Losing And Living Thoughts On Every Kind Of Grieving:

Losing and Living David Maldwyn Owen, 1991 Losing My Husbands Nancy N. Needy, 2024-04-16 After the death of two husbands forty years apart the author details the personal grief she experienced following these life altering events Even though they occurred at different stages of her life the overwhelming and devastating losses were the same The book defines the struggles that she faced as she grieved her attempts to overcome or at least manage the grief how humor can be useful to help move past the pain of such a horrific loss and her struggles to make a life for herself without her spouse Even though the primary focus of this book is to offer support understanding and hope to those who have lost their spouse this book can also be helpful to those who are grieving any type of loss In addition this book can be a valuable resource for all married couples in preparation for surviving this unavoidable journey And finally it provides valuable insights to those having to watch another who is grieving Understanding Loss and Grief for Women Robert W. Buckingham, Peggy A. Howard Ph.D., 2017-05-18 This book can enhance everyone's understanding of how women experience loss and grief and how they transition to resolution It is an invaluable resource to women and everyone who supports them spouses partners and family members as well as community and government Women's grief is often a complex phenomenon a natural normal experience but one that can seriously impact everyone female or male at every stage of life Understanding Loss and Grief for Women A New Perspective on Their Pain and Healing provides a way to look at how women experience loss through the lens of their socially constructed roles and in light of the theories and practice of grief therapy and support The book begins by explaining the social construction of women's traditional transitional and modern postmodern roles and then addresses the social construction of grief theory and practice in past eras and modern society Several case studies enable readers to see how social constructs shape women's responses to various causes of grief such as the death of a spouse or partner child marriage divorce and career retirement The final section of the book examines the health impacts of grief offers suggestions to ameliorate negative health impacts and emphasizes how loss and grief for women can be used as opportunities for self growth This book serves all members of the general population as well as educators academics scientists and students of disciplines such as psychology psychotherapy medicine sociology and women's studies It will enable all women to better understand deal with and heal from their loss and grief experience Male readers will empathize with what their spouses partners mothers grandmothers siblings and friends are experiencing in loss and grief and understand how to support healthy transition through grief to resolution The community at large and care providers will learn how to create a more nurturing and supportive environment for women's grief response Life After Losing A Child Antonette Smith, 2021-09-24 Life After Losing a Child is dedicated to my son Antonio Smith Scott May 23 1992 March 5 2013 and in honor of my mother Flora Scott August 25 1949 January 3 2020 who birthed eight children and lost six before her own death Life After Losing a Child is based on my own experiences from a mother's perspective losing a child from a sibling's perspective losing brothers in early childhood how the death of my brothers affected my parents and our family I also share how losing my own son affected my family my four other children and their father Millions of parents lose a child every day and are left struggling trying to not be overtaken with grief for the rest of our lives We suffer from guilt shame hurt pain and sorrows until we allow Jesus to heal us Losing a child from a miscarriage stillbirth sickness deformities abortions accidents or homicides all these losses of a child carries the same hurts pains sorrows and grief The loss of these children leaves a void in all our lives as a family I pray by sharing my loss and grief process you will seek Jesus for healing for yourself and family That you will be empowered to live your best life after the loss of a child or sibling I pray you will live to the fullest capacity God has intended Jesus died to give you with the Holy Spirit guiding you a life of purpose not only for yourself and family but for the child that is gone but not forgotten
