A Heritage of Holy Wood: The Legend of the True Cross in Text and Image Barbara Baert, 2004-07-01 In the fourth century the idea arose that the Cross on which Christ was crucified had been found by Helena mother of Emperor Constantine Thus began a legend that would grow and flourish throughout the Middle Ages and cause the diffusion of countless splinters of holy wood And where there is wood there was once a tree Could it be that the Cross was made from that most noble species the Tree of Life So gathering characters along the way the legend evolved into a tale that stretches from the Creation to the End of Time A Heritage of Holy Wood is the first reconstruction of the iconographic and literary tradition of the Legend of the True Cross Its broad scope encompasses relic cults pilgrimages travellers tales and the Tree of Life and involves Church Fathers crusader kings Teutonic Knights and mendicant orders all of which influenced the legend s depiction from its earliest representation in manuscripts reliquaries and altarpieces to the great monumental cycles of the high Middle Ages If the holy wood was the medium of medieval memory A Heritage of Holy Wood reveals the growth rings of fifteen centuries of imagery An

Armenian Futuh Narrative Sergio La Porta, Alison M. Vacca, 2024-12-31 The History of the Armenian priest ewond is an important source for the history of early Islamic rule and the only contemporary chronicle of second eighth century caliphal rule in Armenia This volume presents a diplomatic edition and new English translation of ewond s text which describes events that took place during the century and a half following the Prophet Mu ammad s death in AH 11 632 CE The authors address ewond s account as a work of caliphal history written in Armenian from within the Caliphate As such this book provides a critical reading of the Caliphate from one of its most significant provinces Reading notes clarify many aspects of the period covered to make the text understandable to students and specialists alike Extensive commentary elucidates ewond s narrative objectives and situates his History in a broader Near Eastern historiographical context by bringing the text into new conversations with a constellation of Arabic Greek and Syriac works that cover the same period The book thus stresses the multiplicity of voices operating in the Caliphate in this pivotal period of Near Eastern history A Prophecy of Empire

Christopher J. Bonura, 2025-11-04 The Apocalypse of Pseudo Methodius was one of the medieval world s most popular and widely translated texts Composed in Syriac in Mesopotamia in the seventh century this supposed revelation presented a new salvific role for the Roman Empire whose last emperor it prophesied would help bring about the end of the ages In this first book length study of Pseudo Methodius Christopher J Bonura uncovers the under appreciated Syriac origins of this apocalyptic tract revealing it as a remarkable response to political realities faced by Christians living under a new Islamic regime Tracing the spread of Pseudo Methodius from the early medieval Mediterranean to its dissemination via the printing presses of early modern Europe Bonura then demonstrates how different cultures used this new vision of empire s role in the end times to reconfigure their own realities The book also features a new complete and annotated English translation of the Syriac text of Pseudo Methodius Symeon Stylites the Younger and Late Antique Antioch Lucy Parker, 2022 A study of the authority of the holy man and its limits in times of crisis taking as its central figure Symeon Stylites the Younger c 521

592 who from his vantage point on a column on a mountain close to Antioch witnessed a period of exceptional turbulence in the sixth century including plague earthquakes and Persian invasion Maximus the Confessor Paul M. Blowers, 2016 This study contextualizes the achievement of a strategically crucial figure in Byzantium s turbulent seventh century the monk and theologian Maximus the Confessor 580 662 Building on newer biographical research and a growing international body of scholarship as well as on fresh examination of his diverse literary corpus Paul Blowers develops a profile integrating the two principal initiatives of Maximus's career first his reinterpretation of the christocentric economy of creation and salvation as a framework for expounding the spiritual and ascetical life of monastic and non monastic Christians and second his intensifying public involvement in the last phase of the ancient christological debates the monothelete controversy wherein Maximus helped lead an East West coalition against Byzantine imperial attempts doctrinally to limit Jesus Christ to a single divine activity and will devoid of properly human volition Blowers identifies what he terms Maximus's cosmo politeian worldview a contemplative and ascetical vision of the participation of all created beings in the novel politeia or reordered existence inaugurated by Christ's new theandric energy Maximus ultimately insinuated his teaching on the christoformity and cruciformity of the human vocation with his rigorous explication of the precise constitution of Christ's own composite person In outlining this cosmo politeian theory Blowers additionally sets forth a theo dramatic reading of Maximus inspired by Hans Urs von Balthasar which depicts the motion of creation and history according to the christocentric plot or interplay of divine and creaturely freedoms Blowers also amplifies how Maximus's cumulative achievement challenged imperial ideology in the seventh century the repercussions of which cost him his life and how it generated multiple recontextualizations in the later history of theology

