Marxsen, 2018-09-21 The beginning of the 20th century saw literary scholars from Russia positing a new definition for the nature of literature Within the framework of Russian Formalism the term literariness was coined The driving force behind this theoretical inquiry was the desire to identify literature and art in general as a way of revitalizing human perception which had been numbed by the automatization of everyday life The transformative power of literariness is made manifest in many media artworks by renowned artists such as Chantal Akerman Mona Hatoum Gary Hill Jenny Holzer William Kentridge Nalini Malani Bruce Nauman Martha Rosler and Lawrence Weiner The authors use literariness as a tool to analyze the aesthetics of spoken or written language within experimental film video performance moving image installations and other media based art forms This volume uses as its foundation the Russian Formalist school of literary theory with the goal of extending these theories to include contemporary concepts in film and media studies such as Neoformalism intermediality remediation and postdrama Creating

Corporate Audio-Visual Presentations Richard Worth, 1991-04-19 Successful audio visual presentations are the result of careful management by as well as creative collaboration between the client and the professional communications firm Because of their high visibility within the corporation presentations risk falling prey to script by committee unless there is a clear plan at hand for managing the project Executives who find themselves responsible for a presentation need to be fully aware of what audio visual can and cannot do and how to go about getting it done right In this how to guide for corporate executives author Richard Worth covers every step of the process in sequence from determining objectives to preparing for production and post production While the emphasis is on working with an audio visual professional Worth also includes do it yourself tips for readers who want to keep the project in house Selecting slides video film or multimedia is one of the first choices to make This decision like others that follow should be based on a determination of purpose audience and message Worth provides easy to follow worksheets to help get the planning process going Readers looking for budget guidelines will learn how much money they will need to invest to get the presentations they want And to help readers select the communications professional they will be working with Worth offers down to earth advice based on his years of practical experience In non technical language he critiques and analyzes samples of script proposals and treatments providing valuable insight into the creative process Any executive or manager responsible for sales training public relations fund raising employee relations or recruitment will find this a valuable resource for planning and implementing effective presentations

Cellphilm as a Participatory Visual Method Katie MacEntee, Sarah Flicker, 2023-06-30 This volume celebrates cellphilm as an emerging Participatory Visual Method which effectively and powerfully engenders learning and catalyses social change The book outlines the method s theoretical framework the role of the educator and researcher and ethical concerns of using this method and critically explores issues which determine the production and dissemination of creative outputs The authors demonstrate the emerging methodology of cellphilm and how it can be utilised from both pedagogical and methodological standpoints Using examples of cellphilms created to understand social issues this book illustrates how the method enables diverse populations to document their communities and realities using mobile devices By exploring cellphilm as a growing method in participatory visual research the work fills an important gap in the fields of critically engaged community based research pedagogy and higher education for scholars and community activists

Towards a Methodology for the Investigation of Norms in Audiovisual Translation Fotios Karamitroglou, 2022-06-08 Here is presented for the first time a methodology for the investigation of norms which operate in the field of audiovisual translation Based on the findings of the polysystem approach to translation the present work aims to demonstrate that it is possible to investigate audiovisual translation and the norms that operate in it in a systematic way Human agents audiovisual products recipients and the mode itself are thoroughly investigated and stratified under a lower middle and upper level Specific techniques for collecting and analysing data are suggested The model is tentatively applied to the investigation of norms which seem to determine the choice between subtitling and revoicing children s TV programmes in Greece However one will soon notice that the same model could be applied for the investigation of audiovisual translation norms in any other country But not only that one will quickly realise that with minute modifications the same model can prove effective for the study of norms in other modes of written translation too Therefore this volume can be of a high interest not only to audiovisual translation scholars and practitioners but to general translation scholars and students of translation proper as well
