Reflexive Ethnography Charlotte Aull Davies, 2012-08-06 Reflexive Ethnography is a unique guide to ethnographic research for students of anthropology and related disciplines It provides practical and comprehensive guidance to ethnographic research methods but also encourages students to develop a critical understanding of the philosophical basis of ethnographic authority Davies examines why reflexivity at both personal and broader cultural levels should be integrated into ethnographic research and discusses how this can be accomplished for a variety of research methods This revised and updated second edition includes a new chapter on internet based research and interethnography chapters on selection of topics and methods data collection and analysis and ethics and politics of research practical advice on writing up ethnographic study new and updated research examples Postmodernist relativism can lead to an over emphasis on reflexivity that denies the possibility of social research Reflexive Ethnography utilises postmodernist insights incorporation of different standpoints exposure of the intellectual tyranny of meta narratives but proposes that reflexive ethnographic research be undertaken from a realist perspective Reflexive Ethnography will help students to use and understand ethnographic research practices that fully incorporate reflexivity without abandoning claims to develop valid knowledge of social reality Islands and Britishness Jodie Matthews, 2011-11-15 Islands and archipelagos hold great imaginative power and they have long been a subject of study for cartographers and geographers for anthropologists and historians of colonisation But what does it mean to be an islander Can one feel both British and Manx for example What are British tourists looking for when they go to

Dissent, Revolution and Liberty Beyond Earth Charles Cockell, 2016-03-10 This volume provides an in depth discussion on the central question how can people express and survive dissent and disagreement in confined habitats in space The discussion is an important one because it could be that the systems of inter dependence required to survive in space are so strong that dissent becomes impossible John Locke originally said that people have a right to use revolution to overthrow a despotic regime But if revolution causes violence and damage that causes depressurisation with the risk of killing many people is it even permissible to have a revolution How then are people to express their liberty or dissatisfaction with their rulers The emergence of structures of dissent and disagreement is an essential part of the construction of a framework of liberty in space revolution is just the extreme example and thus the topic deserves in depth and immediate attention Even today the way in which we assemble organisations and corporations for the government and private exploration of space must take into account the need for mechanisms to allow people to express dissent
