Torres-Padilla, Carmen Haydee Rivera, 2011-12-01 The sixteen essays in Writing Off the Hyphen approach the literature of the Puerto Rican diaspora from current theoretical positions with provocative and insightful results The authors analyze how the diasporic experience of Puerto Ricans is played out in the context of class race gender and sexuality and how other themes emerging from postcolonialism and postmodernism come into play Their critical work also demonstrates an understanding of how the process of migration and the relations between Puerto Rico and the United States complicate notions of cultural and national identity as writers confront their bilingual bicultural and transnational realities The collection has considerable breadth and depth It covers earlier undertheorized writers such as Luisa Capetillo Pedro Juan Labarthe Bernardo Vega Pura Belpr Arturo Schomburg and Graciany Miranda Archilla Prominent writers such as Rosario Ferr and Judith Ortiz Cofer are discussed alongside often neglected writers such as Honolulu based Rodney Morales and gay writer Manuel Ramos Otero The essays cover all the genres and demonstrate that current theoretical ideas and approaches create exciting opportunities and possibilities for the study of Puerto Rican diasporic literature

Underserved Suffering: A Psychospiritual Autobiography of Post-Colonial Faith from the Puerto Rican Diaspora Gerardo De Jesus, PhD, 2023-09-15 From the Introduction This story seeks to nuance moments in my history as the son of diasporic parents As members of the many who migrated my parents became an us to a them in a world where being different felt threatening They experienced their own undeserved suffering while holding on to the dream of American Exceptionalism Puerto Rican Americans arrived with prayers on their lips bibles and rosaries in hand and though it felt like an expulsion from paradise our colonial faith sustained us The God we knew over there was also here in our new hiding place called Spanish Harlem fondly called el Barrio The faith inherited from 5 centuries of colonialism has grown into our collective identity and though its sacred stories speak to our realities its legacy has also contributed to colonial aims I draw from the life of one of colonial Christianity's greatest saints St Francis of Assisi who emulates the life of Jesus in the 13th century Francis faced the falseness of religious clericalism the plight of the poor in a shame honor culture and a dualistic consciousness that still prevails and which refuses to embrace otherness How might his life speak to Puerto Ricans in diaspora How might we re imagine the colonial faith inherited

New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 3 G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed Produced by the Ancient History Documentary
