Screen World 1986 Film Annual:

Screen World 1986 John Willis, 1986 American Film , 1988 Korean War Filmography Robert J. Lentz, 2016-05-01

The Korean experience changed the way Americans viewed war. The lack of a clear cut victory inspired filmmakers to try to make sense of fighting another country's civil war and risking American lives for an unpopular cause. This filmography details more than 90 English language films. Each entry includes complete cast and credit listings, a plot synopsis, evaluation, review snippets, and notice of video availability. This book places each film in its historical context, assesses the essential truthfulness of each film, and evaluates its entertainment value and discusses how and why Korean War films differ from other Hollywood war genres. Four appendices list the films by chronology, production company, and studio level of historical accuracy and subject and theme. Additional appendices list films with incidental references to the Korean War documentaries on the Korean War and South Korean films about the war. Photographs, a bibliography, and an index are included.

Television Western Players of the Fifties Everett Aaker, 2024-10-15

Modeled after the Mack V Wright 1920 film version, the 1949 western television series The Lone Ranger made Clayton Moore's masked character one of the most recognized in American popular culture. Other westerns followed, and by 1959 there were 32 being shown daily on prime time television. Many of the stars of the nearly 75 westerns went on to become American icons and symbols of the Hollywood West. This encyclopedia includes every actor and actress who had a regular role in a television western from 1949 through 1959. The entries cite biographical and family details, accounts of how the player first broke into show business, and details of roles played, as well as opinions from the actors and their contemporaries. A full accounting of film, serial, and television credits is also included. The appendix lists 84 television westerns with dates, show times, themes, and stars.

Lee Marvin Robert J. Lentz, 2015-09-15

Lee Marvin did not receive his first starring film role until he was 40, but in three short years following the successes of Cat Ballou, for which he won the Academy Award as Best Actor in The Professionals, and especially The Dirty Dozen, he was the most popular film actor in America. Marvin was a fascinating man, a loving husband and father, and one of the most natural, effective actors of his time. This is a comprehensive reference of the Oscar-winning actor's work. It includes biographical information on Marvin, an analysis of each of his 64 movies, chapters on his two television shows, M Squad and Lawbreaker, a listing of his television appearances, and a complete filmography which includes video availability. The work is supplemented with dozens of photographs and film stills.

Film and Television In-Jokes Bill van Heerden, 2015-09-02

In Only the Lonely (1991), Ally Sheedy appears as prospective mother-in-law Maureen O'Hara by going along to see the 1939 film How Green Was My Valley starring Maureen O'Hara. Richard LaGravenese, slighted by critic Gene Siskel over his screenplay for The Fisher King (1991), wrote an unsavory character named Siskel into The Ref (1994). Movies and television shows often feature inside jokes. Sometimes there are characters named after crew members. Directors are often featured in cameo appearances. Alfred Hitchcock's silhouette can be seen in Family Plot 1976 for example This work catalogs such occurrences Each entry includes the title of the film or show year of release and a full description of the in joke

Patterns of Bias in Hollywood Movies John W. Cones, 2012 It s pretty broadly recognized that Hollywood movies contain patterns of bias but it s not just people of color or women who are hurt by this Many groups within America s multicultural society have complained over the years about negative and stereotypical portrayals of their own group members in motion pictures produced or released through the Hollywood based studios Yet as an expert on the U S film industry points out such complaints have had little impact on consistent patterns of bias in movies This book takes a broader look at the nature of negative and stereotypical movie portrayals and tracks patterns of such one sided depictions over a longer period time As a result the patterns of bias and the source the problem become more clear The problem appears be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry This work grew out of the observed frustration of film industry critics who have pointed out examples of bias and stereotyping in specific movies over the years only to be rebuffed by the simplistic studio arguments that such films reflect the real world and that moviegoers vote with their pocket books It can be shown that there is a consistent pattern to the choices Hollywood studio executives make with respect to the movies produced and released and the specific content of those movies and it becomes obvious that Hollywood is selectively portraying reality Movie goers only have limited options among all of the possibilities that could be portrayed on the silver screen This book differs from other studies touching on bias in motion pictures Most such books focus on the treatment of a single ethnic religious cultural racial or other readily identifiable interest group but this study attempts to provide an overview and to identify patterns over time When the patterns of bias in motion picture content are sufficiently demonstrated and documented it becomes easier to identify the source of the bias and to explain why such bias exists

Books in Print, 1991 Canadian Dreams and American Control Manjunath Pendakur, 1990 A history of the Canadian film industry from its inception to 1980s providing a chronological record of the conflicting priorities between American capital which seeks to shape the Canadian film industry to its own image and Canada's stated goal which is to serve the Canadian people with films autonomously conceived produced and exhibited

Statistical Reference Index, 1987 Polymer Thick Film Ken Gilleo, 1995-10-31 Ken Gilleo's Polymer Thick Film provides you with all the essential concepts process descriptions performance data and general information you will need to reach your own conclusions The focus will be on polymer thick film's major subsets which include conductive inks printed resistors dielectric films or pastes and polymer assembly material Cultural Policy in France Council of Europe. Council for Cultural Co-operation. Programme européen d'évaluation, Robert Wangermée, Bernard Gournay, 1991-01-01 Contents Report by the panel of European experts by Robert Wangermée National report by Bernard Gournay

Encyclopedia of African American Actresses in Film and Television Bob McCann, 2022-09-23 The first work of its kind this encyclopedia provides 360 brief biographies of African American film and television actresses from the silent era to 2009 It includes entries on well known and nearly forgotten actresses running the gamut from Academy Award and NAACP Image Award winners to B film and exploitation era stars Each entry has a complete filmography of the actress's film TV music video or short film credits The work also features more than 170 photographs some of them rare images from the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture

Motion Picture Biographies John Cones, 2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Reagan Robert P. Metzger,1989-07 At a Theater or Drive-in Near You Randall Clark,2013-12-17 Millions of Americans have been thrilled scared titillated and shocked by exploitation movies low budget films with many scenes of sex violence and other potentially lurid elements The term derives from the fact that promoters of such films exploit the contents in advertising that plays up the sexual or violent aspects of the films This is the first comprehensive study of the American exploitation film to be published It discusses five distinct genres the teen movie the sexploitation film the martial arts movie the blaxploitation film and the lawbreaker picture Contained within these genres are many popular American film types including beach movies biker pictures and women s prison movies The study provides a history and sociopolitical analysis of each genre focusing on significant films in those genres It also discusses the economics of exploitation films and their place in the motion picture industry the development of drive in theaters the significance of the teenage audience and the effect of the videocassette Finally the book applies major film and cultural theories to establish an aesthetic for evaluating the exploitation film and to explore the relationship between film and audience Screening the World Stuart Hanson,2019-07-26 This book charts the development of the multiplex cinema as the pre eminent form of film exhibition across the world Going from its origins in the USA in the 1960s to its expansion overseas from the mid 1980s across Europe Australia and other parts of Asia Pacific the book considers the emergence of a series of initially regional then national and then international exhibition circuits However more than a consideration of US overseas expansion on the part of companies this book examines the hegemony of the multiplex as a cultural and business form arguing for its significance as a phenomenon that has transcended national and global boundaries and which has become the predominant venue for film viewing Implicit in this analysis is a recognition of the domination of US media multi nationals and Hollywood cinema and the development of the multiplex cinema as symbolic of the extension and maintenance of the USA s cultural and economic power With case studies ranging from European countries such as Belgium France Germany and The Netherlands to Pacific Asian countries such as Australia China Japan and South Korea this book is the first to explore the development of multiplexes on a global scale