Universal Empire Peter Fibiger Bang, Dariusz Kolodziejczyk, 2012-08-16 The claim by certain rulers to universal empire has a long history stretching as far back as the Assyrian and Achaemenid Empires This book traces its various manifestations in classical antiquity the Islamic world Asia and Central America as well as considering seventeenth and eighteenth century European discussions of international order As such it is an exercise in comparative world history combining a multiplicity of approaches from ancient history to literary and philosophical studies to the history of art and international relations and historical sociology The notion of universal imperial rule is presented as an elusive and much coveted prize among monarchs in history around which developed forms of kingship and political culture Different facets of the phenomenon are explored under three broadly conceived headings symbolism ceremony and diplomatic relations universal or cosmopolitan literary high cultures and finally the inclination to present universal imperial rule as an expression of cosmic order

Jerusalem Falls John D. Hosler, 2022-01-01 The first full account of the medieval struggle for Jerusalem from the seventh to the thirteenth century The history of Jerusalem is one of conflict faith and empire Few cities have been attacked as often and as savagely This was no less true in the Middle Ages From the Persian sack in 614 through the bloody First Crusade and beyond Jerusalem changed hands countless times But despite these horrific acts of violence its story during this period is also one of interfaith tolerance and accord In this gripping history John D Hosler explores the great clashes and delicate settlements of medieval Jerusalem He examines the city's many sieges and considers the experiences of its inhabitants of all faiths The city's conquerors consistently acknowledged and reinforced the rights of those religious minorities over which they ruled Deeply researched this account reveals the way in which Jerusalem's past has been constructed on partial histories and urges us to reckon with the city's broader historical contours

Rethinking the Qur'ān in Late Antiquity Juan Cole, 2025-02-17 How the Qur'an reflects on and responds to the regional cultural religious and political currents swirling in Western Arabia and neighboring areas during the great war 603-630 between the Roman and Sasanian empires The book approaches the Qur'an through six case studies The first two consider the era 200-800 CE which classicist Peter Brown dubbed late antiquity The second two contextualize quranic stories and tropes in the era of Herakleios and Khosrow II The final pair consider issues in how the Qur'an was constituted both physically and stylistically and also sets these processes in their late antique context The book treats the constitution of the quranic text first physically and then rhetorically The use in the Qur'an of the technique of narrative apostrophe is for the first time subjected to a concerted analysis These themes are all united by a concern to understand better issues in why the Qur'an makes certain narrative choices how the narrative changes over time and how it articulates with other texts and perspectives

The Arabic Historical Tradition & the Early Islamic Conquests Boaz Shoshan, 2015-09-07 The early Arab conquests pose a considerable challenge to modern day historians The earliest historical written tradition emerges only after the second half of the eighth century over one hundred years removed from the events it contends to describe and was undoubtedly influenced by the motives and interpretations of its authors Indeed when speaking or writing about the past fact was not the only nor even the prime concern of Muslims of old The Arabic Historic Tradition and the Early Islamic Conquests presents a thorough examination of Arabic narratives on the early Islamic conquests It uncovers the influence of contemporary ideology examining recurring fictive motifs and evaluating the reasons behind their use Folklore and tribal traditions are evident throughout the narratives which aimed to promote individual tribal and regional fame through describing military prowess in the battles for the spread of Islam Common tropes are encountered across the materials which all serve a central theme the moral superiority of the Muslims which destined them to victory in God's plan Offering a key to the state of mind and agenda of early Muslim writers this critical reading of Arabic texts would be of great interest to students and scholars of early Arabic History and Literature as well as a general resource for Middle Eastern History
