Romans William Douglas Mackenzie, 1912 Romans and Galatians Word Among Us Press, 2002 This series contains each passage of Scripture from books of the Bible and practical commentaries that include faith filled meditation Drawing from solid Catholic scholarship these commentaries inspire readers to grow in their love for Christ Readers will find a new rich meaning as they meet Jesus through the eyes of the writers of the New Testament Pillars of Paul's Gospel John F. O'Grady, 1992 An introductory overview of Paul's letters to the Galatians and Romans that integrates the influence of this apostle's personality and history Can be used as a companion text to the Paulist Bible Study Program Galatians and Romans Brendan Byrne, 2010-11-01 Of all the writings of Paul none have made so signal a contribution to Christian life and identity as the Letter to the Galatians and the Letter to the Romans While written at quite separate stages of his apostolic career and very different in tone the two letters unite in projecting above all a common Vision of God as a God of grace Both call for a human response of faith and love from which will flow a Christian life lived in freedom and hope This commentary brings out these positive emphases in Galatians and Romans while also remaining sensitive to the part these letters have played in divisions between Protestants and Catholics on the one hand and Christian caricature of Judaism on the other The aim is to clarify and shed light where Paul can be obscure as well as to bring out the full riches of his powerful presentation of the Good News for the life of believers today A Systematic Study of Romans and Galatians Willard Conchin, 1959

Focusing on Paul Andreas B. Du Toit, 2007 In the early 1970's due to serious epistemological flaws the demise of traditional New Testament research paradigms became imminent A new generation of scholars started the search for a fresh approach based on scientifically sound principles Working within the stimulating atmosphere of the New Testament Society of South Africa the author was one of the pioneers in developing a new multi dimensional research approach for New Testament studies The articles in the present volume written over a period of 25 years reflect part of this journey as viewed from a Pauline perspective Combining the positive aspects of the traditional biblical research paradigms with the important insights of modern linguistics literary science semantics and pragmatics particularly rhetoric the author investigates the convergence of various influences in Paul's pre-Christian career He proposes new possibilities of understanding Paul's language and style such as hyperbolic contrasts typical of his Semitic background Various aspects of his strategies of persuasion are investigated such as creating an ethos vilification alienation and re-identification The majority of articles concentrate on central elements in Pauline theology belief in the resurrection of Jesus the centrality of grace the in Christ and related formulae faith and obedience justification in Romans Christian identity ethics and ethos as portrayed in Romans
