Mice and Men Box Set 2 (Shattered Throne & Mended Crown) Lana Sky, Mice and Men Series Box Set 2 includes Shattered Throne and Mended Crown Books three and four in a series of sinister romances Shattered Throne With her family's safety in jeopardy and her heart on the line Willow finds herself trapped in a hopeless situation marry the man who betrayed her and trust in his plan Or can she navigate the deadly political landscape alone and save the ones she loves The question may be easier said than done when an unearthed secret from the past flips her entire perspective on its head Is Donatello the monster she's been led to believe Or is he as much a victim of past events as she is With a war looming and their relationship brewing both find their loyalties tested to their breaking point and a new threat on the horizon leaves them little time to waste As the past and present finally collide will they rise above the fray Or will old grudges finally tear them apart Mended Crown A broken engagement should signal the end of the feud blazing between the Stepanovs and Vanicis barring one small hitch no one foresaw a surprise pregnancy that could turn this petty misunderstanding into outright war For Donatello this new baby is a shred of hope after nearly a decade of misery one he won't forfeit without a fight For Willow this ordeal is a glaring reminder of her own conflicted loyalty leading to a choice she will have to live with for the rest of her life Salvaging this union will be the hardest bloodiest war Donatello has fought yet But as the danger looming above the city reaches a breaking point will they outlast the violence with their lives and hearts intact Mice and Men is a standalone series in the War of Roses Universe

Mormon Women's History Rachel Cope, Amy Easton-Flake, Keith A. Erikson, Lisa Olsen Tait, 2017-11-29 Mormon Women's History Beyond Biography demonstrates that the history and experience of Mormon women is central to the history of Mormonism and to histories of American religion politics and culture Yet the study of Mormon women has mostly been confined to biographies family histories and women's periodicals The contributors to Mormon Women's History engage the vast breadth of sources left by Mormon women journals diaries letters family histories and periodicals as well as art poetry material culture theological treatises and genealogical records to read between the lines reconstruct connections recover voices reveal meanings and recast stories Mormon Women's History presents women as incredibly inter connected Familial ties of kinship are multiplied and stretched through the practice and memory of polygamy social ties of community are overlaid with ancestral ethnic connections and local congregational assignments fictive ties are woven through shared interests and collective memories of violence and trauma Conversion to a new faith community unites and exposes the differences among Native Americans Yankees and Scandinavians Lived experiences of marriage motherhood death mourning and widowhood are played out within contexts of expulsion and exile rape and violence transnational immigration establishing civilization in a wilderness and missionizing both to new neighbors and far away peoples Gender defines limits and opens opportunities for private expression public discourse and popular culture Cultural prejudices collide with doctrinal imperatives against backdrops of changing social norms emerging professional identities and developing ritualization and sacralization of lived religion The stories experiences and examples explored in Mormon Women's History are neither comprehensive nor conclusive but rather suggestive of the ways that Mormon women's history can move beyond individual lives to enhance and inform larger historical narratives Your Madness, Not Mine Juliana Makuchi

Abbenyi-Nfah, 1999-02-28 Women's writing in Cameroon has so far been dominated by Francophone writers The short stories in this collection represent the yearnings and vision of an Anglophone woman who writes both as a Cameroonian and as a woman whose life has been shaped by the minority status her people occupy within the nation state The stories in Your Madness Not Mine are about postcolonial Cameroon but especially about Cameroonian women who probe their day to day experiences of survival and empowerment as they deal with gender oppression from patriarchal expectations to the malaise of maldevelopment unemployment and the attraction of the West for young Cameroonians Makuchi has given us powerful portraits of the people of postcolonial Africa in the so called global village who too often go unseen and unheard The Review of Reviews William Thomas Stead, 1900 Godey's Lady's Book, 1865 Book News, 1898 The Insurance Critic, 1874 Gender, Writing, and Performance Helen J. Swift, 2008-02-28 This book explores the poetics of literary defences of women written by men in late medieval and early modern France It fills an important lacuna in studies of this polemic in imaginative literature by bridging the gap between Christine de Pizan and a later generation of women writers and male Neo Platonist writers who have recently all received due critical attention Whereas male authored defences composed between 1440 and 1538 have previously been dismissed as insincere or mere intellectual games Swift formulates reading strategies to overcome such critical stumbling blocks and engage with the particular rhetorical and historical contexts of these works Edited and as yet unedited texts by Martin Le Franc Jacques Milet Pierre Michault and Jean Bouchet catalogues of women allegorical narratives and debate poems are brought together and analysed in detail for the first time in order to explore for example how such works address the misogynistic spectre of Jean de Meun's Roman de la rose The book seeks to understand the contemporary popularity of the case for women la querelle des femmes as literary subject matter It investigates the publication history across this period from manuscript to print of Le Franc's Le Champion des dames Swift further aims to show how these texts hold interest for modern audiences A nexus of theoretical concerns centred on performance Judith Butler's gender performativity Derrida's re-working of Austin's linguistic performativity through spectrality and dramatic performance is enlisted to articulate the interpretative engagement expected by querelle writers of their audience The reading strategies proposed foster a nuanced and enriched perspective on the question of a male author's sincerity when writing in defence of women
