The RE Generation Jack Uldrich, Camille Kolles, 2022-06-28 What Matters Most A powerful generation already in motion is extending and deepening its roots before our very eyes a generation not defined by age but rather by heart A rapidly growing segment of leaders whose work integrates action in the world with what matters most to the heart and spirit are reimagining rethinking rebuilding and renewing the world around us Individuals businesses and corporations must understand cater to leverage and ultimately join this generation if they wish to succeed in the future For in the end there is only one generation that will matter to the planet and that is the Re Generation This uplifting book gives you permission to not only reimagine a future of greater congruence between your deep values and outer actions but to hear your own promptings for becoming an uncompromising force for good in the world and advance skills to help usher this new world into creation

Stops Along the Way L. Brent Bozell III, 2021-12-07 Stops Along the Way tells tales of ten red headed Catholic children raised on a farm in the 60s just seventy miles from our nation s capital yet so rural that they could be welcomed by both the KKK and a diminutive black man who would become part of the family attending high school in the 70s in another country on another continent alone with two brothers free to explore mysterious castles and watch gripping bullfights while enrolled in a school built in the Middle Ages working in the 80s in the most successful political enterprise of its time yet forgotten just one generation later shooting commercials in war zones while accused of starting a war and have you ever wondered what it was like to take off on one airplane from inside a cornfield or look out the window of another and watch a rocket ship fly by Stops Along the Way tells all this and so much more timeless stories that are the perfect antidote for today s poisonous headlines

Reimagining Capitalism in a World on Fire Rebecca Henderson, 2020-04-28 A renowned Harvard professor debunks prevailing orthodoxy with a new intellectual foundation and a practical pathway forward for a system that has lost its moral and ethical foundation Free market capitalism is one of humanity's greatest inventions and the greatest source of prosperity the world has ever seen But this success has been costly Capitalism is on the verge of destroying the planet and destabilizing society as wealth rushes to the top The time for action is running short Rebecca Henderson's rigorous research in economics psychology and organizational behavior as well as her many years of work with companies around the world give us a path forward She debunks the worldview that the only purpose of business is to make money and maximize shareholder value She shows that we have failed to reimagine capitalism so that it is not only an engine of prosperity but also a system that is in harmony with environmental realities the striving for social justice and the demands of truly democratic institutions Henderson's deep understanding of how change takes place combined with fascinating in depth stories of companies that have made the first steps towards reimaging capitalism provide inspiring insight into what capitalism can be Together with rich discussions of important role of government and how the worlds of finance governance and leadership must also evolve Henderson provides the pragmatic foundation for navigating a world faced with unprecedented challenge but also with extraordinary opportunity for those who can get it right

Re/Invention Patricia Leavy, 2022-09-05 From Patricia Leavy a leader in arts based research this is the first comprehensive guide to what social fiction is and how to write it In an engaging personal tone Leavy explores the unique contribution that creative writing such as novels series and short stories can make to addressing qualitative research questions In depth discussions of narrative models such as the three act structure and elements such as plot metaphor dialogue are accompanied by excerpts from Leavy's published fiction reflections on the writing process and technical suggestions The book offers evaluation criteria for social fiction as well as practical publishing advice Instructive features include tip bubbles with additional writing hints end of chapter Skill Building and Rethink Your Research exercises and an appendix with suggested readings

Re-imagining University Assessment in a Digital World Margaret Bearman, Phillip Dawson, Rola Ajjawi, Joanna Tai, David Boud, 2020-07-13 This book is the first to explore the big question of how assessment can be refreshed and redesigned in an evolving digital landscape There are many exciting possibilities for assessments that contribute dynamically to learning However the interface between assessment and technology is limited Often assessment designers do not take advantage of digital opportunities Equally digital innovators sometimes draw from models of higher education assessment that are no longer best practice This gap in thinking presents an opportunity to consider how technology might best contribute to mainstream assessment practice Internationally recognised experts provide a deep and unique consideration of assessment s contribution to the technology mediated higher education sector The treatment of assessment is contemporary and spans notions of assessment for learning measurement and the roles of peer and self within assessment Likewise the view of educational technology is broad and includes gaming learning analytics and new media The intersection of these two worlds provides opportunities dilemmas and exemplars This book serves as a reference for best practice and also guides future thinking about new ways of conceptualising designing and implementing assessment

ReIMAGINE Ewen Bell,2020-12-20 Let this book guide you on a journey to re ignite your creative expression and fall in love with the art of photography Bring back the joy of the craft and get a handle on how to be more creative with the camera The 2021 Edition has 38 chapters that mostly focus on practical philosophies plus a few that delve into the technical It doesn t matter what camera you own the most powerful tools you have are your own experience and expression Reimagining

the International Yongjin Zhang,2025-01-07 A rich and enlightening study of Chinese international relations this book examines Chinese world ordering before the West as both intellectual history and institutional practices in deep world history It shows how engaging China s historical pursuit of ordering the world can contribute to our search for global foundations of international thought Offering a distinctive English School perspective this volume is a call to put studies of Chinese international relations in their proper historical context It argues that such an approach leads to a better understanding of Chinese ideas and statecraft and contends that reimagining the international is indispensable for a fruitful pursuit of knowledge production in the construction of global IR New Outlook ,1909 Reimagining Adult Education as World

