Gjert Lage Dyndal,2016-04-22 During the 1960s in the midst of its retreat from empire the British government had to grapple with complex political and military problems in order to find a strategic defence policy that was both credible and affordable Addressing what was perhaps the most contentious issue within those debates this book charts the arguments that raged between supporters of a land based air power strategy and those who favoured aircraft carriers Drawing upon a wealth of previously classified documents the book reveals how the Admiralty and Air Ministry became interlocked in a bitter political struggle over which of their military strategies could best meet Britain s future foreign policy challenges Whilst the broad story of this inter service rivalry is well known the Air Force s proposal for a series of island based airfields and the Navy championing of a small number of expensive but mobile aircraft carriers the complexity and previous lack of archival sources means that it has until now only ever been partially researched and understood Former studies have largely focused on the cancellation of the CVA 01 carrier programme and offered little depth as regards the Royal Air Force perspectives Given that this was a two Service rivalry which greatly influenced many aspects of British foreign and defence policy decisions of the period this book presents an important and balanced overview of the complex issues involved Through this historical study of the British debate about maritime air power and strategic alternatives in the 1960s the detailed arguments used for and against both alternatives demonstrate clear relevance to both historical and contemporary conceptual debates on carrier forces and land based air power Both from military strategy and inter service relationship perspectives contemporary Britain and many other nations with maritime forces may learn much from this historical case Sea Breezes ,1987 Marine News ,1995 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1986 Whitaker's Books of the Month & Books to Come ,1986 Over Cold War Seas Michael Napier,2025-05-22 Michael Napier describes the naval air power deployed by NATO Warsaw Pact and neutral countries throughout the Cold War In 1949 an Iron Curtain was drawn across Europe and the Cold War that ensued between the Western North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO countries and the Soviet dominated Warsaw Pact lasted through to the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 NATO and Warsaw Pact naval forces spread over the world s oceans and the powerful forces of the US Navy s Second Fleet patrolled the North Atlantic while the Sixth Fleet was positioned in the Mediterranean The age of the nuclear powered supercarrier arrived in 1957 with the USS Forrestal while the Soviet Union s first aircraft carrier the Kiev was commissioned in 1975 In Over Cold War Seas respected aviation author Michael Napier examines the naval air power of the major combatant forces as it developed from 1949 through to 1989 All the major naval aircraft types are
