Lost Woman:

The Lost Lady of Lone Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth, 2019-12-17 In The Lost Lady of Lone Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth weaves a poignant narrative characterized by her signature blend of romance mystery and moral undertones Set against the backdrop of the 19th century American landscape the novel tells the story of Grace a young woman whose life takes unexpected turns as she navigates societal expectations personal loss and the quest for identity Southworth's style is imbued with vivid descriptions and emotional depth reflecting the conflicted sentiments of her time especially women's roles in a rapidly changing society Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth an influential American author of the Victorian era was a pioneering figure in women's literature Her own experiences as a mother and a widow shaped her understanding of female resilience which permeates her works Southworth's vast literary output often focusing on themes of love virtue and social critique positions her as a significant voice addressing the complexities of women's lives in her day thereby contextualizing the challenges and triumphs faced by her characters I highly recommend The Lost Lady of Lone for readers seeking a compelling exploration of personal fortitude and societal constraints Southworth's narrative not only captivates the heart but also stimulates intellectual inquiry into the prevailing norms of her era making it a vital read for those interested in historical fiction and women's studies

Lost Children Archive Valeria Luiselli, 2019-02-12 NEW YORK TIMES 10 BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR An epic road trip that also captures the unruly intimacies of marriage and parenthood This is a novel that daylights our common humanity and challenges us to reconcile our differences The Washington Post One of The Atlantic's Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years In Valeria Luiselli's fiercely imaginative follow up to the American Book Award winning Tell Me How It Ends an artist couple set out with their two children on a road trip from New York to Arizona in the heat of summer As the family travels west the bonds between them begin to fray a fracture is growing between the parents one the children can almost feel beneath their feet Through ephemera such as songs maps and a Polaroid camera the children try to make sense of both their family's crisis and the larger one engulfing the news the stories of thousands of kids trying to cross the southwestern border into the United States but getting detained or lost in the desert along the way A breath taking feat of literary virtuosity Lost Children Archive is timely compassionate subtly hilarious and formally inventive a powerful urgent story about what it is to be human in an inhuman world

Over her dead body Elisabeth Bronfen, 2017-06-01 In 1846 Edgar Allen Poe wrote that the death of a beautiful woman is unquestionably the most poetic topic in the world The conjunction of death art and femininity forms a rich and disturbing strata of Western culture explored here in fascinating detail by Elisabeth Bronfen Her examples range from Carmen to Little Nell from Wuthering Heights to Vertigo from Snow White to Frankenstein The text is richly illustrated throughout with thirty seven paintings and photographs

Woman's Evangelical Commentary: New Testament Dorothy Kelley Patterson, Rhonda Harrington Kelley, 2006-06 Written by women for women this New Testament commentary adheres to the complementarian view of the relationship between men and women helping readers see God's marvelous design and plan for all

Woman's Worth Lisa Leghorn, Katherine Parker, 2022-08-24 Originally published in 1981 Woman's Worth takes up the challenge to the male preserve of economics which was raised nearly a century ago by Charlotte Perkins Gilman in her classic work Women and Economics Patriarchal economic systems socialist as well as capitalist are founded upon women's unpaid labour On this premise Lisa Leghorn and Katherine Parker base their exploration of the economic basis of women's culture across cultures from the USA to South America the Middle East socialist countries Africa and Europe Woman's Worth is accessible and informative to those who have been intimidated by the term international economics Its sources are women's perspective and experience in many countries in their words and in their writings published and unpublished Thus the authors are able to reveal the economic nature of facets of women's lives which have hitherto been dismissed by traditional economics as features of family or personal life and to build a new vision of an economics based in female values

Coping With Loss Susan Nolen-Hoeksema, Judith Larson, Judith M. Larson, 2013-01-11 Coping With Loss describes the many ways in which people cope with the death of someone they love Most earlier books on bereavement have fallen into two categories distillations of the clinical experience of individual therapists or collections of chapters reporting the results of empirical studies Each category is valuable but has tended to serve a narrow group of readers practitioners with particular theoretical orientations or researchers in quest of the latest findings Coauthored by a leading research psychologist and an experienced therapist who specializes in bereavement education and intervention this book is different The authors weave together the strands of theory research and clinical wisdom into a seamless and readable narrative While they discuss previous work they also present new data never before published from one of the largest studies of bereaved people ever conducted the Bereavement Coping Project Unlike most studies to date which focused on only one type of bereaved group usually widows or widowers the Bereavement Coping Project examined the experiences of several different groups during the first 18 months after the death The groups included those who had lost a spouse a parent an adult sibling or a child and those who had lost their significant other to cancer or cardiovascular disease on one hand as opposed to the stigmatized disease of AIDS on the other The book begins with a critical overview of theories of bereavement succeeding chapters explore in depth the impact of specific types of loss the impact of particular coping strategies on recovery the impact of social supports and religion and the special cases of children and of people who seem to grow and change for the better after a loss A final chapter considers implications for intervention with bereaved people Each chapter is richly illuminated with real life examples throughout and ends with a section called Voices in which bereaved people describe their various attempts to cope in their own words Insightful and informative

Complicated Spirits in a Woman's Strength Nora Ann Wheeler, 2009-05 I pray that my poetry will bless you in a way that will help you to believe in your dreams and in your life I promise that it will give you hope to go through the things that god has already planned for you It will encourage you to overcome hardship and pain I know that at times it might seem that no one cares but trust me there is someone who cares for you If you really believe in your self and in your dreams I know that god will touch your heart through anything you desire or go through My book will bring tears and happiness I hope that life will give you a chance the way it has me I never gave up on my writings or my dreams It has taken me a long time to have some courage to go on my book is very inspirational and full of love I can't express myself enough on how much it could heal you and touch your life Changes are the hardest to come by in this life today Because what you become is what you can change in someone else's life somewhere My book will give you trust in your own reasons to fight and to overcome a lot Even in some areas that may cause you to feel prisoner or incapable to succeed to become a better person in life May god bless you in my writings to give you hope to believe your worth something to someone somewhere I pray my life experience will give you understanding to help you overcome hurt and pain that has caused you any unhappiness I know my book of poems will bring you some relief in your time of need so you will become the person you are and desire to be I do believe that there is people out there that feel just like I do May God Bless You Nora Wheeler
