Roger AVERMAETE,1964      Rubens Joost vander Auwera,2007 Over the past four years the Royal Fine Arts Museums of Belgium have undertaken a huge research      Rubens et son temps René Dalemans,Peter Paul Rubens,2000      Rubens et son temps Charles Sterling,Musée national de l'Orangerie (Paris).,1936      Rubens et son temps Paul Jamot,René Huyghe,Charles Sterling,1936      Rubens & son temps Musée de l'Orangerie,1937      Art in the Cinema Steven Jacobs,Birgit Cleppe,Dimitrios Latsis,2020-10-15 In the 1940s and 1950s hundreds of art documentaries were produced many of them being highly personal poetic reflexive and experimental films that offer a thrilling cinematic experience With the exception of Alain Resnais's Van Gogh 1948 Henri Georges Clouzot's Le Mystère Picasso 1956 and a few others most of them have received only scant scholarly attention This book aims to rectify this situation by discussing the most lyrical experimental and influential post war art documentaries connecting them to contemporaneous museological developments and Euro American cultural and political relationships With contributors with expertise across art history and film studies Art in the Cinema draws attention to film projects by André Bazin Ilya Bolotowsky Paul Haesaerts Carlo Ragghianti John Read Dudley Shaw Aston Henri Storck and Willard Van Dyke among others      A catalogue of the books in the library of the Royal academy of arts, London. [By H.R. Tedder]. [With suppl. entitled] A catalogue of books added ... between 1877 and 1900. (Roy. acad. of arts). Henry Richard Tedder,1877      Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck,2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577-1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547-1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600-08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing. Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children (Los Angeles Getty Museum) and Kneeling Man (Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen), these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker. Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist, such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age.

Rubens David Freedberg, Peter Paul Rubens, 1984. This volume catalogues and discusses all the known representations by Rubens of the Life of Christ after the Passion, and the material is sufficiently varied to convey a brilliant impression of the energy, inventiveness and technical and artistic mastery of the art of Rubens.

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28. First published in 1997. For this second edition of Art Books: A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists, the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated. This has resulted in the selection of 3,395 additional titles. These selections, reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years, are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically, and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities. The selections of the first edition have been reviewed, errors have been corrected, and important new editions and reprints have been noted. The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition.
