Losing Generations Adolescents In High Risk Settings:

Losing Generations National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Panel on High-Risk Youth, 1995-02-01 At least 7 million young Americans fully one quarter of adolescents 10 to 17 years old may be at risk of failing to achieve productive adult lives They use drugs engage in unprotected sex drop out of school and sometimes commit crimes effectively closing the door to their own futures And the costs to society are enormous school and social services are overwhelmed and our nation faces the future with a diminished citizenry This penetrating book argues that the problems of troubled youth cannot be separated from the settings in which those youths live settings that have deteriorated significantly in the past two decades A distinguished panel examines what works and what does not in the effort to support and nurture adolescents and offers models for successful programs This volume presents an eye opening look at what millions of the nation s youths confront every day of their lives addressing How the decline in economic security for young working parents affects their children s life chances How dramatic changes in household structure and the possibilities of family and community violence threaten adolescents development How the decline of neighborhoods robs children of a safe environment How adolescents health needs go unmet in the current system Losing Generations turns the spotlight on those institutions youths need the health care system schools the criminal justice and the child welfare and foster home systems and how they are functioning Difficult issues are addressed with study results and insightful analyses access of poor youths to health insurance coverage inequities in school funding how child welfare agencies provide for adolescents in their care and the high percentage of young black men in the criminal justice system Losing generations adolescents in high-risk settings ,1993 Licensing Parents Jack C.

Westman, 2007-10-12 Licensing Parents addresses the relationship between poverty unemployment and other socio economic issues to competent parenting in a unique and creative manner Examines why the current generation of children and youth is the first in our nation s history to be less well off psychologically socially and morally than their parents were at the same age

Improving Intergroup Relations Among Youth Institute of Medicine, National Research Council, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Forum on Adolescence, 2000-01-01 On November 9 10 1998 the Forum on Adolescence of the Board on Children Youth and Families a cross cutting initiative of the Institute of Medicine and the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences convened a workshop entitled Research to Improve Intergroup Relations Among Youth Held at the request of the Carnegie Corporation of New York this workshop considered selected findings of 16 research projects that have focused on intergroup relations among children and adolescents all 16 received funding from Carnegie Corporation of New York for their work on this issue The funding of these projects was part of a larger research initiative supported by Carnegie Corporation of New York that sought to update and expand the knowledge sources and dynamics of racial and ethnic prejudice among youth identifying approaches to foster

intergroup understanding Improving Intergroup Relations Among Youth is the summary of the workshop which provided an opportunity to learn about the work and preliminary findings of the 16 projects This report reviews the knowledge base regarding the effectiveness of interventions designed to promote peaceful respectful relations among youth of different ethnic groups

Risks and Opportunities National Research Council and Institute of Medicine, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Institute of Medicine, Forum on Adolescence, 1999-11-16 This report constitutes one of the first activities of the Forum on Adolescence a cross cutting activity of the Institute of Medicine and the National Research Council of the National Academies Established under the auspices of the Board on Children Youth and Families the forum's overarching mission is to synthesize analyze and evaluate scientific research on critical national issues that relate to youth and their families as well as to disseminate research and its policy and programmatic implications The goals of the forum are to

- 1 review and establish the science base on adolescent health and development and make efforts to foster this development
- 2 identify new directions and support for research in this area approaching research as a resource to be developed cumulatively over time
- 3 showcase new research programs and policies that have demonstrated promise in improving the health and well being of adolescents
- 4 convene and foster collaborations among individuals who represent diverse viewpoints and backgrounds with a view to enhancing the quality of leadership in this area and
- 5 disseminate research on adolescence and its policy implications to a wide array of audiences from the scientific community to the lay public

Adolescent Health Problems Jan Lance Wallander, Lawrence J. Siegel, 1995-08-11 Adolescence a dynamic period of physical and psychological growth presents young people with a variety of developmental challenges that can have a significant impact on health related behaviors Because adolescents exhibit distinct patterns of morbidity and mortality health practitioners are focusing increased attention on their unique health care needs
