lawsuit over which Nicole's boss is the presiding judge. Not so secretly the judge relishes the prospect of having her fifteen seconds of fame before the world press. Her staff knows that the attention from the paparazzi may prove to be her professional undoing and theirs. Her job potentially on the line. Nicole contacts Tim Grue for a clandestine meeting of the minds but will Tim take the bait and sign on to Nicole's harmless solution? Their former friendship on course to self-ignite or implode sets in motion a chain of events that blast open the door to Nicole's secret past and their bitter-sweet history and where crises of identity, spirituality and morality intersect. Conflicting issues of race and class deepen already murky waters as Nicole is black and Timothy is white. Yet as between the two they want to know why race is still an issue at all. On the road from hell to higher ground both learn that anything worth having is always tried by fires of a faith that asks simply what do you really believe. And more can redemption ever come too late.
