Reisen Im Sudan 1847/1852:

Reisen im Sudan Alfred Edmund Brehm, 2013-09-23 Brehms Tierleben ist auch heute noch jedem ein Begriff dass der Begründer eines der prominentesten zoologischen Nachschlagewerke die Tiere auch in freier Wildbahn studierte wissen hingegen nur wenige Die Faszination für die Zoologie gab Brehms Vater selbst ein bekannter Ornithologe an seinen Sohn weiter Im Jahr 1847 bricht Alfred Brehm sein Architekturstudium ab um den Vogelkundler Baron Johann Wilhelm von Müller auf eine Forschungsreise nach Afrika zu begleiten Während der fünfjährigen Expedition reist er von Kairo über Karthum bis nach Kurdufan durch Savanne und Urwälder und teilt mit gefährlichen Leoparden Elefanten wilden Löwen und Büffelherden einen Lebensraum Die Ausbeute dieses Abenteuers ist ein sehr lebendiger detaillierter und bisweilen äußerst humorvoller Bericht über die faszinierende Tierwelt Afrikas und die Menschen dieser Region Soldiers, Traders, and Slaves Janet Ewald, 1990 In the Nuba Hills on the frontiers of the Islamic Sudan a dynasty of Muslim warrior kings arose in the eighteenth century Their kingdom Taqali survived as an independent state resisting conquest by larger empires and coming under external control only during the twentieth century Janet Ewald has written the first comprehensive account of the origins and development of the Taqali kingdom Ewald shows how events originating far beyond the Taqali massif allowed local Muslim soldiers to become kings of the Taqali in the eighteenth century and then to hold on to their power But the nature of that power was shaped by the highland farmers who stubbornly and largely successfully resisted the efforts of the kings to parlay their control over the means of production In this struggle religion became an ideological weapon on both sides as the Taqali farmers asserted their local beliefs against their Muslim rulers Political confrontations also bore unintended economic consequences Ewald's account of Taqali challenges current views on the impact of Islam merchant capitalism and Egyptian military administration in nineteenth century Sudan Bibliography of Natural History Travel Narratives Anne S. Troelstra, 2017-06-01 Anne Troelstra's fine bibliography is an outstanding and ground breaking work He has provided the academic world with a long needed bibliographical record of human endeavour in the field of the natural sciences The travel narratives listed here encompass all aspects of the natural world in every part of the globe but are especially concerned with its fauna flora and fossil remains Such eyewitness accounts have always fascinated their readers but they were never written solely for entertainment fragmentary though they often are these narratives of travel and exploration are of immense importance for our scientific understanding of life on earth providing us with a window on an ever changing and often vanishing natural world Without such records of the past we could not track document or understand the significance of changes that are so important for the study of zoogeography With this book Troelstra gives us a superb overview of natural history travel narratives The well over four thousand detailed entries ranging over four centuries and all major western European languages are drawn from a wide range of sources and include both printed books and periodical contributions While no subject bibliography by a single author can attain absolute completeness Troelstra's work is comprehensive to a truly remarkable degree The entries are arranged alphabetically by author and chronologically by the year of first publication under the author's name A brief biography with the scope and range of their work is given for each author every title is set in context the contents including illustrations are described and all known editions and translations are cited In addition there is a geographical index that cross refers between authors and the regions visited and a full list of the bibliographical and biographical sources used in compiling the bibliography
