 John V. Amodeo,2016-07-15 In 1917 there is no escape from the tight grasp of the Mississippi delta especially for a black young man As James Hayes grows up tilling the soil with his disabled father and younger brother all he can think about is how badly he wants out Lured by stories of the Great Migration north he dreams of the day when he will be able to leave and make his mark on the world Finally on one October morning eighteen year old James gets his chance When he is drafted and sent to France at the height of the Argonne Offensive by Germany James becomes embroiled in the thick of battle eventually standing out from other soldiers by winning the French Croix de Guerre As the conflict ends in 1918 he ventures to Paris where he is invited to sing at a local bistro Soon he becomes a sensation settles in his adopted country and marries a local woman But when he is called home to be near his terminally ill father fate rises up to meet him and changes everything once again In this tale of hope and perseverance a black World War I draftee from the Mississippi delta journeys from the trenches two of my favorite poem This was given to my oldest son from his teacher What a wonderful thing to know we have friends wherever we go Friends are with us when we are glad Friends cheer us when we are sad We have fathers mothers sisters and brothers For this I give my thanks to God And the other poem I remember is from my oldest sister Bea Like this they called me little Chatty Box but my name is little May The reason why I talk so much is that I have so much to say I have so many friends so many as you see I cant help myself from loving them all because they all love me I love my mother and father as well as my sister and brother too If you are very very good I guess I love you too I love God best of all he keeps safe me through the night until the morning breaks again He wakes me with light Oh how nice it is to live Yet if I should die God will send his angels down to take me to the sky
