Lost Mother:

The Lost Mother Joon Kim, Dona M. Dietz, 2008 The Lost Mother is the memoir of Iltang an acclaimed Korean Japan painter who was born in 1922 His Korean mother Ilyeop was a well known feminist poet who after his birth renounced the world to enter into Buddhist monastic life Iltang's father was the scion of an aristocratic Japanese family Their relationship was romantic but ultimately doomed In a life marked by war and disruption Iltang finally attained both the artistic success he craved and the spiritual enlightenment he sought in later life The longing for his real mother never left him however and it provided him the psychological impetus to succeed in both the worldly and spiritual realms Iltang's dramatic life story is made even more vibrant by the chaotic historical context into which he was born It is an interesting portrayal of a unique time and place and an inspiring look at one man's incredible ability to overcome adversity The Lost Mother Anne Summers, 2010

My mother had just turned ten in mid 1933 when a young woman approached her as they were both leaving Mass at St Joan of Arc's in Brighton The woman was an artist and she would like to paint her portrait After her mother's death in 2005 Anne Summers inherits a portrait of her mother as a child Mesmerised by this image she finds herself drawn into the story of how the portrait was painted and eventually found its way into her family She soon learns the artist painted another portrait of her mother this time as the Madonna In a gripping narrative that is part art history part detective story and part meditation on the relations between mothers and daughters Anne's search for the Madonna painting and the mysterious Russian migr collector who bought both paintings takes her down unexpected paths Her search soon turns into a parallel quest to rescue Constance Stokes the artist from obscurity and to learn why the collector suddenly abandoned the paintings Along the way Anne finds she must face the truth of the relationship she had with her mother In turn hypnotic and moving The Lost Mother is a powerful exploration of art loss and love

Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World Sharon Schuman, 2013-12-11 Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World argues that our most cherished ideas about freedom being left alone to do as we please or uncovering the truth have failed us They promote the polarized thinking that blights our world Rooted in literature political theory and Mikhail Bakhtin's theories of language this book introduces a new concept dialogic freedom This concept combats polarization by inspiring us to feel freer the better able we are to see from the perspectives of others To say that freedom is dialogic is to apply to it an idea about language If you and I are talking I anticipate from you a response that could be friendly hostile or indifferent and this awareness helps determine what I say If you look bored or give me a blank stare I might not say anything at all In this sense language is dialogic The same can be said of freedom Our decisions take into account the voices of others to which we feel answerable and these voices coauthor our choices In today's polarized world prevailing concepts of freedom as autonomy and enlightenment have encouraged us to take refuge in echo chambers among the like minded Whether the subject is abortion terrorism or gun control these concepts encourage us to shut out the voices of those who dare to disagree We need a new way to think about freedom Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World presents riveting moments of choice from Homer's Iliad Dante's Inferno Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice Milton's Paradise Lost Melville's Benito Cereno Dostoevsky's The Brothers Karamazov Kafka's In the Penal Colony and Morrison's Beloved in order to advocate reading for and with dialogic freedom It ends with a practical application to the debate about abortion and an invitation to rethink other polarizing issues For more information please visit <http://dialogicfreedom.weebly.com> Parental Death Michelle Shreeve, 2018-04-20 experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture. Motherhood in Morrison's view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance essential and integral to black women's fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well being for themselves and their culture. The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children. This argues O'Reilly is Morrison's maternal theory a politics of the heart. As an advocate of a politics of the heart O'Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values. Above all Toni Morrison and Motherhood based on Andrea O'Reilly's methodical research on Morrison's works as well as feminist critical resources proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison's works. It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison's rich and complex works notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition. African American Review O'Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences. Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering Andrea O'Reilly examines Morrison's complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar teacher or reader of Morrison. South Atlantic Review it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood not to mention the combination should read this book. O'Reilly's exhaustive research her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison's works result in a highly useful scholarly read. Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison's literary world O'Reilly conveys Morrison's vision of motherhood as an act of resistance. American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison's oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship. An in depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison's interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self destructive modes. Kudos to Andrea O'Reilly for illuminating Morrison's maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain. Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature. Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction. In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O'Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences. Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota. Andrea O'Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women's Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on

Narrating the Self Tomi Suzuki, 1996 Narrating the Self examines the historical formation of modern Japanese literature through a fundamental reassessment of its most characteristic form the I novel an autobiographical narrative thought to recount the details of the writer's personal life thinly veiled as fiction Closely analysing a range of texts from the late nineteenth century through to the present day the author argues that the I novel is not a given form of text that can be objectively identified but a historically constructed reading mode and cultural paradigm that not only regulated the production and reception of literary texts but also defined cultural identity and national tradition Instead of emphasising as others have the thematic and formal elements of novels traditionally placed in this category she explores the historical formation of a field of discourse in which the I novel was retroactively created and defined
