Hubert Humphrey a fallen hero and a dying man rose on rickety legs to approach the podium of the Philadelphia Convention Hall his pulpit for the commencement address at the University of Pennsylvania He clutched a sheaf of paper with his speech for the occasion typed and double spaced by an assistant from his extemporaneous dictation and then marked up in pencil by Humphrey himself A note on the first page circled to draw particular attention read simply 30 years ago Here In this place at that time twenty nine years earlier to be precise he had made history From the dais now Humphrey beheld five thousand impending graduates an ebony sea of gowns and mortarboards broken by one iconoclast in a homemade crown two in ribboned bonnets and another whose headgear bore the masking tape message HI MA PA In the horseshoe curve of the arena s double balcony loomed eight thousand parents and siblings children and friends Wearing shirtsleeves and cotton shifts amid the stale heat they looked like pale confetti from where Humphrey stood and their flash cameras flickered away a constellation of pinpricks
