Bochinger,2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective African

Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas,2015-05-21 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt s Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Journal of Religion ,1926 Includes section Book reviews Desire in René

Girard and Jesus William L. Newell,2012-03-22 William L Newell presents a comprehensive analysis of Ren Girard s work on the origins of culture and the depths of human desire Girard makes no claim toward a theory of religion but he lays the groundwork for a postmodern theory of it Girard s desire concerns fallen humanity those insanely imitating what they lacked and his use of the Bible brings back into play the idea of the holy in secular academia Newell challenges Girard s interpretation of Jesus s Passion as non sacrificial and he offers a close reading of Girard s works on mimetic desire scapegoating and sacrifice and Newell creates breakthrough theology on Jesus in the Excursus Girard makes no claim to having a theory of religion but he lays the groundwork for a postmodern theory of it and in this book Newell seeks to begin a theory of the end of the sacred and what will be in its place the holy Black Religion and the Imagination of Matter in the Atlantic World J.
