adequate acknowledgment of all those who have assisted me in searching out extant examples of early Charleston furniture of space preclude a complete list. I am particularly grateful however to those who have permitted me to come into their homes often to the disruption of their households to make photographs of their furniture. I was invariably received with courtesy and in not a single instance was I refused permission to take pictures. I regret that I cannot show my appreciation of such generous cooperation by including in this book all the photographs I was permitted to acquire. The final choice has been determined by cost and space limitations or by the necessity of avoiding repetition of the types of furniture represented. It should be understood therefore that the exclusion of any given photograph does not mean that the subject was unworthy of inclusion. It should be understood also that only by the collection and study of hundreds of photographs have I been able to write with confidence on the styles and types of early Charleston furniture. Hence every photograph I have taken has been invaluable to me whether or not it occurs as an illustration in the book.

Institutions and societies as well as individuals have been generous either in supplying me with photographs or in permitting me to have the photographs taken.
