Clissold,2023-08-31 Informed by both new and old media theory materialist approaches to the study of everyday objects and a series of close readings that chart the critical history of postcard use in the fiction and correspondence of Ernest Hemingway Ring Lardner James Joyce and Wilfred Owen this book locates and attempts to rediscover lost misplaced and neglected postcard materialities as they relate to the archiving editing publishing and fictional repurposing of postcards across Anglo American Literary Modernism 1880 1939 It argues that postcards need to be recognized as important early twentieth century communication technologies and distinctly modernist textualities composed of multimedia recto verso intertextualities Moreover their material limitations encourage users to inscribe messages often in fragmented language forms and innovative cultural shorthands a k a postcardese This study redresses the ongoing widespread scholarly neglect of signifying postcard materialities in modernist studies and the editorial

silencing of postcard features in collections of published author correspondence It also stresses that for these four literary figures of modernism the material choice of a postcard for communicating is always as much the meta message as any of the signifying materialities they carry uploaded onto their platforming surfaces
