Bodily Discursions Deborah S. Wilson, Christine Moneera Laennec, 1996-12-05 Bodily Discursions offers a multiplicity of feminist perspectives on the body especially the female body from a variety of disciplines literary history social theory art history cultural studies the history of rhetoric film and literary criticism among others Subjects range from public punishment of outspoken women during the English Renaissance to current responses to the AIDS pandemic in the popular media Contributors include Alice E Adams Susanmarie Harrington Catherine Hobbs Cynthia Huff Cathy Peppers Roberta Schreyer Julie Shaffer Torri L Thompson Angela Wall Deborah S Wilson and Christine Moneera Laennec All of the essays offer variations on the same theme the idea that the body is a site for the production of political ideologies particularly in response to social exigencies and cultural crises However there is no single overarching ideological model here for feminism much less for reading the body in a specific historical or cultural moment Bodily Discursions offers instead a number of individual voices on a variety of issues and phenomena as they determine the configuration of the body This book demonstrates that society needs to pay attention to how the body is manipulated if we are to work for social progress and political justice for it is through our bodies that we all must articulate our experience and live our lives This topic is on the cutting edge of scholarship in both feminist and cultural studies It is an important contribution to a rapidly evolving field

Unveiling Eve Tova Rosen, 2013-04-23 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Unveiling Eve is the first feminist inquiry into the Hebrew poetry and prose forms cultivated in Muslim and Christian Spain Italy and Provence in the eleventh through fourteenth centuries In the Jewish Middle Ages writing was an exclusively male competence and textual institutions such as the study of scripture mysticism philosophy and liturgy were men's sanctuaries from which women were banished These domains of male expertise alongside belles lettres on which Rosen's book focuses served as virtual laboratories for experimenting with concepts of femininity and masculinity hetero and homosexuality feminization and virilization transvestism and transsexuality Reviewing texts as varied as love lyric love stories marriage debates rhetorical contests and liturgical and moralistic pieces Tova Rosen considers the positions and positioning of female figures and female voices within Jewish male discourse The idolization and demonization of women present in these texts is read here against the background of scripture and rabbinic literature as well as the traditions of chivalry and misogyny in the hosting Islamic and Christian cultures Unveiling Eve unravels the literary evidence of a patriarchal tradition in which women are routinely rendered nonentities often positioned as abstractions without bodies or reified as bodies without subjectivities Without rigidly following any one school of feminist thinking Rosen creatively employs a variety of methodologies to describe and assess the texts presentation of male sexual politics and delineate how women and concepts of gender were manipulated fictionalized fantasized and poeticized Inaugurating a new era of critical thinking in Hebrew literature Unveiling Eve penetrates a field of medieval literary scholarship that has until now proven impervious to feminist criticism

Nichols, 2016-04-05 What issues of both form and content shape the documentary film What role does visual evidence play in relation to a documentary's arguments about the world in which we live Can a documentary be believed and why or why not How do documentaries abide by or subvert ethical expectations Are mockumentaries a form of subversion In what ways can the documentary be an aesthetic experience and at the same time have political or social impact And how can such impacts be empirically measured Pioneering film scholar Bill Nichols investigates the ways in which documentaries strive for accuracy and truthfulness but simultaneously fabricate a form that shapes reality Such films may rely on reenactment to recreate the past storytelling to provide satisfying narratives and rhetorical figures such as metaphor and expressive forms such as irony to make a point In many ways documentaries are a fiction unlike any other With clarity and passion Nichols offers close readings of several provocative documentaries including Land without Bread Restrepo The Thin Blue Line The Act of Killing and Steve Jobs: The Man in the Machine as part of an authoritative examination of the layered approaches and delicate ethical balance demanded of documentary filmmakers Provided by publisher
