Dawson as principal in 1855 brought modern ideas of education to Montreal and he imparted to the emerging institution his own deep commitment to science The Molson Hall in 1862 the first Medical School on campus in 1872 the Redpath Museum in 1882 the Macdonald Physics Building the Redpath Library and the Macdonald Workman Engineering Building all in 1893 were the major external evidences of the great intellectual advances that had been made Equally the admission of women students in 1884 marked the immense social developments in Montreal society An early contribution to elementary teaching through the work of the McGill Normal School was followed by the institution of examinations for a far flung network of affiliated secondary schools and by the encouragement and supervision of local colleges By the time Dawson retired in 1893 McGill s influence was already reaching across the new Dominion of Canada and the university was ready to make the transition into the twentieth century Respectable Burial Brian Young, 2003-05-26 Respectable Burial also highlights how important a role Montreal played in Canada s history The cemetery is the final resting place of politician Alexander Galt poet F R Scott hockey star Howie Morenz explorer David Thompson bank presidents renegades hangmen and victims of the Titanic This history of a model rural cemetery an innovator in perpetual care and proprietor of the first crematorium in Canada illustrates changing attitudes to burial and commemoration including the relationships between Protestantism Romanticism and death Young also shows how the cemetery a site of great natural beauty that helped inspire Frederick Law Olmsted s adjacent Mount Royal Park became a much loved public urban space and examines how the evolution of its landscaping architecture and use reflect changing attitudes to the place of women recreation heritage and the environment Incorporating a rich collection of archival illustrations walking maps and a colour photo essay by photographer Geoffrey James Respectable Burial will appeal to anyone interested in Canadian history parks and cities McGill Medicine Joseph Hanaway, Richard L. Cruess, 2006-01-19

McGill Medicine is also the story of the doctors and administrators who made all this happen visionaries such as Principal Sir Arthur Currie and Dr C F Martin who shepherded the concept of full time faculty through the various approval processes of the school Dr J C Meakins who became in 1924 the first full time professor of medicine and Dr Wilder Penfield the founder and first director of the Montreal Neurological Institute among many others