Building Aliko Nicolaides,Ahreum Lim,Neal Herr,Trisha Barefield,2024-03-18 Reimagining Adult Education as World Building offers a new way of thinking about adult education by re envisaging how adult education works It explores how the process of world building or the invention of a new world or a set of concepts can be translated into actual and feasible action when turning towards complex real life problems Cultivating contexts where adult educators can become change agents who recognize that the individual and community are intricately entangled demands that educators grow new capacities make new tools develop thicker networks and cultivate intentional links amongst each other to foster ecologies of transformation This book shows how educators can create an ecology or environment for transformative thinking where students can learn to collaborate and use world building tools to create new responses to current issues It begins by explaining the philosophical underpinnings of world building and the tools that translate pragmatic imagination into scaffolds for individual and collective capacity building It also illustrates how the worldbuilding protocol makes a difference in adult learning and how this pedagogical tool introduces the ecological approach to adult education Each chapter explores a practical case study showing how learners have applied worldbuilding tools to complex challenges Showing how to apply the world building protocol in a classroom setting this edited collection will be valuable to Adult Education scholars researchers practitioners and learning facilitators

A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today's culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God's message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger Richard Lischer Thomas Long Elaine Lawless Jolyon Mitchell Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger

Talking Lightly William Koopman, 2012-10-02 Talking Lightly was originally published in print form in 1994 Talking Lightly features interviews with twelve prominent personalities of new thought figures who have helped define the New Age Movement Author William

Koopman former editor and publisher of The Light provides a description of each person's history and accomplishments and describes how the interviews came about. These fascinating and intimate discussions explore many different concepts from firewalking to music from self-awareness to the tapping of inner strength. Talking Lightly will challenge readers to rediscover and reassess their perception of the world around them. Outlook, 1909 Re-Indigenizing Ecological

Consciousness and the Interconnectedness to Indigenous Identities Michelle Montgomery, 2022-10-25 The authors of Re-Indigenizing Ecological Consciousness and the Interconnectedness to Indigenous Identities share the diversity and complexities of the Indigenous context of worldviews examining relationships between humans and other living beings within an eco-conscious lens. Michelle Montgomery's edited volume shows that we belong not only to a human community but to a community of all nature as well. The contributors demonstrate that the reciprocity of Indigenous knowledges is inclusive and represents worldviews for regenerative solutions and the need to realign our view of the environment as a whole rather than as it is. This reciprocity is intertwined as an obligation of environmental ethics to acknowledge the attributes of Indigenous knowledges as not merely a body of knowledge but as multiple layers or levels of place-based knowledges, identities, and lived experiences. Reimagining Indian Ocean Worlds Smriti Srinivas, Bettina Ng'weno, Neelima

Jeychandran, 2020-06-11 This book breaks new ground by bringing together multidisciplinary approaches to examine contemporary Indian Ocean worlds. It reconfigures the Indian Ocean as a space for conceptual and theoretical relationality based on social science and humanities scholarship, thus moving away from an area-based and geographical approach to Indian Ocean studies. Contributors from a variety of disciplines focus on keywords such as relationality, space, place, quotidian practices, and new networks of memory and maps to offer original insights to reimagine the Indian Ocean. While the volume as a whole considers older histories, mobilities, and relationships between places in Indian Ocean worlds, it is centrally concerned with new connectivities and layered mappings forged in the lived experiences of individuals and communities today. The chapters are steeped in ethnographic, multi-modal, and other humanities methodologies that examine different sources besides historical archives and textual materials, including everyday life, cities, museums, performances, the built environment, media, personal narratives, food, medical practices, or scientific explorations. An important contribution to several fields, this book will be of interest to academics of Indian Ocean studies, Afro-Asian linkages, inter-Asian exchanges, Afro-Arab crossroads, Asian studies, African studies, Anthropology, History, Geography, and International Relations. Makers of

Worlds, Readers of Signs Kfir Cohen Lustig, 2019-09-03 Makers of Worlds, Readers of Signs charts the aesthetic and political formation of neoliberalism and globalization in Israeli and Palestinian literature from the 1940s to the present. By tracking literature's move from making worlds to reading signs, Cohen Lustig proposes a new way to read, theorize our global contemporary. Cohen Lustig argues that the period of Israeli statism and its counterpart of Palestinian statelessness produced works that sought to make and create whole worlds and social time, create the new state of Israel, preserve collective visions of Palestinian statehood During the period of neoliberalism the period after 1985 in Israel and the 1993 Oslo Accords in Palestine literature became about the reading of signs where politics and history are now rearticulated through the private lives of individual subjects Here characters do not make social time but live within it and inquire after its missing origin Cohen Lustig argues for new ways to track the subjectivities and aesthetics produced by larger shifts in production In so doing he proposes a new model to understand the historical development of Israeli and Palestinian literature as well as world literature in our contemporary moment With a preface from Fredric Jameson Reimagining Museums for Climate Action Rodney Harrison, Colin Sterling, 2021-11-01 This book is not a typical academic edited volume Nor does it subscribe to the usual dictates of an exhibition catalogue It does not seek to provide a comprehensive overview of work on climate change and museums or claim to have discovered One Quick Trick to Solve the Climate Emergency Instead the book reflects the main characteristics of the Reimagining Museums for Climate Action project it is collaborative distributed conversational subversive nomadic and at times playful The arguments it puts forward emerge through dialogue and speculation just as much as they respond to and build on empirical research In this sense the book is perhaps best seen as a partial and in many ways still evolving artefact of the Reimagining Museums project It can be read from cover to cover or its varied contents can be traversed in a less rigid fashion It is one output among many and its main aim is to prompt further transdisciplinary alliances rather than set out a particular position or manifesto To this end the book invites peripatetic readings and strange deviations It is anchored by eight concepts that reflect the diversity and creativity of museums but it is also motivated by a desire to re situate this field within a broader set of debates on the roots of social and environmental injustice and the role of museums in these histories
