other specialists this esteemed text provides practical and trusted advice Reichel's Care of the Elderly Jan Busby-Whitehead, Samuel C. Durso, Christine Arenson, Rebecca Elon, Mary H. Palmer, William Reichel, 2022-07-21 This eighth edition of Dr Reichel's formative text remains the go to guide for practicing physicians and allied health staff confronted with the unique problems of an increasing elderly population Fully updated and revised it provides a practical guide for all health specialists emphasizing the clinical management of the elderly patient with simple to complex problems Featuring four new chapters and the incorporation of geriatric emergency medicine into chapters The book begins with a general approach to the management of older adults followed by a review of common geriatric syndromes and proceeding to an organ based review of care The final section addresses principles of care including care in special situations psychosocial aspects of our aging society and organization of care Particular emphasis is placed on cost effective patient centered care including a discussion of the Choosing Wisely campaign A must read for all practitioners seeking practical and relevant information in a comprehensive format An Evidence-based Approach to the Treatment and Care of the Older Adult with Cancer Diane G. Cope, Anne M. Reb, 2006 Description The book offers a comprehensive overview of the treatment and care of the older adult with cancer The evidence based practice approach is timely and provides the foundation for nursing practice that is the expected standard of care The use of the case study at the end of each chapter assists the reader in the synthesis and application of the information The book addresses every aspect of the care and treatment of not only the cancer patient but also the family The chapter on complementary therapy is a bonus Purpose The purpose is to focus on the unique aspects of treatment and care that the older adult with cancer requires Addressing the older adult with cancer is of paramount importance to not only the health of the individual but of the family community and society The book meets the author's objectives Audience This is written for all healthcare providers The authors have written a book that can be used by gerontology nurses but it is appropriate for the multidisciplinary team that provides care to the older adult with cancer The authors have the professional background with applicable experience to edit this book Features This book covers more than the care and treatment of cancer in the older adult It provides necessary background information that demonstrates the impact of cancer on the older patient and their significant others The assessment information is useful for both experienced and novice nurses The use of chapter case studies enables healthcare providers to apply the chapter content The use of an evidence based practice approach to delivering healthcare is essential The information allows nurses to use the findings from reviewed research literature in providing the best care for their patients in an efficient manner that also considers patient preferences the risks and the benefits of treatment or lack thereof Assessment This book provides guidance to novice to expert nurses in the treatment and care of the older adult cancer patient using a holistic approach The chapters are well written by authors who are experts in their field The Cochrane Guidelines are considered the gold standard for evaluating research that impacts treatment selection and care of all patients Their use in the reference materials lends credibility to the information that is presented in the book Publisher Gerontologic Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2004 Older adults afflicted with progressive eventually fatal chronic illness have care needs and personal priorities that tend to focus on living well despite the disease At this phase of life the wish is for symptom relief maintenance of activities concern for family and preparation for death and bereavement When progressive disability marks the last months and years the patient should remain focused on living life as fully as possible until its end Major advances in enabling function and managing symptoms have taken place in the past decade or two People who once would have suffered terribly from pain can now expect to be comfortable with aggressive pain and symptom management The challenge in today's nursing practice is that nurses work in a care system that was not designed to deal with the challenges posed by large numbers of persons coming to the end of life at the same time Nurses are not adequately prepared to provide quality compassionate care for persons who are old sick and eventually dying Matzo and Sherman's new book provides a valuable resource for practicing nurses at all levels in the health care continuum who care for older adults at the end of life The goal of the book is to enhance quality of life for older adult patients and families who have progressive incurable illnesses Focuses on quality end of life nursing care and its impact from a palliative care perspective Addresses active and compassionate care therapies to enhance physical psychological social and spiritual domains of life Explores the spiritual social and psychological aspects of key nursing competencies at the end of life and progresses to the more evidence based information and interventions related to pain symptom management disease progression and care of the dying elder Includes Case Studies which help put the content into a more humanistic perspective Provides Evidence Based Practice boxes that apply current research to findings Elder Care and Service Learning Foundation for Long Term Care (N.Y.), 2002-03-30 The authors study how service learning provides practical experience for the student and increases the elderly's interaction with social groups including how to plan services fieldwork suggestions elder care policies and case studies 20 Common Problems in Geriatrics Alan M. Adelman, 2001 Offers practical guidance on how to manage the most common conditions seen in ambulatory geriatrics required reading for students residents and practitioners who care for the elderly Addresses controversies and uncertainties in the diagnosis and management of each problem patient education emerging therapeutic approaches and cost analyses and behavioral family holistic approaches Nursing Care of the Older Adult Mildred O. Hogstel, 1981 Care of the Elderly William Reichel, 1995 Critical Thinking in Respiratory Care Shelley C. Mishoe, 2001-06 This basic text teaches respiratory therapy content in a framework that promotes students decision making skills The problem based learning approach relies on clinical cases and a systematic method in which students may develop a deep and broad understanding of respiratory care content on sound clinical decision making Topics covered include communication and negotiation skills patient assessment and writing care plans patient education and ethical and cost considerations Physical Change & Aging Sue V.
