Parnell, 2020-11-13 This essay collection examines the cultural and personal world of girls and women at a time when their lives their person their realities and their status are about to change forever Together the chapters cleverly create an in depth study of the subject and look at several cultural forms to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the bride The critical essays in this edited collection are thematically driven and include global perspectives of the portrayals of the bride in the films stage productions and pop culture narratives from Nigeria Kenya Uganda Tanzania Spain Ancient Greece and Ancient Rome Tajikistan India Egypt and the South Eastern Indian Ocean Islands This multinational approach provides insight into the intricacies customs practices and life styles surrounding the bride in various Eastern and Western cultures Living the Death of Democracy in Spain Susana Belenguer, Ciaran Cosgrove, James Whiston, 2017-10-02 This volume brings together new interdisciplinary perspectives on the Spanish Civil War its victims its contentious ending and its aftermath In exploring the slow demise of the Spanish Republic and the course of the Civil War the authors have chosen to range in turn over cinematic literary and historical depictions of the era In addition reactions elsewhere in Europe to the Spanish conflict are examined the role of the International Brigades is looked at afresh the fate of children displaced during the Civil War is explored and the Spanish anarcho syndicalist movement is revisited The volume shows that to be any kind of soldier in the armies of the Republic or even to be seen as a Republican sympathiser was to become a non person in the new order in Spain under Franco and sets what supporters of the Republic had to endure within the wider European and international context of the period This book offers timely fresh insights into the failure of the Spanish Republic and into a society that tried in vain to unite its divided people during what was a seismic era in Spain's history This book was originally published as a special issue of Bulletin of Spanish Studies Women Political Prisoners after the Spanish Civil War

Ruth Fisher, 2020-11-24 At the end of the Spanish Civil War the Nationalist government instigated mass repression against anyone suspected of loyalty to the defeated Republican side Around 200 000 people were imprisoned for political crimes in the weeks and months following 1st April 1939 including thousands of women who were charged with offences ranging from directing the home front to supporting their loved ones engaged in combat Many women wrote and published texts about their experiences seeking to make their voices heard and to counteract the dehumanising master narrative of the right wing victors that had criminalised their existence The memoirs of Communist women such as Tomasa Cuevas and Juana Doña have heavily influenced our understanding of life in prison for women under franquismo while texts by non Communist women have largely been ignored This monograph offers a comparative study of the life writing of female political prisoners in Spain focusing on six texts in particular the two volumes of Círcel de mujeres by Tomasa Cuevas Desde la noche y la niebla by Juana Do a R quien por la libertad by ngeles Garc a Madrid Abajo las dictaduras by Josefa Garcia Segret and Aquello sucedi as by ngeles Malonda All the texts share common themes such as describing the hunger and repression that all political prisoners suffered However the ideologically driven narratives of Communist women often foreground representations of resistance at the expense of exploring the emotional and intellectual struggle for survival that many women political prisoners faced in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War This study nuances our understanding of imprisoned women as individuals and as a collective analysing how women political prisoners sought recognition and justice in the face of a vindictive dictatorship It also explores the women s response to the spirit of convivencia during the transition to democracy which once again threatened to silence them

Past and Power: Public Policies on Memory. Debates, from Global to Local Jordi Guixé,Coromines,2016-05-26 The public authorities have not successfully resolved the management of the traumatic memory of the wars dictatorships and massacres to which the European project was always intended to be a counterpoint The conflict of memories and the public discourses about the past are latent on ideological political and cultural levels However if in the past the conflict concerning memories tended to develop inside the borders of countries it has now leapt into the European arena This has also led to the confrontation and questioning of the great narratives established in the common memory especially with countries of the East joining the European Union Each community group or nation maintains common memories that do not always fit in or converge with a general overall account The origins of the UB Solidarity Foundation s European Observatory on Memories lie in these debates and through this book which includes the contributions of specialists in multiple disciplines and the speeches that were given at the first international symposium Memory and Power A Transnational Perspective it hopes to present some of the key challenges that
