CONTRIBUTORS Rae Armantrout Mei mei Berssenbrugge Lucie Brock Broido Jorie Graham Barbara Guest Lyn Hejinian Brenda Hillman Susan Howe Ann Lauterbach Harryette Mullen No Image There and the Gaze Remains Catherine Karaguezian,2014-02-04 To date no book length study of the work of poet Jorie Graham has been published Graham now holds the prestigious Boylston Professorship of Rhetoric and Oratory at Harvard University recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship and a Pulitzer Prize Graham has established herself as one of the most important poets of her generation This book addresses the connection between Graham s work and the legacy of American Modernism arguing that her recurring interest in the visible world and how best to represent it in her poetry can be seen as a continuation of the work of Eliot and Stevens For Graham the visible world is a means of approaching the ineffable or the divine The poet s approach to the ineffable in her work is conflated at times with the relationship between the self and the other maintaining the integrity of both and accurately representing the truth of what she sees become a moral project for the poet aligning her work with that of the Moderns The book addresses Graham s entire body of work now nine books of poetry and interprets her poetic preoccupation with visibility through the lens of psychoanalytic criticism Sustainable Poetry Leonard M. Scigaj,2021-12-15 Focusing on the work of A R Ammons Wendell Berry W S Merwin and Gary Snyder author Leonard Scigaj shows that just as a sustainable society does not depreciate its resource base so a sustainable poetry does not restrict interest to language Over the past thirty years many poets have shown an increasing sensitivity to ecological thinking But critics trained in poststructuralist language theory often fail to explore the substance of ecopoetry Scigaj is the first to define ecopoetry as separate and distinct from nature or environmental poetry marked by its concern with balancing the interests of human beings with the needs of nature Just as science learned that the earth was not the center of the universe ecopoetry insists on the recognition that humans are not at the center of the natural world Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant

Poetry of Contemplation Arthur L. Clements, 1990-06-01 This is the first systematic and thorough study of mysticism or contemplation in these three seventeenth century poets and in three modern writers It not only clarifies the very confused issue of mysticism in seventeenth century poetry but also connects seventeenth century poets with modern literature and science through the contemplative tradition from the Bible and Plato and Church fathers and important mystics of the Middle Ages through Renaissance and modern contemplatives The transformative and redemptive power of contemplative poetry or holy writing regardless of genre or discipline is prominent throughout the book and the relevance indeed the vital necessity of such poetry and of the living contemplative tradition to our apocalyptic modern world is discussed in the last chapter In this chapter attention is given to modern science especially to the new physics and to philosophical and mystical writings of eminent scientists
