Loren Eiseley Hilda Raz, 2008-10-01 Born raised and educated in Lincoln Nebraska Loren Eiseley 1907-77 was a highly respected writer and poet best known for explaining complex scientific concepts in poems easily read and understood by the general public Much of his work covered anthropology ecology and human evolution topics in which Eiseley himself was extensively educated Loren Eiseley collects essays and remembrances of his work by friends and academics Throughout this volume Eiseley is praised as a brilliant thinker accomplished writer and esteemed man of science who drew inspiration from his midwestern upbringing and worked to bring science into the mainstream at a time when its understanding was restricted largely to those working directly in the field Decades after his departure from the world he sought to understand Eiseley is lauded for beautifully joining the worlds of science and literature All the Strange Hours Loren C. Eiseley, 2000-01-01 A native of Lincoln Nebraska Loren Eiseley began his lifelong exploration of nature in the salt flats and ponds around his hometown and in the mammoth bone collection hoarded in the old red brick museum at the University of Nebraska where he conducted his studies in anthropology It was in pursuit of this interest and in the expression of his natural curiosity and wonder that Eiseley sprang to national fame with the publication of such works as The Immense Journey and The Firmament of Time In All the Strange Hours Eiseley turns his considerable powers of reflection and discovery on his own life to weave a compelling story related with the modesty grace and keen eye for a telling anecdote that distinguish his work His story begins with his childhood experiences as a sickly afterthought weighed down by the loveless union of his parents From there he traces the odyssey that led to his search for early postglacial man and into inspiring philosophical territory culminating in his uneasy achievement of world renown Eiseley crafts an absorbing self portrait of a man who has thought deeply about his place in society as well as humanity's place in the natural world Loren Eiseley : 1907-1977 ,1987 The Night
