

"Inevitably funny Rayner has an acute ear for bizarre, dispirited dialogue, an engaging wish for the absurd, and has pointed here a picture for anyone who has ventured to the West Coast, helpless and alone, of rampant insanity."
—Ian Hildart, The Times Literary Supplement

"Full of the irony of masochism, the masochism of irony... a terrific piece of road comedy... the effect is of a twenty-four-hour sleepless machine, with Rayner face down in it, coming up smiling."
—Hugo Williams, Daily Telegraph

"This is a cleverest, more thorough and entertaining study of American reality than other recent books: Less Than Zero, Bright Lights, Big City and so on. Rayner, of course, is perfectly placed from the start—he is an Englishman, and as he has the perspective of an outsider he is attracted and repelled by Los Angeles in equal measure: he is himself dis-located but in an intellectual, literary way which the natives comically don't understand. He is their critic. And he begins to inhabit Los Angeles like a film critic who takes a film, wringing out its themes, its leitmotifs, its ironies."
—William Leith, Books Magazine

"Rayner's literary grandfather would appear to be Hunter S. Thompson. The dialogue is splendid and the anecdotes sometimes hilarious."
—William Green, Punch

"Thoroughly amusing, pacing hyped up."
—Linda Taylor, Sunday Times (London)

"Rayner's fabulously lively kaleidoscope reads more like a novel than a travelogue... [yet] Rayner's book is written so well, with such sizzling energy, humour and atmosphere, that it doesn't really matter whether it's a novel or not."
—Graham Lord, The Sunday Express

"Clad up, heroes, and get bustling funny. How'd, travel? Who cares?"
—Gordon Burn, Arms
